Annual Meeting Queen Square School Ass'n
The annual meeting of the Queen Square Home and School Association took place in the school auditorium on Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Alex MacIsaac presiding. About 250 parents and teachers attended. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada."

In her presidential report Mrs. MacIsaac reviewed the work of the Association during the past year, the cooperation between parents and teachers, the educational films which had been shown and the chief accomplishment—the vitamin capsule project to which much credit must be given for the 1954 decrease in absenteeism due to colds. The Association had worked for the cleaning up of the school property. Mrs. MacIsaac expressed the thanks of the Association to the City Council for the paving of the school yard.

Mrs. Maurice Griffin, secretary, read the minutes of the last annual meeting and of the last meeting.

Mrs. Walter Lawlor, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted a new executive head by Mrs. MacIsaac which was unanimously elected.

The Very Rev. Father Murphy was called upon for a few words and he expressed his pleasure at seeing so many interested parents present.

Lt. Col. Leo F. MacDonalde referred to the encouraging state of the school and the many problems the teachers faced with approximately 640 pupils, divided into 35 classes, when there are but 22 class

Legion Convention

Garnham of the Charlottetown Branch, Frank Savidant and Victor Sanderson, Summerside Branch David Hutchison and William Knox, Montague Branch.

Following the opening deliberations at the College, the members were formed up by Arthur Hale, Sgt.-At-Arms and headed by the Reece Band paraded to the Soldiers Monument on Queen Square where a wreath was placed in memory of the honored dead by National President Anderson while the Colours were dipped and raised and the traditional trumpet call given. The parade was dismissed at Legion Headquarters and Convention activities discontinued until after lunch.

Lieut. Governor Prowse took the salute from a position on the South side of Parliament building. Officers of the Provincial Council elected at the afternoon session are: Honorary President, Rev. W. Patterson; President, E. F. O'Connell; Secretary, J. S. Walker; Treasurer, V. P. Stanley Bryant; 2nd. V.P., Marcellus Gottel; Chairman, Charles Hogan; Vice Chairman, William Pierce; Honorary Treasurer, James Hogan; Chaplain, Rev. J.R. MacMahon; Dominion Representative, John A. MacDonald; Past President, Earl G. Cannon; Secretary, J. S. Walker.

Zone Commanders are: West Prince Rev. J. R. McMahon; East Prince, Earl G. Cannon; Queens, Charles M. Sinclair; North Kings, Ray McAdam; South Kings, N. C. Gottel.

RESOLUTIONS
A resolution asking that the Provincial Government enact legislation establishing and enforcing a minimum wage act was one calling for some discussion at the meeting yesterday. It was pointed out that there was a serious discrepancy between the scale of wages paid and the cost of living on the Island. It was felt that the establishment of such an act would have a tendency to relieve this situation.

The fact that there are many veterans who have seen service in England during World War I and have now reached an age where they are finding it increasingly difficult to support themselves and their families was brought to the attention of the convention in a resolution asking that the Federal Government introduce immediate legislative amendments to War Veterans' Allowance Act to provide qualifications for those who served in England.

In view of the present regulations which discontinue War Veterans' allowance for widows one year after the death of the husband if the widow is physically fit and under 55, and that these widows with children find it increasingly difficult to clothe them and keep them in school and at the same time be out earning a living for themselves and their families, it was resolved that the Federal Government be urged to amend the War Veterans' Allowance Act to provide qualifications for these widows.

A discussion took place regarding a group of applicants for the position of Fishery officer in 1947 who were required to undergo training before they could be employed, who were required to pay for their training out of their own establishment credits, this being the only instance in the Civil Service where this procedure was followed. Reference was made to the considerable inconvenience and expense, and that since the time referred to, many have been employed, and that some are still undergoing special training at their own expense. The Convention therefore went on record as feeling that this group of civil servants have their re-establishment credit reinstated to the amount deducted while taking the course referred to.

Attention was drawn to read signs failing to give sufficient information to the travelling public, and the Provincial Government will be requested to mark all highway crossings and that signs show mileage to City, Towns and Villages.

Customary resolutions calling for a re-affirmation of Loyalty to Her Majesty, the Queen; the Governor General of Canada; the Lieutenant Governor of the Province and the Legions esteemed patron, Mrs. Prowse the Dominion President and the Ladies' Auxiliaries were given unanimous approval.

Following is the text of President MacDonald's address: "Since you afforded me the honour of serving as your President during the past year it is now my very pleasant duty to report to you on our activities during my tenure of office as your top executive."

"I must first remark on how happy I am in my observations in the Capital City of this Province as it marks its one hundredth Birthday, as we meet in Annual Convention for our 25th consecutive year."

"I wish to express my sincere thanks for that full measure of co-operation extended to me by your other elected officers, your Provincial Secretary and Zone Commanders. I can assure you that they are all men who work unflinchingly in the best interests of the Canadian Legion in this Province, and their assistance and guidance has helped immeasurably to make my work less arduous than it otherwise would have been."

"Reporting now from the zone level from my observations during the past year, I have no hesitation in assuring you that the Canadian Legion in Prince Edward Island is in a very healthy state. While I was not able to attend all the Zone Rallies that were held during the year, the ones I did attend convinced me that our Organization is doing an excellent work in the interests of all veterans. Your membership has shown an appreciable gain over the past twelve months, and has now reached the grand total of 1615. Perhaps the most encouraging aspect of this gain is the noticeable increase in re-instatements and new membership which this year is shown as 200 re-instatements and 100 new members. It is indeed a healthy sign to see men and women, who, for some reason or another allowed their membership to lapse, now applying to be again added to our roster, this is only as it should be and we must not relax our efforts until we have succeeded in enlisting every eligible veteran in this Province."

"While speaking of membership, I would like to remind all Branch Secretaries of their duty to promptly report all new members. In many cases we have members who do not receive their membership cards for as long as two months after the payment of their dues. This is not fair to the members and in a situation which should be corrected."

"I had the honor of unveiling a War Memorial in the progressive town of Alberton on November 11th, last, also on the same day a Tablet was unveiled at O'Leary. These progressive branches must be commended for always having in mind the memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice."

"I also had the honor and privilege of cutting the ribbon to open rooms. He assured the parents that remedial steps were being considered and explained in detail the "staggered" classes now being conducted.

Mr. Parker, Superintendent of City Schools, addressed the meeting for half an hour and his talk proved so interesting and instructive that he was invited to come back to the next meeting to give a full length talk.

A lively question and answer period followed. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save The Queen."

New Hotel For Toronto

TORONTO, (CP)—A $6,500,000 hotel, the Lord Simcoe, is to be built in downtown Toronto, it was announced Thursday.

The 18-storey, 900-room structure will be on the northeast corner of University avenue and King street west and is to be financed entirely by Canadian capital, largely contributed by Toronto and Montreal interests. Construction is expected to begin in November.

A lovely new home in the town of Souris, and also this year saw the completion and opening of a new hall at Kensington, and also the opening of another new home at Morell. To these branches, I wish to extend my heartiest congratulations, and best wishes for the future. But of course, the year was not all one of good luck as Borden had the misfortune to lose their hall and contents by fire. It is pleasing to note that the fire did not daunt them as the rebuilding has already commenced.

"I had the honor and pleasure last fall of organizing the Ladies Auxiliary on Provincial level. This speaks well for the future, and to those Ladies responsible for its start and to all the Ladies of the Auxiliary on the Island. I extend hearty congratulations and best wishes for the future. It would not be proper if I carried on without saying that all or nearly all of the credit for the work done in this regard goes to your Past Provincial President, and to your Secretary."

"We are pleased to see a raise this year in the War Veterans Allowance although not as much as the Legion looked for, it is at least a step in the right direction."

"Your Council prepared and presented a brief to the Board of Transport Commissioners when it met here in Charlottetown this summer. The brief set out our reaction to the proposal of the Canadian National Railways to curtail railway service in this Province, and was along the lines of others presented at the same time."

"I would like at this time to remind all Branches that beginning next year your Legion dues will, in the case of those who are not now receiving the Legionary, be increased 90 cents to include their subscription. This comrades is as it should be because to a Veteran there is no finer book printed."

"Before concluding this report I would like, on your behalf, to express to representatives of D.V.A. and V.L.A. our appreciation for their cooperation during the past year. They have invariably displayed a willingness to do all in their power to further the interests of the Veteran in every manner possible."

"I wish to express my sincere gratitude to you for the honor you have done me in electing me as your President. I have tried to meet the requirements of this important post, and as I now retire to the rank of ordinary membership, I pledge my support in every possible way to my successor, and to our organization as a whole."

New Evidence Claimed In Coffin Case
TORONTO, (CP)—The Star says discovery of new evidence in the case of Wilbert Coffin, 45, convicted of murder in the killing of a 17-year-old Pennsylvania bear hunter, has resulted in the submission of a file of the findings to the minister of justice.

It says a Dr. William Wilson of Toronto and his wife, Marilyn, have volunteered information which might help save Coffin's life.

Coffin was convicted in August, 1954, and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Richard Lindsay.

The story says the file includes a statement given by a resident of Madeleine river on the north coast of Gaspe—between Matane and the place where the slaying occurred.

It says an abandoned Jeep station-wagon has been found in the Juniper river near Bathurst, N. B., bearing one Pennsylvania licence plate. The vehicle answers a description of one given by Coffin, who testified to seeing one and some strangers with it.

The story says RCMP at Bathurst, 300 miles from the Gaspe village, had reports of thefts from bush camps in the vicinity about the time the murder took place.

Powerful Atomic Reactor Repaired
CHALK RIVER, Ont. (CP)—Canada's high-powered NRX reactor is back in operation again following the second breakdown in its eight years' existence.

Automatic safety devices shut off the $11,000,000 pile July when a special fuel rod underwent test in the giant reactor damaged and contained its insides.

Stresses Threefold Bond Linking Veterans Together

"The three-fold cord of Remembrance, Comradeship and Service" formed the theme of an inspiring address by the Very Rev. John Anderson, Rector of the Christ Church Cathedral and President of the Dominion Command of the Canadian Legion, at the 24th annual convention of the Prince Edward Island Command yesterday.

"The first thing which binds us together," said President Anderson "is Remembrance. What old soldier does not let his mind range over former days and former exploits, recalling the feeling of unity in serving a great cause so much larger than any individual. Swinburne once said, 'Time remembered is grief forgotten', and it is true. Who does not remember some incident such as the soldier who decided he would like a Bren gun for a souvenir after the war. So very diligently he sent home to his wife a piece at a time, in the mail. With great ingenuity he wrapped each piece and sent it off and can it be just the same. Nowhere else is there such a variety of finding common ground. It is such fellowship which gives us the power of survival, the survival of one's integrity, of one's identity and peace of mind in a world of mental confusion.

In fellowship we assure the survival of being ourselves — the General, the Private and Sergeant-Major, Air Marshal, Sailor, W. D. We have served and we are secure in that knowledge and the inner satisfaction that it brings because we can go forward together better people for having met. We express the continuance of that comradeship in this present day in our Legion meetings, in our Legion projects, and our Legion plans.

RECALLS STIRRING EVENT
"In October it was my privilege to fly out to Alamein, and there to attend the unveiling of the war memorial by General Montgomery to those who have no known graves in Africa, the Middle East, the Mediterranean. There on the edge of the desert at Alamein, where the great battle which turned the tide of the Second World War was fought in the brilliant sunshine General Montgomery unveiled the memorial. He there recalled the former days, the days of greatness, the days of battle, and the cost of it.

The remembrance of that, and other battlefields on land, in the air and at sea, is what binds us together today. Whether it was Africa or the Pacific or Northwest Europe, Italy, or the islands of the South, we have all been called to make some measure of sacrifice and effort for a common ideal. And so it is when we gather together, Remembrance serves us the strong cement which binds us together. Remembrance of times and places, people and principles. There are those who say it doesn't matter — there are those who say we should forget, the war is over and we face new problems, but I suggest to you that we cannot, we should not, and we will not forget.

"The second link is Comradeship that sense of being together which comes from the memory of a common service. It is something which is peculiar to those who served in the armed forces. Nowhere else can it be just the same. Nowhere else is there such a variety of finding common ground. It is such fellowship which gives us the power of survival, the survival of one's integrity, of one's identity and peace of mind in a world of mental confusion.

In fellowship we assure the survival of being ourselves — the General, the Private and Sergeant-Major, Air Marshal, Sailor, W. D. We have served and we are secure in that knowledge and the inner satisfaction that it brings because we can go forward together better people for having met. We express the continuance of that comradeship in this present day in our Legion meetings, in our Legion projects, and our Legion plans.

THE THIRD LINK
"The third link is a natural result of the first two. It is service. Here is the main reason for the being of the Legion — service. "By keeping green the memories of former days, and in the fun and fellowship of being together, we nobly resolve not only to remember but to act. One philosopher has written: 'The eternal life must be eternally re-won. Peace itself is a struggle, or rather it is a struggle and activity which are the law. We only find rest in effort.

There is a need for service today — the need to look after the unfortunate, those suffering from the results of war; their widows and dependents. These will ever be our first concern, but with the growing help of the government, much of the practical assistance is now forthcoming in a generous manner — in pensions and benefits, and allowances, most are looked after. We have every hope of a very early re-organization of the War Veterans' Allowance Act. The government has announced the appointment of a Parliamentary Committee to consider amendments to the Act which we understand will include and increase in basic rates and in the ceiling on permissible income.

"Th part of our service, however, which should cause us most concern is, I feel, in seeing that
