

ROCHFORD SQUARE STUDENTS AT POLIO CLINIC

The second day of the current polio immunization program for grade one to six of the City's school population was carried out yesterday by Dr. Burton H. Trainor and his able assistants, Nurses Beer, Trainor and McLaughley of the Health Department. The students of Rochford Square School, Dr. Howatt reported that over three hundred were done yesterday. This brings the total for the first two days almost to one thousand. Clinics for the purpose of giving these school children their second dose of the Salk vaccine are expected to commence about Tuesday, May 15.

UNUSUAL PROPAGATION Five calves within the one year from one cow is quite a record in any farmer's language. Last year a grade cow owned by Robert Jewell of Meadow Bank gave birth to a set of triplet calves all of which survived and flourished. The triplets were born on the 24 of April 1955 and twins were born to the same cow on the 17th of this month. Both calves are reported to be of normal development and are quite active.

NAVAL PROMOTIONS — One member of the R. C. N. staff of H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte, Able Seaman Quarters Rate William Aylward and two members of the Naval Reserve, Able Seaman Victualling Storesman, Robert Bowles and Able Seaman Quartermaster, William Bradley were promoted to the rank of Leading Seaman last evening. In addition to the promotions two new members were enrolled into the Naval Reserve, they were, Ordinary Seamen, Neil W. MacQuarrie, Charlottetown and Ralph A. Thomson, Parkdale.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY — The funeral of the late Mrs. William Horton of Bunbury was held from the MacLean Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon. Service was conducted by Rev. T.R. Goudge. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery.
