

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MAYNERS, a specialty—Beer Bros. A. O. H.—Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock.

THE STANLEY.—The Stanley left Georgetown at the usual hour this morning, but up to three o'clock this afternoon no word of her arrival in Pictou had been received.

APPOINTED KEEPER.—We hear that Mr. W. J. Fraser has been appointed keeper of the Dominion Building in the place of Mr. McLeod, deceased. The appointment is a good one.

TYPHOID FEVER.—A typhoid fever epidemic prevails at Montclair, N. J. Thirty families are affected. The cause is believed to have been milk from infected cows owned by a dairyman at Verona.

GRAND DIVISION.—Members of Grand Division are earnestly requested to turn out in full force this evening at Masonic Temple for installation of officers and other important business.—J. A. Lawson, Secy.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE.—A large number of the members of the Legislature visited Prince of Wales College this forenoon, with a view to ascertaining whether or not the accommodation was insufficient for the number of students in attendance.

THE MORELL MYSTERY.—The search for the body of the missing Martha Dingwell, who disappeared a few days ago at Morell, still continues. No trace of the body has been found, but a laundress identified as belonging to the missing girl was found floating in the Morell River.

THE MARKET.—The attendance at the market to-day, owing to bad ice and roads, was small. Eggs were selling at from 10 to 12 cents per dozen; wild geese from 65 to 75; hay from 70 to 75; oats at from 30 to 35; potatoes at from 25 to 30; and pork at from 21 to 23. The prices of other articles were unchanged.

LOST HIS MONEY.—The Halifax Chronicle says: An Antigonish man came from Boston by the steamer Halifax Sunday night and met with quite a loss. A P. E. Islander occupied a stateroom with him, and in some unaccountable manner $28 in cash and some other small articles disappeared. The Antigonish man reported his loss to the police.

LAIN TO REST.—The body of Mrs. F. V. Hales was interred at Sherwood cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral left the house for St. Paul's church at two o'clock, the cortege being very large. The service at the church was conducted by Rev. W. Hamlyn. The pall-bearers were Charles Palmer, H. J. C. Ward, John Ball, L. C. Owen, D. R. M. Hooper, and Dr. Leeming.

SCOTT ACT MEETING.—The meeting in Zion Church last evening was largely attended, notwithstanding the attractions elsewhere. Rev. D. Sutherland presided, and opened the meeting with a splendid address in support of the act. He was followed by Rev. Messrs. Hamlyn and Brewer, who also made capital speeches. During the progress of the meeting, songs appropriate to the occasion were sung by Mrs. J. M. McLeod and Mr. J. R. Davison. We regret that pressure upon our columns prevents the insertion of a full report.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A CHALLENGE. Sir.—Will any of the temperance advocates tell me how they reconcile the following contradictions:

- 1. You license the use of liquor, the more it will creep in, ergo you license the abuse, ergo you are responsible for the harm caused by the licensing of liquor.
2. Scott Act engenders the breaking of the law, false swearing and drunkenness; but what engenders the breaking of the law, false swearing and drunkenness is evil; that which is evil should not be tolerated, those who tolerate evil are participants therein, ergo those who tolerate Scott Act are participants in the evil accruing therefrom.
3. That which would engender smuggling, illicit stills and breaking of the law of the land, is evil; prohibition engenders smuggling, illicit stills, etc., ergo same is foregoing.
4. That which when abused causes harm is an evil; liquor may be abused, ergo it is an evil; that which is evil should not be tolerated, ergo liquor should not be tolerated.
5. That which when abused causes harm is an evil; food of any kind when abused causes harm, ergo food is an evil; ergo food of any kind should not be tolerated.

PERSONAL.

M. C. H. Colan has resigned the editorship of the Halifax Herald and gone into the practice of law with the firm of Henry & Harris.
M. D. Gordon, agent for the Steam Navigation Company at Summerside, was a passenger in the Stanley yesterday on return from a trip to Halifax. He was registered at the Queen last evening.

NEWS NOTES.

Gold continues to flow into London. The Customs returns at Montreal for March show an increase of $116,000, and the Inland Revenue of $55,000 over the same month last year.

Mr. H. Campbell Bannerman, Secretary of State for War, acting with the assent of the ministry, has suggested to the Duke of Cambridge that he resign his position as Commander-in-Chief of the army. It is reported that the Duke has replied that he will not resign unless he is assured that the Duke of Connaught will be appointed as his successor. The basis of the Duke's demand for the appointment of the Duke of Connaught is the principle that the chief command of the army ought to be held by a prince of the blood royal. The Duke of Cambridge's select circle claim that although the Commander-in-Chief is seventy-five years of age his health and strength are unimpaired, and he is able to discharge the duties of his office.

SOMETHING NEW IN SATURDAY SNAPS!

To-morrow we will make a special display of Saturday Snaps. The large quantity of Dress Goods, etc., now arriving will prevent us from showing them again for some time.
Don't Miss Seeing Them! Among the dozens of Snaps shown will be a number of articles.
Particularly Useful and Valuable During House Cleaning. Remember, this may be your only chance for seeing them.
BEER BROS. SHOW DAYS!—Tuesday, 16th, and Wednesday, 17th.

Weather Bulletin. Toronto, April 6, 10 a. m. Generally fair, a few light local showers; not much change in temperature.

ST. JOSEPH'S SODALITY.

Impressive Services at the Convent.

It is sometimes said that the age of Evely faith and fervent piety belongs exclusively to the history of the past. In this busy century, when the greed of gold yields a universal influence, piety, we are told, has been relegated to the region of the impossible; and the great hereafter must be left to provide for itself as best it may. Thanks to the wise and beneficent action of the Catholic Church, a barrier exists to this materialistic tendency of the age. The Church is essentially holy, and this divine characteristic of her being diffuses itself like a halo of glory over the lives of her members. This truth, counter to the fallacy of those whose good fortune it was to witness the celebration at St. Joseph's Convent, in this city, on the occasion of its Patronal Feast, when the Feast of St. Joseph falls within Holy Week, as happened this year, is transferred to the first free day after the Easter solemnity. Hence, instead of being celebrated on the 19th of March, as customary, this year it was transferred to the 4th of April. This delay, however, diminished in no wise the splendor of the solemnity, but seemed on the contrary to revive it; as if the members of St. Joseph's Sodalite were striving to make up for the delay by greater fervor and more earnest devotion. It was, indeed, a sight not soon to be forgotten. True, we have seen the ritual of the Mass carried out with pomp and majesty, we have heard the praises of the Most High sung to the thrilling strains of orchestral accompaniment, our eyes have been dazzled at the sight of vestments seminating with gems and precious stones, we have seen untold wealth poured out in homage at the feet of Almighty God. St. Joseph's humble and unpretentious, could not aim so high, but it had what is far better than all these. It had piety, fervor, faith and childlike devotion, dearer to the heart of God than the wealth of millions, more beautiful in its simplicity, more striking because so rare. The celebration began with a Low Mass in the Convent Chapel said by Rev. P. J. Hogan, who gave communion to upwards of one hundred of the several children immediately after Father Reid said a second Mass, during which about three hundred members of St. Joseph's Sodalite approached the Holy Table. It was a striking sight to see so many young ladies of every walk of life uniting together in the most sublime act of our Holy Religion. In the sublime masses were being said in the Sisters' Private Chapel, the Rev. Father Reid, the Rev. P. Arsenault, Toward 5 o'clock the last mass was said by His Lordship, Bishop McDonald, after which twelve youthful aspirants were received into the Sodalite. The Rev. Father Reid, in his reception of members is by no means an idle ceremony. Only those who are conspicuous for their virtues can aspire to this privilege, and the promises exacted from them as they kneel before the altar show with striking evidence the importance of the step they take. All the masses being over, a reception was tendered to the Bishop and Clergy in the Sodalite Hall. Two beautiful addresses were presented to His Lordship and to Rev. Father Reid, Spiritual Director of the Sodalite. The Bishop's reply was a most happy one. He congratulated the Sodalite on the great work it had done. For merit, for importance, for energy and good will he readily gave it the palm over all the societies established in the Cathedral Parish. He ended by exhorting the members to continue in the future as they had been in the past, an honor to themselves and to their religion. Father Reid followed fully endorsing everything that had been said by the Bishop, Fathers McLean and McMillan also spoke in laudatory terms of St. Joseph's Sodalite.

ADDRESS TO GOV. HOWLAND

By the Pupils of Notre Dame Convent.

To His Honor George William Howland, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island. May it Please Your Honor. Ours has our Convent Hall resounded with joyous strains, often has it been our privilege to offer to illustrious visitors the loving salutation of affectionate hearts, the tribute of respectful homage due to distinguished merit. But, in all that we can say, never did we unite more gladly, never did the sweet words of greeting arise from an impulse more truly cordial than that which to-day inspires us, one and all, to proclaim Your Honor most welcome to Notre Dame.

A visit from the representative of our Gracious Sovereign is ever an event of momentous importance to the little people of this island, but when, in the case of Your Honor, he who comes in that capacity is an honored and esteemed friend of our Alma Mater, one whose name is mentioned with respect and pride by those we love at home, oh! then feelings of gratitude and delight are intensified, and the ardent desire to express them is equalled only by the conviction of our inability to do so in a fitting manner.

Since the appointment of your Honor to the lofty position of Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island, addresses, congratulations, and expressions of good will have been showered upon you. In our tranquil solitude, we, too, have longed for an opportunity of testifying our satisfaction and of offering you, in person, the assurance of our respectful affection. To-day that this favor is recorded, permit us to give expression to them. May health be granted you, to fulfil the duties of your exalted position with characteristic energy and devotedness may you wisely direct the destinies of your Island, so truly called the "Garden of the Gulf." Under your sway, with the protection of Divine Providence, may her fields be more verdant, her granaries more bountifully replenished, her dairies filled to overflowing. Before the term of your office expires may the cherished desire of your heart be more than a possibility.

ST. JOSEPH'S CONVENT.

The Reception to Lieutenant-Governor Howland Yesterday Afternoon. A reception was tendered Lieutenant-Governor Howland at St. Joseph's Convent yesterday afternoon. The beautiful hall of the Convent was decorated for the occasion with costly draperies and festoons of natural flowers. His Honor accompanied by the Bishop and about a dozen of the clergy, arrived at the Convent about half-past two o'clock. As they were ushered into the grand hall a song of welcome was beautifully sung by a chorus composed of the school children. Seven little girls dressed in spotted white recited a nice little piece of poetry, at the end of which each held up a fan on which was inscribed a large gilt letter the whole forming the word "Welcome."

Quality versus Quantity.

Some persons want low-priced goods because they think them cheap. Sometimes they are, but generally they are not. Now-a-days you can't get quality without price, and nobody knows that better than you. You get your money's worth, that's all. In Drugs quality comes first. If you buy from us you guarantee the quality, and sell at as low figures as the quality will allow. We always give you your money's worth in pure drugs.

TO-DAY a grand re-union of the survivors of the struggle will be held on the battlefield of Shiloh, Tenn. The demonstration will close to-morrow, and a committee in charge of the affair has perfected arrangements for the purchase of the battle-field by the Government for the purpose of making it a National Park. Some 2,500 acres have been secured at very reasonable prices.

We want no fancy prices, but the most reasonable prices to be had anywhere in the city. We cannot very well make you a present of them without entailing a slight inconvenience, but we won't see you stuck. Our show of Tweeds this spring is particularly handsome and cheap. In Worsted Overcoatings, Pantings and Furnishings we as usual excel in these lines. You should not put off ordering your Suit without delay. Some of these days you will be sorry you did not take the Star Tailor's advice, but it is not too late yet. Step in to-day and see what we have in store for you.
