COMPILING THE CENSUS.—Fifty computing machines, similar to those used in the Census Bureau at Washington, have been ordered for use in compiling the census returns at Ottawa. Some of the machines have already arrived, and an expert is now engaged in instructing the staff. The result will be to greatly accelerate the compilation.

ANOTHER MIRACLE.—Mrs. Adam Coutier, of Notre Dame de Grace, near Montreal, suffered complete paralysis of the legs and feet for two years past, so that they were past feeling pines when driven into them. She was taken to St. Anne on Monday last, after communion and praying at the statue she said she was instantly completely cured.

THE SUFFERERS from catarrh are legion, and the majority of them make the serious mistake of thinking they should only use treatment when at its worst. Treatment during the summer months is almost certain to prevent a recurrence of the disease, and Nasal Balm is the only remedy that will effect a complete cure. All dealers, or post free on receipt of price (50c or $1 a bottle). Address E. Led & Co., Brockville, Ont.

POULTRY.—The "licensed sparring exhibition" at Halifax on Tuesday night between Gal Jordan, who was here with the Godfrey-Steele combination, and William White, a Royal Artillery gunner, developed into a regular prize fight, and was stopped by the police in the second round. White, who is a much heavier man than Jordan, had the best of the mill so far as it went.

PERSONAL.—Richard Sprague, Esq., of Montague Bridge, was in town to-day.

Mr. G. Frank Beer and Mrs. Beer, arrived in England on Saturday last.

Mr. Farham left Charlottetown this morning for Antigonish, N. S., to fulfil an engagement with the W. C. T. U. in rendering Under the Palms at that place. Mr. Farham wishes to extend his sincere thanks to all the kind friends who helped make the rendering of the cantata the good success it was here.

"Saturday Night" (July 11) reports: Mr. Robert Harris, R. C. A., is at present at work on a portrait of Dr. Howe, who has been for fifty years principal of the Montreal Board of Protestant Commissioners' High School. The portrait is a present from graduates of the college, and the subscriptions are very large as Dr. Howe has been beloved by every boy who ever came under his control.

Mr. John Colwill, one of our oldest residents, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly yesterday forenoon. He had the grip in the spring, but recovered and was smart again for a man upwards of eighty years of age. After resting yesterday morning he suddenly became ill, and though medical aid was at once obtained, died in the course of a few hours. He was a typical Englishman—honest and industrious, cheerful and careful.

LONDON, July 14.—The chancellor of the Exchequer, Rt. Hon. George J. Goschen, in the House of Commons to-day, replying to a question addressed to the Government in regard to the bill popularly known as the Atlantic Cattle Bill, said the Government, in view of the opposition brought to bear against that measure, could not promise to persevere in an attempt to pass it.

Fishery Bulletin.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau Report.) HALIFAX, July 15.—The fisheries on the shore of Quebec are reported about the same as yesterday, the codfishery being good at Thunder River, St. John River, Morsy and Sheldrake. Fair at Long Point and Newport Point. The codfishery is reported poor all over the P. E. Island and Cape Breton coasts, but fair on the South coasts of Nova Scotia, from Camso down to Spry Bay. Fair also at Digby. Haddock are fairly plentiful at Port Hood, C. B., Isaacs Harbor, Spry Bay and Digby. N. S. Hake quite plentiful at Port Hood and Digby. Mackerel have struck in off the northern coast of New Brunswick, at Shippegan, and especially at Point Esquimaux, where they are reported taking hooks freely. A few are hooking on the north side of P. E. Island, and at East Point and Black Bush, but none at Souris. The netting from Souris had about two or three barrels per net, but none reported taken at any other place in Cape Breton. Some are being taken in traps at Dover Bay, N. S., where several bankers were baited to-day, and good hauls are reported at Winter's Island and other points of Mahone Bay. The best reports of herring taken are fair catch at Newport Point, Que., St. Peter's, C. B., Dover Bay and Digby, N. S. Ice procurable at Lunenburg and Chester, N. S.
