

Second Round Completed In Amateur Golf Meet

By Jack Sullivan
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

MONTREAL, (CP) — Three little-known golfers outside Quebec and a one-time Ontario junior champion pulled practically everything out of their bags but a rabbit Thursday to steal second round play in the Canadian amateur championships. Only one survived the match-play competition but all created a big stir.

At the end of nearly 11 hours of golf, over-all results showed the 30-man British Walker Cup team making a clean sweep of their matches, two of them by the narrow margin, and the surprising elimination of Nick Westlock of Windsor, Ont., a leading amateur in Canada in recent years, by Gordon Ball of Kitchener, Ont.

And to make it complete, Walter McElroy of British Columbia Willingdon Cup team, had to take the last three holes to eliminate Marcel Pinsonnault of Laval-Sur-Lac one up. The complete four-man Willingdon Cup team from Saskatchewan met defeat and only one from Nova Scotia's team advanced into the third round.

British Champ Wins
Joe Carr, 31-year-old British amateur champion from Dublin who sells women's dresses for a living, had the scare of his life before he defeated 20-year-old Tommy Hunter of Montreal on the 21st hole. And Norman Drew, fellow British Walker Cup player from Northern Ireland, was taken to the 19th hole by Bob Spence, also of Montreal, before advancing into Wednesday's third round.

Weslock, who hadn't lost a match-play game to the 29-year-old Ball in six outings this year, lost one up in the major upset of the championships that drew 200 players from Canada, the United States and Great Britain. There were a few other surprises but generally play went according to form.

Gerry Kesselring of Kitchener, Ontario open and amateur champion, breezed through Dr. Y. Dion of Montreal, 7 and 6, posted a four-under-par 31 on the front nine.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

$700 in purses is being offered by the Summerside Raceway management in each class of the Futurity Sweepstakes to be held in Summerside, September 16 and 17. This should bring out a fine array of young racing blood from all parts of the Island. We predict the bumper crowd of the season to see these races during "Futurity Week".

The stock car competition for Maritime supremacy slated for the Summerside Raceway on Labor Day, September 7, should also bring out the fans in record-shattering numbers. At the beginning of the hot rod season Island drivers were novices at this exciting sport and mainland pilots slipped by them like Man O' War whizzing by Spavin the Great. But the local lads have picked up a few tricks of the trade since that time and should be able to give the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick boys a run and a roar for their money.

This late summer season is just crammed full of exciting events for sport fans. Besides the baseball and softball play-offs there is the golf meet at the Summerside Golf and Country Club on Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1. Nearly all the best pros in the Maritimes will be matching swings and putts, and the competition among the amateurs should be keen with our Island golfers right in the middle of the argument.

From the competition on the links to the social program, from tea-time to tea-time, the affair should prove to be a golfer's "seventh heaven" of enjoyment.

It will be "Buckley W. Carson Day" at the Queen Elizabeth Park

Sport Echoes From Prince County

Today with all the rest of the boys thrown in as side shows, Ed Buckley can stand the Abbie Juniors on their collective heads when he is right (he's right most of the time) so we Summerside fans are mighty happy about that.

On the other hand (the south-paw side), Benny Carson, when right, gives up about as many base hits as Scrooge gave Christmas presents before he met the three spooks. So, we Summerside fans are feeling mighty-uncomfortable about that. Gosh! Guess we're all mixed up. We'll have to wait and see what put on a juggling act with the ball happens. Maybe some fielder will and be the "goat" of the series. Or he may hit a home run with the bases plugged solid and emerge the series hero. Such is baseball. Come-on-a to our park and see what happens for yourself.

May we respectfully disagree with the contention that Holman's baseball team would have to appear at Memorial Field in order for President Hunter to award them the game. This is true in the case of an umpire's award because an umpire's authority does not begin until he says "play ball". But if the president of a league makes it away with his recalcitrant putter. He conceded one hole, the 13th, before he could get onto the green and needed 40 puts for 20 holes.

Hunter, who played on Quebec's Willingdon Cup teams in 1949 and 1951, was tied up at the end of nine and a big upset was in the making. Carr took the 11th and 12th to square the match but Hunter took the lead on the 13th when Carr played like a week-end duffer.

Only two junior provincial champions are left, Dave Pemberton-Smith of Montreal and Ted Homenuik of Yorkton, Sask. The Montrealer defeated Bob Gray of Charlottetown, P.E.I., two-up and the 17-year-old Saskatchewan star made it 3 and 2 over Art MacKenzie, also of Charlottetown.

Canadian junior champion Gordon Mackenzie of Vancouver lost 6 and 5 to Gordon Taylor of the host club who won the Canadian amateur 21 years ago.
