

considered what is generally known as the religious influence of the teachers beyond the province of my paper. But I believe that "every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

will, no doubt, forgive him, while they remember his good advice to be true to themselves and true to their country—to put their shoulders to the wheel, and so help to make themselves prosperous and their country great.

The Teacher's Influence.

The subject discussed in the "paper" published on the first page of THE EXAMINER to-day is one of great importance, not to teachers only, but to parents, trustees and the public weal. The writer well says that "it does not matter so much whether a man is a lawyer or a shoemaker, a clergyman or a blacksmith, as that he should be an honest workman whatever his calling."

A False Report.

The St. John Telegraph of the 8th, contains a lying telegram, concerning the address delivered here by Sir Charles Tupper, and a leading article headed, "Sir Charles on the Rampage." We invite the attention of the Telegraph to the report of Sir Charles' address, published in THE EXAMINER of yesterday's date, and we ask the Telegraph to point out anything in it, which indicates that Sir Charles was violently partizan.

It is true that Sir Charles said the taxes of the people had not been appreciably increased on account of the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway. But there ought to be no dispute between the parties on that point. It is a fact that the net amount of interest on the public debt, paid per head of the population was, in 1877 $1.51 and in 1885 only $1.59, though the Canadian Pacific Railway has, in the meantime, been built.

Sir Charles, as High Commissioner for Canada, was surely justified in commenting upon a fact illustrating in a striking manner the growth of the credit of the country. But the Grits are alarmed lest Sir Charles should re-enter the political field, and the least thing he says scares them. Frightened people always lose their heads.

The Scott Act Cases.

JUDGMENT OF HIS HONOR THE STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE IN THE OFFER CASE. The question is: Have I jurisdiction to try this case, inasmuch as the defendant was herself out of the jurisdiction of the Court when the offence was committed and when the information was laid.

The evidence given before me clearly, in my opinion, establishes the fact that intoxicating liquor was sold by the servant or agent of the defendant, in Charlottetown, contrary to the provisions of the C. T. Act, 1878. The 100 and 103 Sections of that Act enact strictly that any one who, by "himself, his clerk, servant or agent" shall sell intoxicating liquor shall be liable, on conviction, to certain penalties, and that prosecution for such penalties may be brought before the Stipendiary Magistrate for this city.

Teachers Convention.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 6.

Mr. ALLAN STEWART read a very sensible paper on Principles vs. Methods. The text of Mr. Stewart's essay was that principles were all important—methods of minor importance. He said that no two teachers ought to have the same method, and that each teacher had as many different methods as he had individualities to deal with.

Mr. Stewart's paper afforded material for a very profitable discussion, but as the Convention was pressed for time, Dr. McKay, of Summerside, was called upon to deliver a lecture on the Eye.

The Dr. said that in his hurry he had left his paper at home, but in the short time at his disposal, for he had to go away by the afternoon train he would do his best to give his hearers the information contained in it. He then, by the aid of a model of the eye, showed the teachers the anatomy of that organ and used the blackboard to illustrate the manner in which the light acted upon it and how impressions were made.

The report of the committee on nomination of officers was then received and adopted.

Mr. BREHAUT then moved a resolution of condolence which was unanimously carried.

Mr. MATHESON, of Kensington, said that if no difficulties in English had been offered to Mr. LePage for solution the day before, it was not because the teachers had none to offer. He proposed a resolution to the effect that Mr. LePage be requested to solve in one of the newspapers any difficulties the teachers might propose during the year. The committee were empowered to ask for the necessary space, and to make the request of Mr. LePage. It is to be hoped the arrangement will be made, and if it is every teacher and many of the scholars of the Province will have good reason to thank Mr. Matheson for originating so simple and at the same time so effective a plan of educating students in that, as yet, most puzzling of studies—English grammar.

A hearty and unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers, when the business being over the remaining teachers proceeded on the suggestion of Mr. Montgomery to have a good time. Songs were sung, not only in English, but in French and Gaelic, and the merriest schoolboy might have envied the teachers the fun they enjoyed that half hour. The opinion impressed by most of the teachers is that, taking it altogether, this is the best convention ever held in Charlottetown.

Exhibition Notes.

Considering the large amount of money paid by the farmers of the Island for agricultural implements, we were much surprised to see such a small exhibit in that class, Mr. D. Mackenzie's large and varied assortment being the only one worthy of mention. It consisted of the Brantford Light Binder, the Wisner Seeder, Cultivators, Plows, Straw Cutters, &c. The Binder was a great centre of attraction to old and young. The exhibitor was kept busy during the two days of exhibition, binding imaginary sheaves and explaining the manner of operating the machine.

The Secretary of the Provincial Exhibition is busily engaged preparing an exhibit to supplement that already sent to the Indian and Colonial Exhibition. The exhibit consists of prize apples, roots and vegetables, and will be forwarded via S. S. Clifton on Wednesday next.

The person who took the white and gold vase by mistake from the Exhibition Building, will please return it immediately to A. McNeill, Secretary.

The receipts of the Provincial Exhibition were this year upwards of $1,400, a large increase over any previous year.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

A Fever Stricken Crew.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 8. The Windsor, N. S., bark Montreal arrived here yesterday in charge of a Mexican captain and crew. She left Colon in August, in command of Capt. Davidson. After leaving port the captain and crew were stricken down with fever. The captain became delirious and jumped overboard, the steward, boatswain and chief officer and the remaining men were unable to manage the vessel and she drifted at the mercy of the wind, and was finally becalmed near Compreke, Mexico. She was found, and floated and taken charge of by Captain Isadore Sutura, who refitted her and brought her and her sick crew to New Orleans. The captain claims heavy salvage.

Another Seizure.

HALIFAX, Oct. 8. The Gloucester schooner Niacin Grimes Captain Landry, after being eleven days on Georges Banks without getting any fish, put into Shelbourne, N. S., last midnight for shelter. The weather moderated during the early part of the morning and at 6 o'clock, Capt. Landry proceeded to sea. He was overtaken by a boat's crew from the cutter Terror, and detained for not reporting at the Customs. Capt. Landry says that he did not imagine he would have to report unless he was in port twenty-four hours. The Grimes is held in $400 fine.

Irish Matters.

LONDON, Oct. 8. The News says it is enabled to state that a committee of the Cabinet is preparing a bill to establish four national councils to represent the provinces of Ireland. The bill differs from Gladstone's bill chiefly in the omission of provisions for a legislative body at Dublin. With this exception the bill fully meets the aspirations of the Home Rulers in regard to transferring to local bodies the direction of Irish affairs now dealt with at Westminster.

Missing Steamer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8. There is no news yet of the missing steamer Anchora. She is now just 22 days out from Glasgow with 549 persons on board. She has not been seen or heard from. Other steamers have crossed and recrossed the ocean, but not one of them can report speaking her positively. Many still cling to the hope that she is disabled and has been towed or put into the Azores and will be heard from shortly.

Personal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8. Senor Sagasta is forming a new Spanish Ministry by the Queen's orders. Gen. Kaulbars met with a cold reception at Sivota. Twenty thousand Chicago meat packing workers are on a strike against the restoration of the ten-hour system. Serious trouble is feared.
