WAR NEWS.

[By Telegraph to Reading Room and Daily Examiner.]

LONDON, Jan. 25.

The London Times says that at St. Petersburg there is great excitement and little hope of success of the negotiations for peace. It is already rumored that negotiations are broken off. Many desire an armistice at present and peace dictated from Constantinople.

The Turks from Rasgrad and Osman Bazaar are retiring on Sumla.

The Earls Derby and Carnarvon have resigned.

Northcote notified that he would move for supplementary supplies for naval and military supplies.

On Monday, in the House of Lords, Beaconsfield said that England was not going to be dictated to by any other Power.

Bismarck advised Russia, before concluding a treaty of peace, to come to an understanding with Austria and Prussia.

Russia is now negotiating with Austria.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The War

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 21.—A correspondent denies that the surrender of Adrianople is agreed to in consequence of the demands of Russia. He asserts that the Turks decided not to defend the place because it was considered untenable. The same correspondent, telegraphing on Sunday evening says: "It has been impossible to communicate by telegraph with Adrianople for three hours, and it is possible that the Russians have entered it."

LONDON, Jan. 21.—England has proposed that there shall be a conference of the powers immediately after the Russian terms of peace are made known. If the powers decide to take part in such a conference, the Government will then ask Parliament for extraordinary credit, in order to prepare such measures and take such precautions as it may deem necessary for the protection of English interests in the East.

It is reported from Constantinople that in consequence of a decision at the Council on the 18th, Izzed Bey has been sent to the Russian head-quarters with fresh instructions to the Turkish plenipotentiaries, giving them full power to sign, whereas they were first instructed to refer the conditions to the Porte. It is said this resolve was taken in consequence of the pacific tone of England at the opening of Parliament, and also in consequence Russia has given notice that she will insist on an immediate acceptance or rejection of her terms. It is consequently expected in Constantinople that an armistice will be signed immediately. Preparations for the Sultan's removal to Broussa are consequently suspended.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—It is officially denied from St. Petersburg that Russia demanded, as one of the terms of peace, that she shall have the exclusive right of passage through the Dardanelles.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Britain will send more troops to South Africa. Great preparations are being made for King of Spain's marriage to-morrow. Victoria sends a bracelet to the Princess; Prince of Wales sends an Indian scimitar with scabbard and hilt inlaid with gold and precious stones.

The Vatican states the situation is unchanged by the accession of King Humbert.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The Russians are within ten hours march of Gallipoli.

A London despatch says the news of entrance of Russians into Adrianople has caused increasing excitement and uneasiness here. Several prominent adherents of Lord Beaconsfield's policy held a meeting last evening for the purpose of impressing upon the Government the necessity of urging a meeting of the proposed European Conference before the Russians proceeded any further.

Orders will be sent forthwith to Admiral Hornby, commanding the British fleet in the Mediterranean, now lying at anchor at Voular Bay, near Besika Bay.

It is stated that Queen Victoria has written a letter to the Duchess of Edinburgh, asking her to use her influence with her father, the Czar, to spare Turkey. Whether this action will have any effect or not remains to be seen. It is considered here as significant of the dilemma to which England has been reduced.

There has seldom been a time when a war or heavy expenditure for warlike purposes would be more distasteful to the English people. Trade is stagnant, and many kinds of industry are at the lowest point of depression. Besides, the hands of Great Britain are fully occupied with other troubles. The insurrection of Kafirs in South Africa is exceedingly discouraging. Despatches from Sir Bartle Frere, the Governor of the Cape, ask for reinforcements, and in all probability five regiments will leave Malta to put an end to the Galeka outbreak.

Despatches from Vienna say that Russia has taken the fate of Romania, Servia and Montenegro into her own hands, and that none of them will be represented in the negotiations with Turkey. This is causing much ill-feeling at Bucharest, while the Servians are bending their energies to the occupying, before the cessation of hostilities is ordered, of as much as possible of the territory known as "Old Servia," which they intend to claim as their compensation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 22.—It is stated that Suiman Pasha had with him at Drama 108 battalions and 115 guns.

A panic prevails at Pera in consequence of a report that the Russians are between Uzum Kopri and Rosban, ten hours march hence.

Orders have been received from Stamboul to resist any advance. Troops are expected from Smyrna and Dardanelles.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—A despatch to the Standard from Berlin says: A despatch from Tushkend, January 10th, says that the Chinese took the city of Kashgar by coup de main.

The Emir Bey, Kuli Beg, escaped from the carriage and fled to the Russian province of Ferghani. He solicits the Russian support.

The whole of Kashgar is now in the power of the Chinese.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—A Kerman's special says the statement is confirmed in Government circles that the Queen personally appealed to the Czar to spare Turkey. This action on the part of Her Majesty was in consequence of the request from the Sultan, and by the desire of the English Government. Reports have been received here, but are considered unauthentic, that the Russians are advancing on Gallipoli.

GENERAL NEWS.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—A bill to repeal the Ballot Act in local elections has passed the second reading in the Manitoba Legislature.

The fire in the cellar of the house of Commons yesterday amounted to a most nothing. The damage done was insignificant. The argument in the Jacques Cartier case commences before the Supreme Court this afternoon.

TORONTO, Jan. 21.—The friends of Edward Hanlon are willing to match him to row Higgins a five mile race—two miles and a half and repeat—for £500 a side, at Toronto and allow him £100 for expense, or of the Kennebecasis River, New Brunswick, each paying his own expenses.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Three men were arrested to-night at Chamberly Canton, on suspicion of tearing up the track of the Montreal, Portland and Boston Railway on Saturday night, causing an engine to run off.

TORONTO, Jan. 21.—Courtney, the American oarsman, arrived this afternoon on a visit to Hanlan, and to inspect the Toronto course.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Joseph Charest, of the Parish of St. Anne de Leparade has been sent to Three Rivers jail by the coroner to await trial for the murder of his father, who died a week ago from the effects of a severe beating and exposure.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A Havana telegram says the steamer "Blake" is ashore at Bahia Honda, in a dangerous position. No further particulars.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 19.—The weather is intensely hot, and a great drought is generally prevalent.
