

Buyer meets seller with Guardian Want Ads. Dial 8506 ask for classified ad taker, for quick results.

Clear and warmer. Light winds. Low-high at New Glasgow 25 and 20. Charlottetown 28 and 45.

Macmillan Authorized To Swap Secrets In The U.S.

May Launch New Plan To Meet Challenge Of Sputnik

LONDON (CP) - The cabinet Monday night authorized Prime Minister Macmillan to swap nuclear and space secrets with President Eisenhower as the starting point for a new allied program to meet the Soviet Sputnik challenge.

Prince Solves Traffic Jam

NEW YORK (CP) - Prince Philip found a solution Monday for a traffic jam he walked. He was returning by car to the Waldon-Astoria hotel from the American Institute of Physics when his car was stopped by a traffic snarl at Lexington Avenue and 45th Street.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Queen Given Tremendous Ovation In New York City

NEW YORK (CP) - This vast city opened the floodgates of emotion Monday to greet Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip on the final day of their North American visit.

Persons who accompanied the Queen to the 102nd-floor observatory of the Empire State Building said she was vastly impressed with the view.

The ticker tape parade up lower Broadway - probably the most spectacular welcome in the world - is New York's traditional way of rendering homage to famed Americans and honored visitors.

Large Barn Is Destroyed At North River Last Evening

Fire which broke out just at dusk yesterday evening destroyed a large barn in the North River district, the property of Mr. Willard Lank.

Destroyed in the sprawling 85 x 65 structure was a feed mixing plant and numerous tons of hay, straw and grain, the total result of this year's harvest.

Incendiary Attempt Is Made On Kent Street Residence

What is believed to be another case of attempted incendiarism came to the attention of the Charlottetown Police yesterday when they were called to investigate a fire which had burned itself out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, 313 Kent Street.

Regulations Governing Amalgamation Plebiscite

Only property holders will have a right to vote in the plebiscite to decide whether Parkdale and Spring Park shall be amalgamated with Charlottetown, but the Act defines a property holder as one possessing real or personal property to the amount of at least $250.

Quads Survive Flu

Quad Survives Flu

LONDON (Reuters) - The Taylor quadruplets - Kevin, Paul, Robert and Annette - recovered from a bout of Asian flu to celebrate their ninth birthday Monday.

Loses Life In Gravel Slide

BRIDGEWATER, N.S. (CP) - Douglas Stevens, 40, of Martin's Brook, about 40 miles south of Halifax, was killed Monday when the gravel pit in which he was working caved in on him.

Queen Is Guest At Glittering Formal Dinner

NEW YORK (CP) - Queen Elizabeth, nearing "the end of a wonderful journey," was guest Monday night at a glittering formal dinner in which Anglo-American ties were more strongly expressed in many a year of the British - United States Alliance.

Liberal Charge PC's Ignored French-Canada

OTTAWA (CP) - Liberals Commons members from Quebec Monday renewed bitter criticisms of Prime Minister Diefenbaker's Progressive Conservative government, accusing it of disrupting national unity and dismissing the rights of French-speaking Canadians.

Should Have Resigned

Mr. Caron continued: "I believe he (Mr. Balcer) has a right to something better in view of those he represents."

Should Have Resigned

Mr. Caron continued: "I believe he (Mr. Balcer) has a right to something better in view of those he represents."

Balcer Strikes Back

Solicitor General Balcer of Trois-Rivieres, Que., one of Mr. Caron's targets, interjected at one point:

Royal Guest Departs

WASHINGTON - Queen Elizabeth, sparkling in an aquamarine evening gown, poses Sunday night at the White House with Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower as the royal guest and the First Lady said their goodbyes. The queen, climaxed a four-day visit as a guest at the White House with her husband, Prince Philip attended a final banquet at the Australian Embassy and then left later for New York.

Syria Shows Signs Of Relief

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) - Syrian officials showed signs of relief Monday as their complaint against Turkey headed for United Nations debate. But officials maintained an alert and sharpened the country's "popular resistance organization" movement.

Syria Appears Holding Back In King Saud Mediation Move

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) - Turkey announced Monday night it has accepted an offer from King Saud of Saudi Arabia to mediate the Turkish-Syrian crisis. Syria appeared to be holding back.

Viscount Montgomery Calls For Rebirth Of Seapower

LONDON (Reuters) - Viscount Montgomery, deputy supreme commander of NATO, called for a rebirth of Britain's seapower Monday - the 150th anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

P.E.I. Hospital Expansion Plan To Cost $1,300,000

An expansion program costing $1,300,000 will be commenced by the Prince Edward Island Hospital next spring according to an announcement made by Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Dr. J.W. MacKenzie following a meeting of the executive of the Board yesterday.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

No Housing Bill At This Session

OTTAWA (CP) - It will not be possible to introduce housing legislation at the fall session of Parliament, Works Minister Green said Monday.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.

Exercise Corn Cob Begins

HALIFAX (CP) - The first week-long ground observer corps exercise ever attempted in the Maritimes got underway Monday with more than 10,000 civilian volunteers scanning the skies for "enemy" planes.