

IN MEMORIAM

ONES — In loving memory of Mrs. A. Roy Jones who passed away December 12, 1950. This day we do remember a loving thought we give to one no longer with us but in our hearts still lives. Always remembered by husband and family.

BAKER — In fond and loving memory of Ernest Baker who died Dec. 12, 1957. I seem to see in the soft dim light I face I loved the best, and think of him when the sun's last ray goes down in the far off west.

I miss you no less as the time passes on than I did on the day of your going for absence can never close the door of my heart and the lamp of my love is still glowing.

Four heart was the truest in all the wide world Four love the best to recall for no one on earth could take your place You are still the dearest of all. Sadly missed by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Baker.

DUPUIS — In loving memory of a husband and father, Gaston Dupuis who was killed Dec. 7, 1950 also of a loving father and grandfather who passed away Dec. 12, 1957. Fondly remembered by Edith and Bryan.

BAKER — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather Ernest Baker who passed away Dec. 12th, 1957. Oh happy hours we once enjoyed how sweet their memory still but death has left a loneliness that this world can never fill. Sadly missed by Edna, Ted and grandchildren.

BAKER — In loving memory of my dear grandfather Ernest Baker who passed away December 12th, 1957. His presence is always near me death can never take it away. His faith in God, and Christian Spirit, is first in my memory to-day. He is gone to be with his Saviour, the one who loves him the best. Where all who believe in Jesus, shall have eternal rest. Sadly missed by his grandson St. Anderson E. M., Dalhousie, New Brunswick.

FERGUSON — In loving memory of Ellsworth Ferguson, who passed away December 12, 1951. His memory is as sweet today as in the hour he passed away. Ever remembered by his father and mother.

BAKER — In fond and loving memory of our dear father and grandfather Ernest Baker, who passed away Dec. 12, 1957. Sadly missed by Pat, Ethel and family.

CARR — In loving memory of L-Cpl. Stanford W. Carr killed in action in Italy on December 11th, 1944. Waiting again the gates of life swing either way On noiseless hinges night and day One enters through the open door And one departs for evermore. Which is happier, which more blessed? God knoweth best. He guards the gates, we need not dread The path these feet must tread Nor fear for him who from our sight Passed through them to the realm of light. Both in his living care we rest God knoweth best.

Fondly remembered by wife and son, Ruth and Kenneth.

LANE — In loving memory of Mrs. Minnie Lane who passed away on Dec. 12, 1955. It's hard to think of sunsets or the glory of the dawn. It's hard to smile with courage, when the one you loved is gone But she left us treasured memories of many happy years And they always will be with us As in joining through the years Lovingly remembered by her family.

FERGUSON — In loving memory of a wonderful husband and father, Ellsworth Ferguson. Seven years gone by but time could never dim The beautiful memories we will always have of him. Always remembered by Audrey and daughters Diane and Debbie.

IN MEMORIAM

EDISON C. ROLLINGS Early in the morning of October 28th, there passed peacefully away Edison Crawford Rollings aged 80 years at his home in Fredericton.

He was a son of the late Artemas Rollings and his wife Eliza Parkman and lived almost his entire life on the Rollings homestead in South Rustico, where he was an industrious farmer, worthy citizen and kind neighbor.

Two years ago he and his wife moved to Fredericton to assist in a ministry of love in the home of a brother-in-law. Here he enjoyed the company of many visitors, especially his pastor, Rev. Bryer Jones whose visits were a real comfort and inspiration.

In his passing the New Glasgow Christian Church has sustained the loss of a faithful and devoted elder, one who since early life had been a loyal and enthusiastic member, faithful in attendance, serving for many years as deacon, Sunday School superintendent, a member of the board and alert in all church activities.

Left to cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband and father are: his wife, Harriet (Wyand) Rollings who was a devoted companion in health and illness, bestowing every comfort and attention possible, three children by a former marriage to Miss Agnes Brown who predeceased him in 1935, they are Stella Mrs. Fenton MacClure of Brackley Point) Blair who continues to operate the old homestead in South Rustico, Alma (Mrs. Gerald Stevenson, South Rustico).

There are also four grandchildren and three great grandchildren, besides a large circle of relatives and acquaintances.

A younger brother Elmer died at the age of twenty four years, as the result of a train accident in western Canada, and an older brother William at the age of 36 years.

The funeral took place on October 30th, with a private service at the home, thence to New Glasgow Church. Rev. B. Jones paid a fitting tribute to the deceased and spoke comforting words basing his sermon on Rom. 8 ch. 37th verse. Rev. Merle Zimmerman assisted in the service. The hymns were: "Unto The Hills" and "Abide With Me".

The Prince of Wales Lodge, A.F. and A.M. of which Mr. Rollings had been a devoted member for many years and conducted the service of that order at the graveside in New Glasgow cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Andrew Stevenson, Howard Ling, Earle Houston, Richard Dickieson, Graville Buntain, Frank Cluffie. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of James E. Andrews, Hunter River.

Floral tributes: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oulton, Brae, motored to Summerside on Thursday.

Sympathy of this community is extended to Rev. and Mrs. Ross Howard, of O'Leary in the death of their grandfather Mr. James Baird, who died at his home at River Hebert, Nova Scotia.

Friends extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William, "Billie" MacLennan of Hebron who were married on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd. Mrs. MacLennan is the former Verna Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio MacWilliams, Springfield West, and Billie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston MacKinnon, Hebron.

Teachers and pupils from the various schools and churches in this area are at present preparing for their annual Christmas programs.

AMONG THE FARMERS

Federation of Agriculture Newsletter There is, without question, an increasing demand for the extension of Unemployment Insurance benefits to farm workers, particularly those employed in seasonal operations.

With the foregoing in mind it is in order that the position of the Federation of Agriculture be stated with respect to this important matter. For some time the Federation has been advocating that insurance be made available on a voluntary basis so far as the farmer employer was concerned. This proposal has not met with acceptance in the past on the part of the authorities concerned and the Federation has certainly not been prepared to recommend the general extension of insurance on a compulsory basis.

Two main reasons may be advanced for taking this position, first the belief that farmers are not prepared to accept the responsibilities involved and secondly that the arrangement would not work satisfactorily.

At the present time the strongest demand is coming mainly from groups of specialized growers. For this reason the official Federation position on the matter is as follows: "That the Unemployment Insurance Commission accept, with the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the inclusion as insurable all workers in any section of agriculture, or agricultural area with clearly defined boundaries, for which a request has been made by the producers concerned. Such requests should be supported by such resolutions or plebiscite as will satisfy the Commission that it expresses the wishes of the majority of farmers contained in such section or area of agriculture."

Quite recently the Federation has written the Minister of Labour requesting early and favorable consideration on the above matter.

The concluding discussion of the fall Farm Forum season next Monday evening will consider the question of "Equality for Women." This is a topic which should attract the attention and interest of our rural womenfolk.

Generally in this province Farm Forum has tended to be a male project, whether this has been due to the fact that the topics generally have had a male flavour may be difficult to establish. In any event no such criticism can be levied on next Monday night's discussion and the women have an invitation to make their contribution to this particular program.

The United Co-operatives of Ontario did over $70,000,000 worth of business in 1958 and had net earnings of well over $900,000. At their recent annual meeting this co-operative organization decided that the time had arrived to compete with private firms that are in the contract farming business.

President MacLean in his address to the meeting said: "Your directors believe that contract farming and vertical integration have some advantages and should be used where they help the farmer." "However, we believe that farming should be controlled by farmers and to make that possible the farmer may contract with his own co-op where he is part owner, rather than surrender his own independence to non-farm corporate enterprise."

Simply stated the Co-operatives of Ontario plan to make capital available for the use of farmer members who require the type of assistance provided by contract farming and vertical integration. This decision by the Ontario Co-operatives is so much in line with the principle of Vertical Integration as with who or what the integrator may be.

The campaign being waged for Daylight Saving Time for this province shows signs of increasing intensity with the official jumping on the bandwagon of the city of Charlottetown. Much of the reasoning being used in this campaign is of an emotional nature and bears little relationship to the factual.
