FINE DAIRY OUTLOOK.—The outlook for dairying and cheese-making was never better. The only drawback is the lack of cows. Pastures are coming on splendidly.

LOBSTER FISHING along the North Shore this week is slackening off. However if no more lobsters were caught, a good season has been already made.

ST. DAVID'S CHURCH. Georgetown, Sunday, June 18th. Preaching at 7 p. m. by Rev. D. MacVicar and not at 3 p. m. as first announced.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT.—The concert at Priest Pond School House Monday night was a great success. The house was packed. The handsome sum of $70.00 was realized, which goes to the School.

FINES LIGHT.—The fines imposed on the several North Shore lobster packs for infringement on the regulation,—canning spawn lobster at the trial in Souris last Monday, were $18.25 plus expenses.

EASTERN FARMING OPERATIONS are still going on apace and considerable oats is being sown this week by parties who found it difficult to obtain seed oats earlier. With the present moisture this late sowing has every chance for a fall crop.

GEORGETOWN AND CHERRY VALLEY.—Services will be held next Sunday 18th, June at Christ Church, Cherry Valley at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown at 7 o'clock in the evening.

A GOOD YEAR FOR LOBSTER FISHING.—The present season is ideal for fishing and fishermen are having a good season. The reason is that the weather remains cool, and unsettled. Though there have been few days that the fishermen could not haul, yet there was absence of calm, settled weather. The waters have nearly always been in a disturbed state which is the ideal state for fishing. There is bound to be a big pack of lobsters this year. In fact there are as many lobsters taken already as last year altogether.
