TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Weakness predominated on the stock market Monday, as all sections except golds showed minus signs on index.

Weakest group in industrials was utilities, Calgary Power dropped 1½ to 22 after going as low as 21¾, its lowest this year. Gatineau Power fell ½, Bell Telephone ⅜ and CPR ⅛.

Oshawa Wholesale A declined 1¼ to 33¼ in extremely light turnover, Royal Bank fell 1¼ to 82½ and Canadian Breweries dropped ⅛ to 11½.

Other losers included BA Oil, Bank of Montreal, Interprovincial Pipe Line and Canadian Celanese, all off in a ⅛ to ⅝ range.

Gains were few and most were fractional. Consumers' Gas gained ⅛, as did Atlas Steel, while Moore Corporation rose ¼ and Distillers Seagrams ⅝.

On the exchange index, industrials fell 1.45 at 627.15, base metals .01 at 207.50 and western oils .32 at 121.62. Golds rose .2$ to 89.15.

Base metals saw International Nickel fall ¾, Falconbridge ½ and Consolidated Mining and Smelting and Ventures ¼ each. Hudson Bay Mining bucked the trend, climbing ⅜ to 57⅞ after moving as high as 58—a 1962 high. In speculatives, Northgate slipped 15 cents to $5.65.

Dome rose ⅜ and Pacific Petroleum ¼ among western oils, while Calgary and Edmonton dropped ⅝.

Maybe a loose shingle started it. Or worn-out weather stripping. Or a gnawing band of termites. Whatever it was, plugging a leak properly can be expensive—and, of course, the longer it's left, the more costly a repair becomes. This goes for peeling paint, crumbling concrete, and missing mortar too.

Yes, keeping a house in shape sometimes costs a lot of money, and occasionally it may cost more than you have on hand. What then? The answer may be a Scotiabank Home Improvement Loan... money you can borrow at low interest for repairs... or for extra bedrooms, a garage, a carport, modern heating, new and up-to-date plumbing—things that maintain or improve your home as an investment. Just call at your nearest branch of The Bank of Nova Scotia. See the manager. He will welcome the opportunity to discuss how a Scotiabank Home Improvement Loan can help you.
