SCHOONER ASHORE.—The schooner Zephyr, Captain Mosher, of Jeddore, C. B., ran ashore last Saturday night on the north side of East Point, opposite James A. McDonald's farm. She has a crew of fourteen men all told, all of whom landed safely the following morning. She had been on a codfishing trip. The fish are being landed. DROWNED.—On Monday, the 19th inst., says the Pioneer, Joseph Bernard, son of Sylvang Bernard, of Nail Pond, met with a most unexpected death by drowning. The particulars are as follows: Both father and son had been out cod fishing, off the coast, on the day named, and, fearing a squall, started for home earlier than usual. A dory was anchored within a short distance of the shore, and, when they reached it, the young man jumped into it to bring it ashore, while the father took the fishing craft to the shore. Joseph no sooner lifted the anchor and placed it and the cable in the bottom of the dory than he fell overboard, and drowned in about nine feet of water, between two sandbanks, the depth of water on each of which was but four feet. As he never rose to the surface, it is supposed he struck his head on one of the boats in falling. The body was found the same evening and buried on Wednesday morning. Deceased was twenty-one years of age, and was spoken of as being exceptionally expert in manag ng a boat.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.

A sad drowning accident occurred here yesterday, by which Mrs. Dufurt, wife of an insurance agent, and E. Dionne, bookkeeper, lost their lives. They, with some others, were crossing the Ottawa River, from Gatineau Point, in a small boat, when their craft was run down by a barge, and swamped. All were rescued, but Dionne and Mrs. Dufurt. The woman's body was recovered immediately, but Dionne's has not get been found.

The body of the woman found some weeks ago in the water on the Hull side of the river, was exhumed yesterday and indentified as that of Aimie Lough, who disappeared mysteriously in October last. It is generally believed that the woman was murdered. She was last seen on her way to a house where she was at service at Ottawa.

Joseph Killcourse, bricklayer, fell out of a window of his boarding house yesterday fracturing his skull. He died in a few hours.

Mrs. Bonsecours, who will be remembered as the wife of Midas Bonsecours, who went to Harrison, Wis., where he was murdered a couple of weeks ago by being hit on the head with an axe has returned to Canada and is now with her relatives in Early, near Hull. Mrs. Bonsecours and a man alleged to have been her paramour were arrested as being the murderers of Bonsecours. Mrs. Bonsecours was liberated by the authorities, however, as no evidence against her was adduced. At the trial the other prisoner made a confession which implicated himself alone and he will probably be hanged.

A Fatal Flood.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 25.

Spring Lake reservoir (near Fishville, about 15 miles from this city, which supplies a whole row of mills in villages, along the Pawtucket River) burst this afternoon. Mrs. Green Lew, aged 60, Mrs. Hawkins, aged 90, Mrs. Lew's son, six or seven years old, were overtaken by the flood, and drowned. The bodies were found in the wood through which the water quickly ran, till it emptied into the Pawtucket River. The river rose rapidly, and caused considerable alarm among the people along the banks. Many fled, but the flood subsided as rapidly as it came.

The path of the water from the reservoir was through a thinly settled country, and the only damage to property was the wrecking of a stable belonging to Russel Mathewson, and a carriage shop belonging to Dr. E. K. Clark, and the demolishing of three road bridges.
