IL TROVATORE.

There was an old woman who somewhere did dwell,
Who was burnt for a witch, as the opera doth tell;
A daughter she had, too, a gipsy so bold,
Who went to a house where an infant she stold.
[Chorus in the Italian language, relative to the way she hooked it.]
Singing tooral, toledo and in dormero;
Allegro andanty and sempre amo,
O Giorno dorrore mia madre you know,
With fata crudel, e funesta & Co.

Now after they burnt up the old gipsy mother,
The daughter came by with her own child and tother;
When she saw her marm burning, it woke up her ire,
And she slung the stole baby smack into the fire.
[Sizzling chorus, descriptive of the burning.]
Singing tooral toledo, and in dormero, &c.

Now when the poor baby was all of a bake,
She found out she'd burnt up her own by mistake;
And as she felt bad at the deed she had done,
She brought up the other and called him her son.
[Chorus in the barrow tone style.]
Singing tooral, toledo, &c.

Now when the young man got to years of discretion,
He tuck up with music all for a profession,
Likewise a young woman for a sweetheart he got,
And all her affections upon him she sot.
[Basso reliefo chorius, in which is set forth the young woman's sentiments as expressed in a furrin language.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

There's a chap now, a Count, who comes into the song,
Who likewise loved this lady uncommonly strong,
And meeting Manrico—her lover—one night,
They pulled out their weapons intending to fight.
[Spirited chorius, expressing an orful combat which came very nigh coming off.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

The next scene discovers Manrico, a gipsy,
With fellows who drink a great deal and get tipsy,
And who hammer on anvils like jolly good fellows,
While their wives mind the fire and their sons blow the bellows.
[Hardware chorius, a la horseshoe.]
Singing tooral, toledo, &c.

But alas! after all this fine singing and fighting,
Which gave the occasion for all this fine writing,
The Count got Manrico locked up in the jug,
And held him as tight as a bug in a rug.
[Doleful chorius, sparging the lagrime.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

Then the lady came veeping and vailing around,
Where Manrico was lying all on the cold ground,
With the old gipsy woman while ballads he sung,
Resolved to die game though he'd got to be hung.
[Game chorius, with the back up and straps buckled down.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

This Count came along—says the lady, says she,
"If you'll let my love go, why then you may take me."
So the Count he consented to open the door,
And wipe off the chalks against the bold Trovatore.
[Trovatore—a cove what sings. Fristance, I is a trovatore as you hear by the following.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

But the lady she thought, "I will ne'er be his wife,
And I'll swindle the Count if it costs me my life:"
So ven he came in there she lay on her side,
And they found, sure enough, 'twas by pison she died.
[Chorius expressive of strychinne pison.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

Then the folks made a fire 'cause the Count was so sore,
And in it they burnt up the gay Trovatore;
Then the gipsy, says she, "Count, I wasn't his mother,
And I'm sorry to say that you've burned up your brother."
[Chorius expressing a grand family fry.]
Tooral, toledo, &c.

One of Lamb's Best.—Lamb once convulsed a company with an anecdote of Coleridge, which, without doubt, he hatched in his hoax-loving brain. "I was," said he, "going from my house at Enfield to the East India House one morning, when I met Coleridge on his way to pay me a visit. He was brimful of some new idea, and in spite of my assuring him that time was precious, he drew me within the gate of an unoccupied garden by the roadside, and sheltered from observation by a hege of evergreens, he took me by the button of my coat, and closing his eyes, commenced an eloquent discourse, waving his right hand gently as the musical words flowed in an unbroken stream from his lips. I listened entranced; but the striking clock recalled me to a sense of duty. I saw it was of no use to attempt to break away; so, taking advantage of his absorption in his subject, and, with my pen knife, quietly severing my button from my coat, I decamped. Five hours afterwards, passing the same garden, on my way home, I heard Coleridge's voice; and on looking in, there he was with closed eyes, the button in his fingers, and the right hand gracefully waving, just as when I left him. He had never missed me."

The Age of Forty-Six. — Thomas Hood died at the age of forty-six, at the time he had excited the greatest expectations. There seems to be a fatality at this period of life for certain intellects, nearly as great as that which has rendered the age of thirty-seven dangerous to the higher walked artistic genius of Raphael, to Mozart, to Burns, to Byron. It is the grand climatoric of the soldier's and the statesman's life. At forty-six Pitt gave up the ghost, and passed away in the prime of his powers; at forty-six Napoleon lost the battle of Waterloo, and ended his career; at forty-six Wellington won that battle, and it may be said almost commenced his civil career. At forty-six Nelson's hour had come at Trafalgar. In literature we find that Spencer died at forty-six; Addison at forty-seven; Goldsmith at forty-six; Hood at forty-six.

A Regiment Decimated by Cholera.—Her Majesty's 77th Regiment, stationed at Allahabad, E. I., has been almost decimated by Asiatic Cholera. The deaths had been on an average ten or twelve per diam. None of the officers had been attacked, and at latest accounts the disease was still raging with such virulence that it had been found necessary to split up the remainder of the regiment into detachments, and send them into camp in various directions. It is remarkable that the epidemic this year has been entirely confined to Europeans, very few natives having suffered.

In the country between Sacramento and Ione City, Reese River county, there are a great number of salt plains, from one to three miles in diameter, and one that is at least fifteen miles across, being an unbroken deposit of pure white salt. On these salt plains no sign of vegetation appears; neither is there to be seen the smallest trace of animal life. There is not a hare, a bird, or even a lizard to be seen. All is solitude—a painfully silent mineral waste.

Some visitors cut away all the sofa coverings and window draperies of the White House at Washington, in order to carry off mementoes of the Presidential mansion. They have to refurnish that building every year in consequence. Wouldn't it be better for Mr. Lincoln to give the vandals his worn out boots and used-up unmentionables to snip at, and save his upholstry — if he must "render unto scissors the things that are scissors?"—N. Y. Sunday Times.

Summary of Wedded Bliss.—An exchange paper does it in this way:—"Heaven bless the wives, they fill our hives with little bees and honey! They ease life's shocks, they mend our socks, but don't they spend the money? When we are sick, they heal us quick—that is, if they do love us; and if not, we die, and yet they cry, and raise tombstones above us."

[Extracts from Newspapers.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2567, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, 'the Queen Insurance Company,' which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained; and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met testifies to their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."

THE INFALLIBLE REMEDY.

Holloway's Ointment.

Contracted or Stiff Joints.

All the Medicines in the London dispensaries would barely benefit, much less cure, any chronic cases of contracted or stiff joints; whereas if this invaluable Ointment be effectually rubbed into such parts twice a day, the effects will be immense. Paralytic patients even can derive advantages from this fine remedy when other means fail.

Scorbutic Humors, Scald Heads and Skin Diseases.

Scorbutic humors arise from an impure state of the blood, and in most cases the liver and stomach are the organs at fault. The Pills will speedily restore these to a healthy action; while the Ointment, if well rubbed in at least twice a day, will soon cure any case of skin disease. Soldiers, sailors and miners use this famous Ointment in all parts of the world.

Disorders of the Kidneys, Stone and Gravel.

In any of the above complaints more benefit may be derived in twenty-four hours by adopting the following simple means than is frequently brought about in six months by any other treatment. In bad cases, if the Ointment be rubbed into the small of the back over the region of the kidneys, it will quickly penetrate, and in most instances give immediate relief. Six or eight of the Pills should be taken nightly according to circumstances.

Diptheria, Sore Throats, &c.

These maladies are of so serious and dangerous a nature that the Ointment would not be recommended unless the Proprietor was sure of its effect. It will cure, when every other means have failed, if applied immediately, and not delayed until the patient is beyond recovery. It is a sovereign remedy for sore throats. Settled coughs or wheezing will be promptly removed by rubbing in this unguent. Mothers should rub it into the chest of their infants whenever there is any hoarseness, tightness, or other affection of breathing.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts—Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers.

It is surprising how quicky a sore, ulcer or wound deprives the body of strength, and unfits it for the duties of life; but it is no less wonderful to watch the effect of Holloway's Healing Ointment, when it is used according to the printed directions, and assisted by appropriate doses of the Pills. The pain, inflammation, and other morbid manifestations soon disappear from the affected part, and health and strength return. This treatment creates sound flesh, and therefore makes its cures complete.

Gout and Rheumatism

Will be cured with the greatest certainty if large quantities of the Ointment be well worked into the complaining parts. This treatment must be perseveringly followed for some time, and duly assisted by powerful doses of Holloway's Pills. The essence of these diseases lies in the blood, which has floating through each vessel the pain-giving poison which vitiates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with, and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty and rheumatic maladies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Soft)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scald
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions		Sore Throats
Bite of Moschetoes and Sand Flies	Elephantiasis	Skin Diseases
	Fistulas	Scurvy
	Gout	Sore Heads
Coco-bay	Glandular Swellings	Tumours
Chiego-foot		Ulcers
Chilblains	Lumbago	Wounds
Chapped Hands	Piles	Yaws

Rev. C. A. Buckbee, Assistant Treasurer American Bible Union, N. Y. City, writes: "I very cheerfully add my testimony to that of numerous friends to the great value of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum."

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government, and the Chiefs of the Faculte de France.

THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES; This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of taste, odour, and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion Each package contains full instructions for every case.

THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only removes gonnorrhœ, gleet and all discharges, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION, No, 2, for syphilis, disease of the bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly disappears; and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.

THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications; and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s, and 33s per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s are saved; and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.

The Cause and Cure of Premature Decline.

Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicines, or sent post free, secure from observations direct from the Author, for 2s 6d.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W. De Roos, M. D., M. R. C. S., L. S. A., &c., of the Ecole de Medicine, Paris, Graduate in Medicine, Surgery and Midwifery; Licentiate of the Royal Society of Apothecaries, &c.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES.

"To be your own counsel or your own doctor, entails risks that have become proverbial to a degree that prevents much good resolution from taking any benefit or advantage when reasonably offered. Suspicion begets irresolution, and where there is no confidence good results seldom follow. Medical books are a field for the faculty alone, and the public act wisely in refraining from their study. 'Drink deep or taste not the Pierian spring,' is good advice where the uninformed mind, listening to its own apprehensions is oftener ready to imagine than use its cool judgment. There is one class of medical lore, however, that stands in a position somewhat exceptional to our remark, and which treats on disorders and irregularities in which morality is offended. For this reason the patient too often suffers in secret, or pursues in ignorance practices that daily bring him into a more hopeless condition for want of friendly advice. To such we recommend a perusal of the 'Medical Adviser' of Walter De Roos, M. D., of London, an established Physician, graduate and licentiate of all the regular institutions of London and Paris; and who has made nervous disorders and their baneful origin his particular study, and obtained such a practice in this branch of therapeutics, as qualifies him to be a safe and competent adviser.—County Chronicle, May 7th, 1861.

"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by Walter De Roos, M. D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice. The author is a man of most enlarged experience."—Derby Telegraph, June 29th, 1861.

To those who contemplate marriage its perusal is especially recommended.—The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late.—Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so.—It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints.—Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost.

From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous Institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice, in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases; and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness, whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.

Foreign Residents can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their cases, with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ or LIFE DROPS; Protected by Royal Letters Patent of England; Seals of the Faculte de France; Royal College of Prussia, &c, have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa, languor, lassitude, depression of spirits, irritability, anger, excitement, needless fear, distaste and incapacity for society, study or business; indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, noises in the head, impotency, impediments to marriage, &c. This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, thus speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.

As these complaints if neglected become chronic or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicines, to make fair trial of a remedy, which concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail, and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price, 11s, and four times the quantity at 33s per bottle. The £5 packages containing twelve 11s quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s is effected, will be sent from 25, Bedford Place, only on receipt of the amount per draft or a London house or otherwise.

Extracts from letters which can be seen by any one. "I am happy to say that I am now quite well, thanks to you and your medicine of medicines."—D. P. St. Asaph. "I am happy to say that I shall not require more, thank God, and I hope He will reward you for what you have done for me."—A. C., Hartlepool. "If my tongue could speak, or my pen could write to express my gratitude to you I should feel happy, but neither tongue nor pen of mine can do so."—H. A. Birmingham. "Without you I should have been in my grave, but now I am a happy man again."—D F.F., Inverness. "I can never thank you sufficiently; had I never read of the Guttæ Vitæ, where or what I might have been now, I cannot tell."—W. G., West Pelton.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy Remedy for the above dangerous complaints. Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer over the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind, is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.

Many there are, who from natural diffidence, or fear of discovery, would silently bear their afflictions rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the above remedies the sufferer may without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners have graciously permitted the Government stamp, bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.

Agents for England, Thomas & Co., 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane, London; Raimes & Co, Liverpool; Apothecaries Comp., Glasgow; Ferris & Co, Bristol; Cornish & Co., Plymouth; Rowe, Devenport; Randall & Co., Southampton; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

PREMATURE DECAY OF THE SYSTEM, and its perfect restoration, whether arising from youthful imprudence or the excesses of adult life, infection, climate, &c. Observations on marriage, the prevention and removal of certain disqualifications. Rules and numerous prescriptions for self-treatment. Sufferers who are prevented from matrimony by the consequences of imprudence should read this work, as pointing out the sure way to restoration of health. Sent post free in an envelope on receipt of 3s, by Mr. Lawes, Medical Publisher, 14, Hand Court, London.

"I have taken your Pills and always derive great benefit from them."—W. W. H., Queen's College, Cambridge. "I have taken your Pills with the most happy result."—B. H., Cork. "Your Pills do me great good, I feel better this last twelve months than for years before."—F. G., Wareham, Ashford. "Your Pills did me more good than anything I have taken."—M. J Dursley. "I have tried your Pills and derived the greatest benefit therefrom."—V. G., Navy Hotel, St. Helier's.

Sold by Langley & Johnston, Hollis-street, Halifax, Nova Scotia; W. R. Watson, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island; J. Ward, Esq., News Office, Sydney, Cape Breton; E H. Parker, (late Palmer & Co) Kingston, Canada West; Strickland & Co., Mobile; M. F. Deconge and Edward Guillot, New Orleans; Fongera, New York; Musson & Co., Quebec, C. A. & J Langley, Yates Street, San Francisco; Mr. Murdo, Druggist, and J. McCoubrey, Esq., St. John's, Newfoundland; Thomas Walker & Sons, St. John, New Brunswick; Lymans & Co, Toronto, of whom also may be had "THE MEDICAL ADVISER," or should difficulty arise in procuring any of the above, enclose the amount by draft or otherwise, to 25 Bedford Place, Bloomsbury Square, London, W.C., and they will be sent securely packed per return.

CAUTION.—There being highly injurious imitations of the above, sufferers should guard against the recommendation of other medicines by dishonest vendors, who thus obtain a larger profit. To protect the public against fraud, Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners have directed that the words "Walter De Roos, London," be printed in white letters on the Stamp affixed to the above, to imitate which is felony.
