GOOD OLD EMPRESS—The C. P. R. steamer Empress cut her schedule time of 3 hours by travelling the distance in 2 hours 54 minutes, Saturday in the return passage from Digby, on her first run trip since she was equipped with oil-burning engines. That the Empress was able to reduce her running time considerably below the schedule without being crowded is regarded as a very satisfactory performance by C. P. R. officials, as speed aimed at in the change from coal to oil fuel. The change has eliminated three firemen, in addition to doing away with the coal dust nuisance. St. John Globe. (The Empress before being taken over by the C. P. R. was a familiar steamer in this port.)

S. D. U. MEN FOR BOSTON—Among those going out on the Governor Dingley Saturday night were Professor R. B. Drummey, A. D. (Harvard) Professor of English at St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, P.E.I., Paul A. Dan and Desmond W. Johnston, of Dorchester, Mass., John H. Sullivan, of Fall River, Mass., and Reginald P. McKinnon of Charlottetown, P.E.I., all students of St. Dunstan's. All are en route to their homes with the exception of the latter who will visit relatives in the States during the summer months. Professor Drummey has been a member of the faculty of St. Dunstan's for the past year and is considered as one of the cleverest students graduating from Harvard University. St. Dunstan's
