HORSESHOEING.

HAVING secured the services of MR. WILLIAM TUCKER, a native of this Island, who has had nine years' experience as a Horse-shoer in the United States, I am prepared to supply a long-felt want in this line. Mr. Tucker has reduced horse-shoeing to a science, and is prepared to perform all classes of work in a common-sense and scientific manner. I need not inform the intelligent horseowner that the gait of the horse and condition of the feet must be understood to weight a horse properly and to successfully operate thereon. Numerous patrons already admit the merits of the work performed, and recommend his system of shoeing.
Customers can always depend on prompt attention and entire satisfaction.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Positive Denial.

SIR,—Not being a subscriber to THE EXAMINER, it is only within the last few days that my attention has been called to a communication from an Alberton correspondent in your issue of the first of January, to the effect that the liquor which caused the death of the unfortunate young man Whalen was obtained from me. Now, Sir, I positively deny that either myself or any person for me, ever supplied to poor Whalen, or any of the parties who were said to be in company with him, or to any person for them, any liquor at any time.

I have good reason to believe that your correspondent has not written you in the public interest, but to gratify a personal spite.
I am respectfully yours, &c.,
R. B. REID.
Alberton, Feb. 12th, 1887.

Monster Meeting at Clifton.

THE public meeting at Clifton on the 8th inst., was the largest ever held here. The Liberal-Conservative cause was amply vindicated, and the candidates will gain here. Mr. Ferguson's speech was received well, and acknowledged to be the speech of the evening.

The Grenville meeting was also a grand success, and from all the Committees we learn of a large gain to the Conservative Candidates. The grand effect of fighting a policy party against a no policy party, is taking effect too solidly to be removed by the chaff of the campaign.

The Electors of Cavendish held a large meeting in the hall on the night of the 10th inst. The Conservative cause was ably supported by Arthur Simpson, Dr. McNeill, Thomas Doyle and others, and here large accession is expected in support of good Government and Canada for the Canadians.
Yours &c.,
W. H. HOGAN.
Hope River, 11th Feby., 1887.

Mr. Yeo Speaks.

SIR,—The following is a report of Mr. James Yeo's speech at Arlington, Lot 14, on the 10th inst., delivered before a large and intelligent meeting of the electors of this part of the County. Mr. Yeo said:—

This is the first opportunity I have had of thanking you for the good support you gave me at the last election (Mr. Yeo lives among them). I live in the middle of the County and I am a farmer like yourself and should be supported. I do not know why we should have an election now before the full term was expired. McKenzie, when in power, did not do that—he held out to the last. I think that there must be some very dark deed that the Government did not want the people to know. If Blake is returned to power we will get reciprocity, but if Sir John is returned we will never get it, as the people of Ontario, who did not want it, would not allow him (Sir John) to get it.

A voice—Will they allow Blake to get it? (A pause and a laugh).

The Government did not use the half-breeds well in the Northwest. I have been talking to a woman with four children that returned from Moosejaw last fall, and she told me that the half-breeds were very badly used there.

A voice from the crowd—There are no half-breeds in Moosejaw. (Another pause).

After recognizing the person who spoke Mr. Yeo said:—Well, you ought to know, as you have been there.

Another voice—It's a woman's story.

Mr. Yeo said:—Well, I am very fond of women myself. Sir John is in the criminal box on his trial, and the electors present are his jury; but Mr. Hackett made an excellent defence, indeed the best I ever heard made of Sir John and his Government, but you must not believe what Mr. Hackett says. Vote for me and my colleague. Blake is sure to be returned to power, and there will be a lot of patronage in offices, &c. I assure you that I will not forget my friends. I thank you for the excellent hearing given me, and assure you again that Blake will be returned with a very large majority.

Thus ended the grand speech of the very able and influential member for Prince County. He never attempted to contradict one single statement of Mr. Hackett's able and excellent speech in Parliament, or for being absent for more than half the time during the session, and drawing his full salary contrary to law. As for Mr. Perry, he was so completely annihilated by Mr. Hackett that he hung down his head and had not the political audacity to attempt a defence of his gross political ignorance.

ONE WHO WAS PRESENT.

More Help Wanted!

SIR,—Have you any more help to spare? The Grats have only five speakers following Mr. Bentley to the meetings; still finding themselves weak, they sent for James M. Sutherland, M. P. P. He came satchel and all, made one speech, got completely floored and returned home next morning quite convinced that Bedeque is the wrong place to go with the satchel.

Send more help if possible—there are only six orators to meet Mr. Bentley at Freetown to-night. If you do not send them more help they cannot keep Mr. Bentley's majority below 200.
Yours truly,
OBSERVER.
Prince County, Feb. 14, 1887.

Two Can Play at That Game.

SIR,—The threats of the Patric in reference to Civil Service officials are mean and contemptible.
The Davies faction forgets that much leniency has been manifested towards Civil officials under "Tory rule." Perhaps it would be well that they should also read up the Civil Service Act, the Protection of which they will acknowledge to have made in Canada.
