THE DAILY EXAMINER

APRIL 19, 1900

IMPROVED POULTRY

The cost of obtaining improved breeds of the larger animals is considerable. But the cost of obtaining the fine fowls can be borne by the poorest farmer. Now is the time to look out for a setting of eggs for the clucking hen. Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes are the popular kinds, for they lay large brown eggs and make first-class table-fowls. See that the eggs for setting are those of pure-bred birds. All farmers should have poultry yards and houses, and only the better kinds of fowls in them.

THAT'S THE CHEESE.

A correspondent of THE EXAMINER shows very clearly and strikingly the importance of keeping high the quality of our cheese product. Whether or not it will pay to engage a cheesemaker's instructor to this end, is the question for our factory owners and farmers to consider. P. E. Island cheese has now a fairly good reputation, as evidenced by the ready sales, at comparatively high prices, of last season. Certainly it will pay to maintain its quality at the highest possible standard—and to have it, as nearly as possible, equally good. Mr. Dillon, if we remember rightly, thought that a competent instructor ought to be obtained.

INTERESTING SEQUENCE OF EVENTS.

1. Mr. Farquharson and several of his supporters explicitly promised to oppose a license law.
  2. The Liberal candidates for Charlottetown were elected, and the Scott Act was voted out, after a "deal" with certain liquor dealers had been effected.
  3. In spite of the protests of the people and an united opposition in the Legislature, a law that is practically a license law was passed by Mr. Farquharson and his friends.
  4. Till within a month or two, the Patriot has declared that this license law was a great success, and has never said that it proved a failure.
  5. The Patriot now abandons the License Law in favor of a Provincial Prohibition Act—which will not prohibit.
  6. And the Guardian which professed to regard those who passed the License Law as "deceivers" and "traitors," now supports those who are ready to prove themselves to be "traitors" to the License Law, and is ready to depend upon them to pass and operate a Provincial Prohibition law!
- Can any dependence be placed upon the politicians and newspapers taking part in these events?

—Nova Scotia papers publish lengthy obituary notices of Judge Mather Byles DesBrisay, who passed away at Bridgewater, N. S., recently. Judge DesBrisay is described as of a sympathetic and kindly disposition, and a firm believer in the policy of progression, ever manifesting a vigorous interest in anything having for its object the advancement and welfare of the town in which he lived. He was beloved in life and honored in death; his place will be difficult to fill. Judge DesBrisay was born at Chester, N. S., on the 19th March, 1828. He was of Huguenot descent, the family having gone from France to England, the pioneer in Canada being Thomas DesBrisay who was at one time acting as Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island. Judge DesBrisay for a time represented Lunenburg County in the Nova Scotia Legislature, and filled the Speaker's chair with much ability.

ANOTHER REPLY.

In reply to Prohibitionist, we beg to say that THE EXAMINER's views concerning Provincial Prohibition have already been explicitly stated. We are opposed to Provincial Prohibition, (1) because it is not what the people voted for in the plebiscite, (2) because it will not stop the importation of liquors which—as experience with the Canada Temperance Act has proved—is essential to a material diminution of drunkenness; (3) because it will divert attention from the movement towards National Prohibition and is as a red herring drawn across the track of those guilty of the plebiscite perfidy, who are striving to avoid the only punishment that the people can administer; (4) because Provincial Prohibition for P. E. Island—all that can be obtained under it—may be had by the simple voting in of the Canada Temperance Act in Charlottetown.

As to the "P. S.," we have to say that if the Liberal-Conservative Party should repeal the Charlottetown License Law and collect the $9,000 or $10,000 in some other way, we shall continue to support it.

Additional questions propounded in the Guardian or other newspapers will not be answered by THE EXAMINER. Persons desiring information are, however, free to come to THE EXAMINER office.

* Inserted again to correct errors and supply omission.

In acknowledging the thanks of Prohibitionist for candid answers, we may say that THE EXAMINER speaks for itself, and without reference to the exigencies of party politics. Temperance and Prohibition have heretofore been dealt with outside of party lines, each elector and member of the Legislature voting according to his own opinion concerning the question at issue; and as it has been in the past so it is likely to be in the future, notwithstanding the efforts of the latest combination to scoop the temperance vote. We may add that THE EXAMINER is not so wedded to the reasons adduced in opposition to Provincial Prohibition, at this juncture, as to be proof against better reasons in its favor. THE EXAMINER is ever open to reason; and, as Shakespeare says, "good reasons must give way to better." Perhaps the Guardian may, even yet, advance at least one good reason why Prince Edward Island, with the Scott Act in effective operation, should go to all the trouble and expense of voting for, passing and operating a Provincial Prohibition law which will not prohibit—the essential thing—the importation of liquors.

We Could Tell Lots About Easter Selling

But we won't. We will let the half hundred trimmed hats and bonnets trimmed by Miss McEachern and sold by our saleswomen in our millinery department to the Ch'town, Tignish, Summerside, Souris and Georgetown ladies do the telling.

Something other than patronage must bring them to Ch'town's Greatest Store. Perhaps it is the low price asked, or may be the large assortment.

A great many think as we do—it is the style exclusive style that Miss McEachern gives every hat. No fear of any lady running against her own hat on some other ladies head.

Now Ladies.

If you want your bonnet or hat next Sunday leave your order say to morrow morning—Miss McEachern does not like pitching a hat together the end of the week or at half past eleven on Saturday and giving you the bother of answering the door bell for our parcel bay at a quarter to 12 p. m. Leave your order early; we will do the rest.
