Charlottetown Underwriter Chosen To Conduct Course

F. WALTER HYNDMAN

Mr. F. Walter Hyndamn, C.L.U. of Charlottetown has been selected to act as Moderator for the Life Underwriters Training Course for Prince Edward Island Life insurnace men, which gets underway in October and continues until next May.

The announcement was made last night by Mr. R.J. Rupert, C.L.U. Chairman of the steering Committee promoting the course in P.E.I. for the Life Underwriters Association of Canada. The course commonly referred to as "LUATC", consists of one 2½ hour session weekly for 25 weeks

In making the announcement Mr. Rupert said, "The Committee's selection of Mr. Hyndman as Moderator is a very logical one as he is particularly well qualified to act in that capacity. He has spent 34 years in the insurance business, holds the degree of C.L.U. is a Past President of the Life Underwriters Association of P.E.I. and has had a wide experience in handling meetings and guided discussions of a varied nature."

NATION WIDE

Mr. Rupert explained that the course, developed by life insurance industry leaders for Association members was established to provide a nation-wide training program for the career life underwriter. The class will study specific case histories from actual experience searching for the best solution to current life insurance and other financial problems. He said that the records of students who have sucessfully completed the course throughout Canada and the U.S.A. indicates that they have become better equipped to handle their clients' personal business needs for life insurance.

He stated applications for the Course are still being received and "when the deadline of October 1st. is reached we expect that a capacity class will have been enrolled."

Mr. Hyndman is presently in Saint John attending a brief conference of the Moderators directing the various Maritime classes. The first class session will open on October 21st.

P.Y.P.S. Elects New Officers

The re-opening meeting of the Presbyterian Y.P.S., Montague was heild in the church hall Tuesday evening under the leadership of Rev. D.A. Campbell.

There were nineteen members present. The devotional period opened with the call to worship, Psalm 28 in unison, and the hymn "Come To The Saviour" was sung. The scripture lesson was read by Louise Llewellyn, followed by prayer by Betty Reilly. This period closed with the hymn "Stand Up, Stand up For Jesus."

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Thelma Stewart and were approved as read. The correspondence included a letter regarding the 1958 church calendars. The word for roll call was "Faith."

The report of the nominating committee was read by Thelma Stewart and the following officers were elected for the following year: President, Marjorie Gillis; Vice - president, Carol Boehner; Secretary, Betty MacLure; Treasurer, Margaret MacLean; Pianist, Margaret Hume; Worship Convener, Margaret Hume; Social convener, Mable MacLean and Bryce Ballem.

New business included arrangements for attending the Maritime conference in Halifax during the Thanksgiving weekend.

The society is being commended for winning the beautiful Y.P.S. banner a the Island Conference at Camp Keir on Labor Day, which is now displayed in the church.

At the close of the meeting the members enjoyed a period of games.
