

NORTH BEDEQUE SCHOOL. -North Bedeque School report for the month of March: Grade VIII-1. Joyce Breh; 2. Herbert MacDonald; 3. Ernest Staver; 4. Doreen Baker. Grade VI-1. Donna Carruthers; 2. Elaine Waugh; 3. Eleanor Vens. Grade V-1. Adele MacCaull; 2. Mary MacCaull; 3. Marilyn Carruthers. Perfect attendance, Lorna Campbell, Joan Carruthers, Elaine Waugh, Marilyn Carruthers, Adele MacCaull, Mary MacCaull, Sheldon Nell. Principal: Joan Reevy.

Professional Cards

Chartered Accountants T. Earle Hickey Canadian Bank of Commerce Building Summerside, P.E.I. Phone 2886

W. Albert Robertson P. E. I. MUTUAL BUILDING Granville at Water Street Summerside P. O. BOX 3344 P. O. 602 681

INSURANCE R. E. Ellis & Son Limited Fire - Auto - Casualty 5 Summer St. Summerside

Optometrist E. E. Parkman Opt.D., R.O. PHONE 3287 REGENT THEATRE BLDG. Summer St. Summerside

B. F. Hunter, R.O. Summerside, P.E.I. - Phone 2110 SMALLMAN'S BUILDING

A. Raymond Grant, B.Sc., O.D. 288 Water Street - Summerside Above Maurice Mill's Men's Wear PHONE 3530

PHYSICIANS Photographers THE READ STUDIO D. W. SEARS Dr. Hubert MacNeill, M.D. Physician - Surgeon Water Street, Summerside Phone 7032

Successful Fashion Show At S'ide Yesterday

A highly successful spring fashion show, entitled "Spring Bouquet" sponsored by the Okto Club was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the Baptist Hall, Summerside, in aid of the Prince County Hospital. The stage setting with its bouquet of spring flowers assisted greatly as a background for the display of the beautiful costumes.

Mr. W. B. Howatt presided and welcomed the guests while Mrs. Gerda Holman was commentator. The musical accompaniment was by Mrs. Muriel MacArthur.

The first scene, entitled "When We Were Young" was most delightful, when the following children, in pairs, modelled the different creations: Coleen MacNeill, Tommy Bradshaw, Donna Appleby, Nina Quinn, Norma Ramsay, Michael Gauthier, Paula Gauthier, Roberta Shaw, and Bonnie Morrison.

Scene two entitled "Town and Country Fashions" and scene four entitled "Casual Days" showed smart costumes to suit the different occasions. The models were, Mrs. J. O. Cobb, Mrs. J. K. Beer, Mrs. Shirley Simpson, Mrs. William Toombs, Mrs. J. C. Simpson, Mrs. Doreen Campbell, Miss Mary Silliphant, Miss Peggy Preston, Miss Patsy Preston, Miss Doris MacLean, Miss Sally Woodside and Miss Elizabeth Nicholson.

Scene three "A Youthful Interlude" featured a lively square dance with the following taking part: Barbara Clark, Marlene Heustis, Lorraine Cameron, Carol Dunning, Ned Henthorn, A. I. A. Perry, Charles Hickey and Arthur Arsenault.

In the closing scene entitled "Party Invitations" many charming evening gowns and furs were modelled as well as jewellery.

The Okto Club members who were instrumental in showing this advance presentation of spring and summer fashions were: Mrs. Harold Schurman, president; Mrs. J. C. Simpson, Mrs. Harry Holman, Jr., Mrs. John Downing, Mrs. Carl Crockett, Mrs. Lorne MacFarlane, Mrs. Eric Woodside, Mrs. Gerald B. Sheen, Mrs. Walter McNeill.

Billy Ramsay of Halifax, is spending some time in Miscouche, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy McNeill.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Joseph Laughlin, Miscouche, Mr. Laughlin passed away on Friday, April 8. The funeral took place in St. John the Baptist Church on Sunday, April 10. Interment in the Church Cemetery.

Aloysius DesRoches, R.C.N., recently spent some time in Miscouche visiting at the home of his brother, Gerald DesRoches.

Lionel Gaudet of St. Nicholas who is in the R.C.N., recently spent some time visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gaudet.

Irene MacKinnon who is employed in Saint John, N. B., spent the Easter holidays in Miscouche visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacKinnon.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Miscouche

Friends of Mrs. P. C. Martin, Miscouche, will be glad to learn she has returned to her home, after having spent the past several months in U. S. A.

The boarders of Marian Academy, Miscouche, left for their respective homes on Wednesday, April 6, to spend the Easter holidays.

Friends of Mrs. Edna Gaudet will be glad to learn that she has returned to her home in Miscouche after having spent several days in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Eddie G. DesRoches and son, Gerard, of Miscouche recently left to attend the wedding of Mrs. DesRoches' son, Elmer.

Helen Gillis and Marie MacDonalde, who are attending Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown, are spending the Easter holidays in Miscouche, guests of Mrs. Urban Gillis.

Gweneth Brown, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Picton Brown of Miscouche, recently spent several days in the Prince County Hospital.

Lorraine McNeill who is attending Prince of Wales College recently arrived at her home in Miscouche to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Leonard McNeill.

Friends of Mrs. Theodore Gallant will be glad to learn that she has returned to her home in Miscouche after having been in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, where she underwent surgery.

Martin Arsenault of Halifax, N. S. recently arrived in Miscouche where he will spend some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Arsenault.

Helen Gaudet recently arrived at her home in Miscouche after having spent a week in the Prince County Hospital.

John DesRoches, who is attending St. Francis Xavier College in Antigonish, Nova Scotia, recently arrived in Miscouche to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DesRoches.

Billy Ramsay of Halifax, is spending some time in Miscouche, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy McNeill.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Joseph Laughlin, Miscouche, Mr. Laughlin passed away on Friday, April 8. The funeral took place in St. John the Baptist Church on Sunday, April 10. Interment in the Church Cemetery.

Aloysius DesRoches, R.C.N., recently spent some time in Miscouche visiting at the home of his brother, Gerald DesRoches.

Lionel Gaudet of St. Nicholas who is in the R.C.N., recently spent some time visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gaudet.

Irene MacKinnon who is employed in Saint John, N. B., spent the Easter holidays in Miscouche visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacKinnon.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

Raymond LeClair and Elgin Veno motored to Charlottetown on Sunday, April 10.

In Memoriam

MRS. EMILY NEWSON Kingston village mourned the loss of one of its long-established residents in the passing March 1, 1955, of Mrs. Emily Newson, widow of the late Samuel B. Newson. Mrs. Newson, born at Brookfield, Nov. 15, 1868, daughter of the late William Darbe and Phoebe Crabbe Carson, was in her 87th year. She had been confined to her bed for some twelve months previous to her passing.

She was a good mother and a kind and thoughtful neighbour who endeared herself to all who knew her. Her activities were confined to her home and her church, being an active worker in the Women's Missionary Society of which she was a life member.

She is survived by one daughter, S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who are "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

The funeral service was held from her late residence, the home of her son, Edgar, and was conducted by the Rev. Owen D. Cochran, assisted by the Rev. A. S. Weil, D.D., and Rev. Donald Nicholson, who sang "Hold The Fort For I Am Coming." Interment was in the East Wiltshire Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Gallant, Tyrus Holmes, John Colwell, Owen Young, J. A. M. Jewell, three sons, Vernon, Vernon, and Edgar and Lynn residing in Kingston. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Crabbe, Milton, P. E. I., and by six grandchildren. One son, Clarence Samuel predeceased her.

Howlan

There was a very large congregation attended Good Friday services at St. Anthony's. The Way of the Cross followed the morning services due to the very bad roads. Other services during Holy Week were all well attended.

The death of Miss Kate Gallant of Fortune Cove, occurred very suddenly at the Western Hospital on Wednesday morning, April 6th. The late Mrs. Gallant suffered a stroke in the morning which proved fatal. Her remains rested at the Jolly Funeral Home, O'Leary, until Good Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when she was conveyed by motor hearse to St. Anthony's Church for burial in the church cemetery. Rev. M. J. Brooker was the celebrant. To her brother Ben Gallant with whom she resided sympathy is extended; also to all other members. May her soul rest in peace.

Miss Marie Peters of Bloomfield Corner, is now guest of Miss Grace Arsenault at Howlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gaudet of Mill Road, recently visited Mrs. Gaudet's aged mother in Egmont Bay.

Howlan School closed on Holy Thursday evening for the Easter holidays.

The Misses Sylvia and Aldona Pineau of Duvernay recently visited their sister, Mrs. Eusebe Arsenault at Howlan, also Mrs. Arsenault's niece, Miss Erma Gallant of Woodstock.

Most of the Grade I pupils of this district were in O'Leary, on Monday afternoon, April 4th, when they were inoculated against poliomyelitis.

The guessing of the mystery man at the Altar Society meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Richard on Friday night was won by Mrs. Vincent Perry. Wilfred Dohrn was the mystery man. The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert P. Arsenault, Howlan.

Mrs. J. B. Arsenault returned on Friday, April 1, after a recent medical check up in Summerside.

Frank Gallant was to Woodstock on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Robert Arsenault who was a patient in Charlottetown Hospital for a few days returned home by train on Holy Thursday night. Every one hopes that she will be all right now.

Three motored to Charlottetown on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arsenault, Eusebe Arsenault of Howlan, and Melvin Gallant and son, Nelson of Coleman.

Nearly all students are now home on Easter holidays including the Misses Norma Gallant of Tignish and Jean Arsenault, pupils at O'Leary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Peters and sons, Wayne and Norman, motored from Borden on Holy Saturday and spent the week-end. Mrs. Peters and son Norman were maintained in O'Leary at the home of Mrs. Rae Noonan while Mr. Peters and Wayne visited with Mr. Peters' folks in Howlan referring to Borden on Sunday where he is employed by the C. N. R.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis MacQuarrie and sons, Willard and Kenneth, motored from Wilnot on Easter Sunday and visited a short while with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Carruthers and family.

Miss Norma Gallant visited on Easter Sunday with her friend, Miss Jean Arsenault.

The sun did not shine too brightly on Easter Sunday with a cold wind all day long.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Bryan and David motored to St. Eleanor's on Easter Sunday.

The work of re-modelling and modernizing the home of Mrs. John Finner of Woodstock began on Monday, April 11 with local workmen on the job.

Alban T. Arsenault entered the Western Hospital, Alberton, on Easter Monday as a patient for a few days. All his friends and neighbours are hoping to see him out and well again real soon. AG.

PIAN SALK "THANKS" WIRE WINNIPEG (CP) A Winnipeg radio station has launched a campaign to send a "thank you" telegram to Dr. Jonas E. Salk for his work in developing a successful polio vaccine. The station has asked listeners to send 10 cents to have their names on the telegram.

Mr. Arthur Toombs, B. Sc., teacher at Plaster Rock, N. B., is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hogood, Summerside, were visitors on Sunday afternoon, at the home of Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Wright, Charlottetown, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Wright, Central Bedeque, over the week-end of April 10th.

Mr. George Wright, student at P. W. C., spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Searletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. MacCaull and daughters, Elizabeth and Edith Ann, Carleton Place, were guests of relatives in Bedeque on Sunday afternoon, April 10th.

There was a large congregation at the Bedeque United Church on Easter morning. The men's choir, with Mrs. Walter Craig, as organist, sang the Easter hymns and the voluntary "Christ Arose." The pastor, Rev. G. K. Ward, delivered a splendid Easter sermon based on 1 Cor. 15:25-27. Nine young people were received into the membership of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day and son Ernie of Rothesay, N. B., spent the Easter week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson of this village. -B. Q.

ROYAL PALACE Buckingham Palace, purchased by George III in 1763, was built by the Duke of Buckingham in 1703.

Officers of S'ide C.W.L.

Following are the newly elected members for the coming year of the Catholic Women's League held in Summerside last evening. President, Mrs. Carroll Delaney; First vice president, Mrs. Joseph Linkletter; second vice president, Mrs. William Profit; third vice president Mrs. Ivan Clow; recording secretary, Mrs. Wilfred Perry; corresponding secretary, Margaret Wedge; treasurer, Mrs. Delore Richard.

Their many friends regret the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Kelly in the Western Hospital.

Mr. Frank Dunn was a visitor to Summerside the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rennie and Miss Betty Rennie were visitors to Charlottetown, on Monday.

Mr. R. A. McKenna was a visitor to the capital this week.

The many friends of Mrs. Frank Dunn regret to learn that she is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Seymour Thompson and Mrs. Milligan have returned to their residence after spending the winter months in Alberton.

The many friends of Mr. Keith Williams, local mail courier, are pleased to know that he is recovering from his illness.

Mrs. Orin Wallace has as her guests her sisters, Mrs. Hilton Hardy and Mrs. Farrell of Charlottetown.

Her many friends are pleased to know that Mrs. Erskine Gavin (nee Audrey Adams) has returned from Charlottetown where she had been receiving treatment, much improved in health.

It is pleasing to report that the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Gavin has been discharged from the Western Hospital, where he had been receiving treatment.

Sergeant Charles Rix of Camp Borden, Ontario, spent a few days recently as guest of his mother, Mrs. Bessie Rix.

Mrs. Elwood Young recently opened a millinery and ladies wear store in Toronto. Mrs. Young was formerly Hazel MacNeill of Elmsdale, daughter of Mrs. Basil MacNeill and the late Mr. MacNeill.

The O'Brien Road Women's Institute held its April meeting on Tuesday, April 5th, at the home of Mrs. George Hardy.

Mrs. Fraser Rix entertained the members of the Elmsdale Women's Institute for their regular meeting on April 5th, with fifteen members and five visitors present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fraser Rix officiated. The secretary, Mrs. A. L. Rennie read the minutes. After the business was concluded Mrs. Harry Wells entertained with two contests. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. John Adams. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Charles Johnston, Brooklyn, spent last week-end with friends in Summerside.

Friends of Mrs. Earle Atkinson, are sorry to know she is ill at her home in Alberton.

Mr. Hunter Weeks, Alberton is confined to his home by illness.

Hostesses at the Alberton Curling Club card party Tuesday evening were Mrs. Erskine Campbell, Mrs. Norman Hardy, Mrs. Cedric Hunter, Mrs. Maurice Perry, Mrs. Lamont Nutt, Mrs. Orville Phillips, Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Kay Collins. Prizes in bridge were awarded to Mrs. Albert Clarke and John O'Brien and consolation prizes to Mrs. Maurice Perry and J. C. Matthews. Prizes in auction were awarded to Mrs. Angus Milligan and consolation prizes to Mrs. Norman Hardy and C. R. Hunter. There were seven tables in play.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffery, Jr., and their infant daughter have taken up residence in Alberton. Mr. Jeffery is employed with the Island Telephone Company.

No. 10 Downing street has been the official home of British prime ministers since 1735.

Mr. Arthur Toombs, B. Sc., teacher at Plaster Rock, N. B., is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hogood, Summerside, were visitors on Sunday afternoon, at the home of Rev. E