Your partner leads the 10 of diamonds against South's 4 spade contract and your ace captures dummy's queen. How do you continue.

You know from the bidding that South has at most 3 cards in the minor suits so you must go after clubs? The king of clubs in the proper play whatever declarer's holding may be. If South has a doubleton diamonds and a singleton club it is vital that you lead the king of clubs first so that declarer will have to ruff in front of your partner's ace. That will cause him to lose control if he has only 5 trumps. And should declarer have a singleton diamond and 2 small clubs you want your partner to be on lead after the second club trick in order to knock out dummy's heart ace before it can be used as an entry for the minor suit winners.

Criticisms Con't

certainly no the point. What must be the issue is the right of the Cadre to express an opinion. We feel that we have that right. It is indeed unfortunate that the possibility exists that we may have hurt some of the candidates. If students on this campus are so apathetic that they allow others to make up their minds for them, then it is definitely a shame. If they do this, then I suggest that President-elect Derek Key has his work cut out for him.

WHY LIVE A LIFE WITHOUT MEANING?

Too many of us are in places we don't want to be. Doing things we really don't want to be doing. Sometimes, it's because we can't think of anything better to do—but that's no way to live.

Since you have only one life to live, you might as well live it with joy... with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment... and the knowledge that you are giving, not taking. Why not decide to live for the best... for a great purpose... for something bigger than you are?

If you want to change the direction of your life, you might investigate the Paulist way of living. The Paulists are a small group of Catholic priests dedicated to preaching the Gospel of Christ to the North American people. For over 100 years the Paulists have done this through the communication arts—books, publications, television and radio—on college campuses, in parishes, in missions in North America, in downtown centers, in working with young and old. Because we are flexible, we continually pioneer new approaches. To do this we need dedicated, innovative men to carry on our work.

To find out what road God has chosen us to walk is one of the most important tasks of our life.

Which road will be yours?
