KILLED AT SEA.—A cablegram to M. Foley, Esq., reports the arrival at Dundee of the brig Katie, which left Micogma, C. B., on the 16th of September last. The cablegram also brings the sad intelligence of the death of Alexander Finlayson, which accidentally occurred during the passage. The deceased was eighteen years of age, and son of Capt. Finlayson, pilot of the Princess of Wales.

THE matter referred to by our Correspondent Type is one that should not be overlooked by the authorities. Some of our watermen are exceedingly careless of the state of the puncheons, and if means are not taken to examine them daily, serious results may follow from their filthiness. THE Patriot publishes a paragraph, in which it states that the EXAMINER continually sneers at Mr. Lea's horse "All Right," while it pulls Mr. Large's "Messenger Boy." The contents of this paragraph are such as to convince anyone that the person who wrote it never saw the EXAMINER, or if he did, he never read it. The Patriot scribe cannot point out a single paragraph in which the EXAMINER sneeringly alluded to "All Right." We believe he is a good horse, but are of opinion that there are several faster and better ones owned and bred on the Island. If we jokingly alluded to a "slow timer" owned by a prominent sporting gentleman in Summerside, there is no reason why the Patriot should sneer at it.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.

A Dublin special says there is intense excitement throughout Ireland over the report that 500 armed Orangemen have started for Mayo to collect Boycott's rents and gather his crops. The Government was asked to protect them, but Forster replied the Government could only protect the number necessary to do the work, and if more went they would be treated as an illegal assembly. Troops have left Dublin for Ballinrobe, near Boycott's property, where cavalry and infantry have arrived. The peasantry are arming and bloodshed is feared.

PARIS, Nov. 9.

In Chamber of Deputies to-day, priority was voted for Magistrate Bill, 281 to 105. Debandedry Dasso, legitimist member for Vendee, hoped that during the present session he would witness the death scene of the Republic. President of Chambers requested him to discontinue his remarks. M. Debandedry Dasso then moved that Chambers sit to-morrow to enable him to call to account the government bunglers, alluding in this epithet to the manner in which religious decrees were enforced. President pronounced censure on offending Deputy with temporary expulsion and requested him to leave the House. The Deputy retired but subsequently returned. Sitting was then adjourned until Thursday. After sitting the Ministers manifested an intention of resigning in consequence of refusal of House to give priority to education bill. Many of the Deputies who voted against the government assured the Ministers that they did not wish to imply any want of confidence. Despite these assurances the Ministers and under secretaries decided to resign collectively. M. Ferry then communicated this resolution to President Grevy.

It is rumored that M. Brisson, Vice-President of the Chamber, is forming a ministry.
