AN INTERRUPTED WEDDING.—A couple were to have been married at a north end church last week and up to the time the bride was asked "Wilt thou have this man," et, everything went as merry as a marriage bell. But when this crucial question was asked she replied, "No; I will not." The clergyman questioned the woman regarding her action and satisfied himself that she was perfectly calm and knew what she was saying. On being asked by the clergymen the reason for her action, she called him beyond the hearing of the wedding party and spoke with him. Her explanation seemed to disclose good ground for her action and the wedding didn't take place.—Halifax Chronicle.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Cosgrove Concert Company gave the first of their entertainments in the Opera House last evening to a fair-sized audience. The company is a capable one, and the programme presented was thoroughly enjoyed. The musical portion of the programme, especially the performances on the bells by Professor Cosgrove—was greatly appreciated. Messrs. Harvey and Pigott rendered a number of character songs in a manner that drew forth peals of laughter. Miss Wright's songs and her ball and club swinging were especially pleasing features. There is nothing of an objectionable character in the entertainment, and everyone who enjoys a hearty laugh should make a point of attending to-night. The programme will be re-arranged, and some new features are promised.

THE WEATHER.—Moderate winds; fair with a little higher temperature at most places.

However the Cosgrove Concert Company is a good one, and all who want a jolly evening should hear them.

EARLY CLOSING.—All the tailoring and readymade clothing establishments in this city have agreed to close at 6 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings until the 1st of July; after that date they will close at 6 o'clock each night of the week (except Saturday) until the 1st of September.

HOW DISCOURAGING to find that the cloth you have chosen for a suit of clothes does not turn out as you have expected. Such is never the case with the "Tyke" Serges, but you must be sure to get it with the registered trade mark, "Tyke," stamped on the back of every 2½ yards.

UNITED STATES TRADE.—One result of the lower tariff in the United States has been a large increase in the importation of foreign goods. Last week's imports at the port of New York were of the value of $9,114,855, against $5,690,878 in the corresponding week of last year. Since the first of January the imports have been of the value of $211,594,514, against $179,661,847 in the corresponding period of 1894. The exports of domestic products, on the other hand, show a considerable falling off, the total being $135,853,753 this year against $146,508,355 last year. If this ratio is maintained to the end of the year the balance of trade will be largely against the United States.

PAPA'S NAG WAS SLOW.—A man named William Bush, part owner of the immense stone quarries at St. Paul, Ind., had been paying attention to Miss Ida Ridlen, the belle of the village. The only objection Ridlen had to Bush, it is said, was that the latter was a Democrat; and he had frequently said that no person belonging to that party should ever become a member of his family. On Sunday morning at 3 o'clock Bush assisted Miss Ida down a ladder from her room and onto the back of his horse. They galloped madly to St. Omer, ten miles away, where they were married by Rev. C. C. Evans. Just as they remounted their horses to start for Adams, whence they intended going to Newcastle, Ky., the irate father of Ida was seen coming down the road after his daughter. Away the couple went, with the stern parent in pursuit, threatening to kill Bush at every jump. The horse carrying the young couple was fleeter footed, and after a pursuit of three miles the chase was abandoned. At latest accounts, William and Ida were with friends in the Bluegrass region.

The United States Supreme court has decided that Eugene Debs and his associates in the direction of the American Railroad union must spend in jail the time for which they were sentenced because of their interference during the strike with the operatian of the railroads. A year ago Mr. Debs thought he was a bigger man than President Cleveland, and all the railroad presidents of the United States together; but their are revolutions, and Mr. Debs was the victim of one. The law went up and he went down.

The Figaro says the Emperor of Germany recently sounded M. Pasteur as to his acceptance of a decoration upon the occasion of the opening of the Baltic Sea Canal, and that the French chemist refused to accept the honor, declaring he would never forget 1870.

Slightly Sensational
BUT NOT IN THE LINE OF FICTION.

We find among our White Wear an odd lot of about 60 Ladies' Night Gowns, made of fine cotton, some of fine cambric, some handsomely trimmed with embroidery, many worth $1.15 and a few worth $1.50. Our stock of Night Robes is very complete without these, and as some of them are crumpled we offer to-day this whole line at the surprising price of 79c.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

LETTER FROM BRUCE STEWART & CO.

SIR,—It appears as if certain parties, who are well known, are doing all they can to find fault with the steam boiler supplied by us to the Hillsborough Cheese Factory. This boiler was built by E. Leonard & Son, of London, Ontario, who have a reputation at stake, and would not send out a boiler of poor or weak construction. All we ask of the parties signing themselves "Observer," and, "Another Observer," is to come out like men over their own signatures and let the public judge what interest they have in this matter.

Yours truly
BRUCE STEWART & Co.

INFORMATION WANTED.

SIR,—In yesterday's issue of your journal you print a short quotation from E. W. Bok, wherein he states that Trilby lacked the virtue of chastity, and adds that "Mr. Du Maurier states the fact and states it plainly."

Would you kindly either quote Du Maurier's words or indicate on what page, or in what particular chapter, this plain statement may be found? I had perused "Trilby" with some attention, and again on receipt of your paper gave it a cursory re-perusal, but fail to find the statement in question.

By supplying the above information you will greatly oblige
