Governor General Makes Plans For Arctic Journey

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's much travelled governor-general will don Arctic clothing March 20 for a 10,000-mile air jaunt that will take him into the primitive life of the Eskimo and the barrenness and loneliness of the deep north.

During 17 days of an historic trip that will take him over the North Pole, the 69-year-old Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey will visit Eskimos in their igloos; ride by dog sled; eat caribou meat; and fish for Arctic char through ice in temperatures that may hover at 40 degrees below zero.

This first trip of a governor-general into the deep north, far outside the fringe of civilization, will give the Queen's representative a chance to speak with missionaries and settlers, fur traders and soldiers, construction men and the RCMP, police of the north.

It also will give him a chance to see parts of continental radar defence systems and to talk with United States and Canadian servicemen in the Arctic. It is believed one reason for the trip is to remind the world that the Arctic, right up to the Pole, belongs to Canada.

RUGGED TRIP

It will be a rugged trip for the governor-general but he's a veteran in covering miles. Somewhere along this 10,000-mile trip across the roof of Canada, he will chalk up his 100,000th mile of travel since he took office four years ago.

Government spokesman said Mr. Massey is keenly interested in the north and has always wanted to visit this last Canadian frontier—one of the few remaining frontiers of the world.

In 50 hours of flying, the plane —an RCAF four-engine North Star —will pass through six times zones, from Atlantic to Yukon standard time.

The trip has been planned to coincide with normally good northern weather but even so, temperatures will probably run from 10 degrees above zero to 40 below, Government House said.

Aboard Mr. Massey's plane will be his son and secretary, Lionel Massey; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Massey, only woman aboard the plane; and several aides and northern experts.

NURSERY CLUB — The regular meeting of the Nursery Club of the Kings County Hospital was held at the home of Mrs. Leon Johnston on March 12. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Nine members responded to roll call. The club was eased to welcome Mrs. Nellie Fraser as a guest. A bill for $33.75 for diapers for the nursery was presented and it was moved and seconded that this bill be paid. It was reported that the price of the bassinet for the delivery room had not been ascertained, and would be reported at a future meeting. The members spent the evening sewing and embroidering the baby dresses. Miss Adah MacGregor invited the members to her home for the next meeting, the lunch committee to be Mrs. Horace Fraser and Mrs. Roy Gillis. Lunch was served by the hostess and the committee in charge, Miss Florrie Beaton and Mrs. Don Wannamaker.

A Farmer Takes A Wife

PART SEVEN

Lena Vessey

It was a happy wedding day
For Hannah and her Laddie boy,
Dear Mary, in her gentle way—
Helped to spread exceeding joy.

Many delicious things she made—
While neighbors brought the wedding cake,
And prayerfully on the table laid
The wedding feast they would partake.

All were so happy, gay and pleased
To see the youthful bride and groom
From inpending doubt so well released—
In which they were, all did presume.

When neighbors to their homes returned
The farmers house grew dark and still
The newlyweds were deep concerned
About the parent at home and ill.
The One who guides sun, mood and tide
And brings the moon to the window pane,
Still will be their constant guide
And ever near He will remain.

Hannah placed her precious things
Proudly in a beaded bag—
Whilst a lilting song she sings
"It good be doing never lag."

A hearty breakfast of Mary's making
Would on their journey help sustain.
And provisions they were taking
Would keep from them keen hunger's pain.

Their new made friends returned once more—
This time to say good bye.
The farmer came to row them o'er
For the incoming tide was high.

They assembled at the river's side—
Small but useful gifts they brought
To Laddie's young and bonny bride
Who cherished every kindly thought.

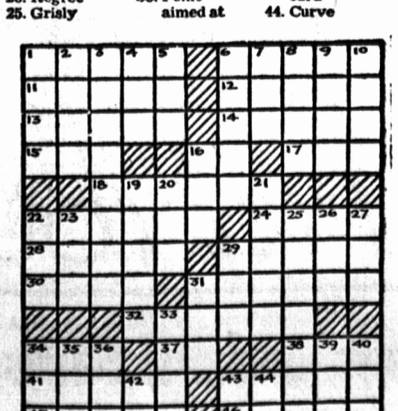
Saturday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

H X T N A Z T C A , H X T N A Z X V W A - W X A M ; C S C K Z X A C D N H D W H X P A I N A Y Z — F C K C A Y C .
