KEENE, the celebrated tragedian, is to appear in St. John, N. B., on the 12th, 13th and 14th of July next. A FORM entitled "Idyl of the Sea," from the pen of Mr. W. C. Harris, crowded out of today's issue will appear on Monday. THE St. John Sea is to hand in a handsome new dress. The Sea is one of the newest of our exchanges. Long may it shine. A neatly bound volume, is for sale at the Diamond Bookstore—forty cents. RECITATION and dialogue books in great variety at the Diamond Bookstore. Thirty-five complete stories for forty cents, together with all new works as published. NOS. 1 AND 2 BATTERIES G. A. will meet at the Drill Shed to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at half-past nine o'clock, whence they parade to Second Methodist Church. A HANDSOME lot of Jubilee brochures received last evening. As these are the last lot we expect to receive, those calling early have the greatest variety to choose from.—E. W. Taylor, Cameron Block. OUR own Mr. Welsh is credited with having made the shortest and most emphatic speech on record in the Dominion Parliament. The speech was "Thank God!" in response to the statement of a speaker, "it is entirely a question of law and all the honorable members of the House are now lawyers." WORTH GETTING.—The Jubilee issue of Grip's Own Library will be out next week. It will be a book of 32 pages, with pictures on nearly every page. Every picture to appear is either original or is being especially re-produced for this issue. It will be for sale at all bookstores, or can be had by sending 10 cents direct to Grip Office, Toronto. THE great local dramatic event of the season will be the production of "The Danites," June 15th, by the Oddfellows of this city. The play has been in rehearsal some time, and the characters will be taken by members of the order, assisted by Miss Agnes Cody, an actress of whom the American press speaks in the highest terms. Tickets will be selling at a premium if the demand for them continues. THE presentation yesterday afternoon of the "Lady of Lyons," displayed not only the versatile powers of the favorite tragedienne, Miss Claire Scott, but demonstrated the unusual strength of her supporting company as well. Miss Scott's impersonation of the leading role, Pauline, was one that equalled in many particulars both her Camille and her Lucretia Borgia. S. K. Coburn was an excellent Claude Melnotte. That a fish story will be in order on their return. A LIVELY scratching match between a policeman and two women took place in a house on Grafton Street, near the centre of the city, this morning. It appears that the officer entered the house in question for the purpose of arresting a boy who lived there. The door had no sooner been closed than the women started in on the officer, scratching and clawing for all they were worth. The officer warded them off as best he could without unnecessary violence. He finally took the boy in charge and departed. He will carry a few battle marks, in the shape of scratches, for a few days. Truly the path of the policeman is not strewn with roses. THE Abbey Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. played to a large audience in the Lyceum last evening. The play was wretchedly performed. There was only one "Topsy" instead of two as announced, and she was a very inferior article. The two "Marks" were there, but were away below the average. "Gumption Cate" displayed considerable talent as a low comedian, while "Deacon Perry" should be ridden on a rail. "Phineas Fletcher" was also a wretched conception. "Aunt Ophelia" looked the part, but that is all that can be said in her favor. The other characters do not call for special comment. Taken for all in all the Company compares favorably with the worst that has ever visited this city.
