ST. PETER'S CHURCH.

In St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday forenoon the Rev. Mr. Price, of England, delivered an excellent sermon, his subject being "Thoughts on Confirmation."

His Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia confirmed about twenty candidates at the evening service, and delivered a powerful address.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Yesterday morning the Rev. J. T. Bryan was inducted into the rectorship of St. Paul's church, the services being conducted by the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia. His Lordship's sermon on the occasion, was impressive, practical and scholarly. In the afternoon the rite of confirmation was administered to a number of candidates.

THE METHODIST CHURCHES.

In the First Church yesterday evening the Rev. Dr. Carman delivered an able sermon from the text 1st Tim. 3-15: "But if I tarry long that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth." At the morning service Rev. John F. Dawson, of Windsor, occupied the pulpit, and preached an able sermon from John 21-15.

Dr. Carman preached at the Second Church in the morning, his text being Romans, 8, 3 and 4, "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak and through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh condemned sin in the flesh that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us who walk not after the flesh but after the spirit." The discourse was listened to with the closest attention, and was greatly appreciated. Choice music was rendered by the choir.

ZION CHURCH.

In the course of his sermon last evening Rev. Mr. Sutherland gave a most interesting and instructive review of the International Sunday School Convention held at Boston recently.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Alexander Turnbull was fined $8 or 40 days for assaulting Morton Harrington. It seems that Turnbull met Harrington on the street and asked him for money to get a drink. Harrington said he had no money to give him, whereupon Turnbull struck him and knocked him down.

William Forrest, for assaulting Jean B. A. Paquette, was fined $1 and costs. While Forrest was intoxicated he visited Paquette's boarding house, and after indulging in some abusive language struck him with his fist in the face.

George O'Connor was arraigned on complaint of John Joseph Hogan for assault and battery. John Joseph swore that whilst he was looking about for some work he was met by O'Connor, who accused him of voting grit. This was the beginning of the trouble which culminated in O'Connor striking Hogan several times. A fine of $2 or 10 days was imposed.

Two men for riding bicycles on the sidewalk between A. L. Brown's corner and the railway crossing on St. Peter's Road, were each fined $2 without costs. We are informed that a good many wheelmen make a practice of using this territory for a riding-ground, and unless they desist they will be summarily dealt with.
