

Various Speakers Address WMS Afternoon Auxiliary

The May meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church convened in the social room on Thursday afternoon. After the invocation Miss Mabel Newsom read the scripture and offered prayer, especially remembering the missionary prayer-partners, Miss Edith Clark, Angola, Africa and Dr. Helen Huston, India.

As this is the month in which Mother's Day falls, Mrs. Joseph Neale, devotional leader spoke on "Mothers and Their Responsibilities". She touched on some of the attributes of a Christian mother, love, courage, patience, fortitude and said parenthood is a high calling and to help bring a life to the fullest and highest possibility of Christian citizenship is its highest glory.

At this point Mrs. Neale as Christian Citizenship secretary introduced Mr. Walter Baker, director of the Protestant Welfare Bureau, who, in a very informative address gave a better understanding of the work carried on by the Bureau.

He showed how members could help in many avenues of service, by participating in matters that make for a moral and a better community. Mr. Baker was thanked by Mrs. Gordon Avar on behalf of the society.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. F. MacLean conducted the business. After the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Avar the treasurer, Mrs. Biola Andrew gave her report. She advised the members of the receipt of two generous donations from donors who wished to remain anonymous. These were greatly appreciated by the Auxiliary.

Mrs. W. W. Mutch, supply secretary, was receiving parcels of clothing for overseas shipment. Mrs. Edgar Gillespie, Community Friendship secretary reported 145 calls made by her committee on sick and shut-ins.

Miss Gwen Taylor, corresponding secretary, read letters of appreciation from members who were remembered during their illness.

The Mizpah benediction closed this interesting meeting.
