

New Minimum Wage Rates Announced For Nova Scotia

HALIFAX (CP) — A five-cent hourly increase in minimum wage rates in Nova Scotia, effective June 1, was announced Monday by minimum wage board chairman H.L. Ritcey. Some 4,000 workers will be affected. Under the new schedule, the minimum wage for men in the cities of Halifax, Dartmouth and Sydney and within a 10-mile radius of each is increased five cents to $1.10 an hour. Women in the same area will be entitled to 85 cents an hour. Male workers in New Glasgow and within a 10-mile radius, in Truro, Amherst and Yarmouth and within a five mile radius will be entitled to a minimum hourly rate of one dollar and women to 75 cents. Minimum rates for the remainder of the province as of June 1st will be pegged at 90 cents for men and 65 cents for women. Mr. Ritcey said nearly 27 per cent of trade union agreements now on file with the provincial labor department call for wage rates that fall under the new minimum.

reminded her hearers that there is yet a great deal to do. A new project in which Mrs. Wood herself is much involved is the placing of retarded children in foster homes. She explained that these are children whose parents, for some reason, are unable to care for them. She indicated that the plan is proving most satisfactory.

She spoke of the urgent need to do something for adult retarded persons in the way of recreation and handicrafts. There is no need to strengthen home services. Members of O'Leary and Tignish branches were present as guests of the Alberton branch. Mrs. A.C. Green presided. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Schedule Announced

Northumberland ferry crossings between Wood Islands and Caribou are scheduled to begin Wednesday with the Lord Selkirk making her first crossing this year.

The Selkirk will leave Caribou at 8 a.m., 12 noon and 4 p.m. daily and Wood Islands at 10:00 a.m., 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.

The Prince Nova will join the Selkirk on May 1 and the regular four crossings will be made daily at 9 a.m., 12 noon, 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. Average crossing time is one hour and 20 minutes.

Both ferries were in drydock at Pictou during the winter months for annual refit. A CNR spokesman yesterday said that no crossings were usually made before May 1.

Regarding possible increases in fares charged on the ferries or the doing away with return fares, the spokesman said it will depend on what happens at Borden.

Announce New Healing Substance... Shrinks Piles, Checks Itch

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids... and repair damaged tissue.

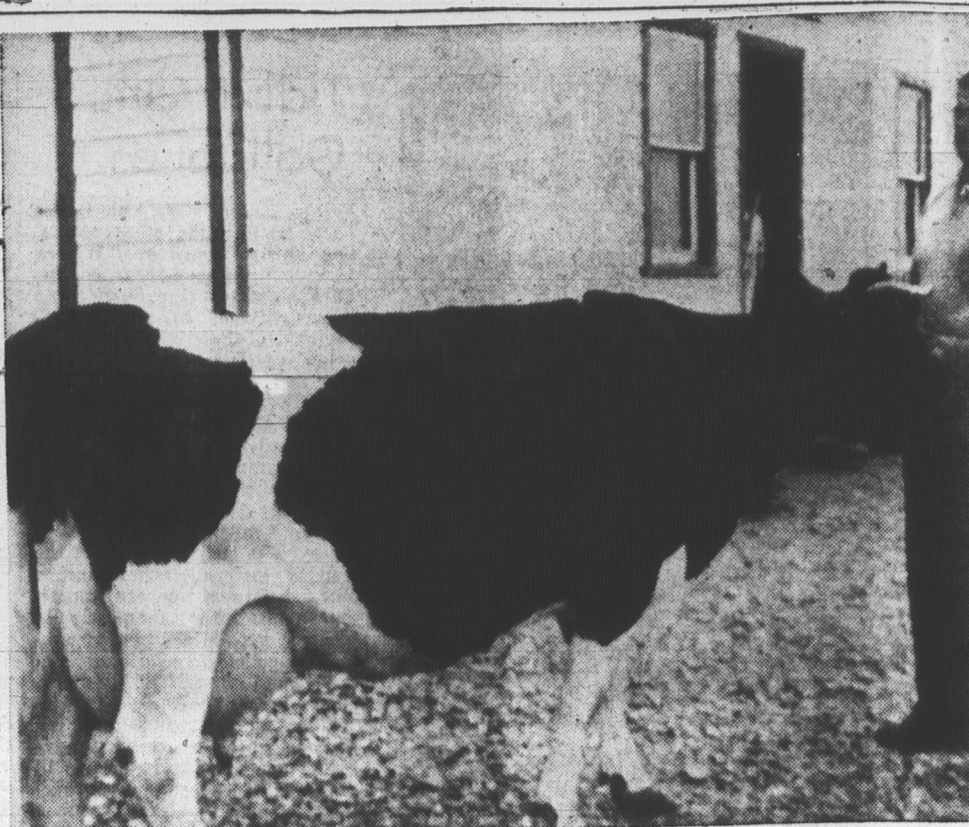

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissues.

One hemorrhoidal case history after another reported "very striking improvement." Pain was promptly and gently relieved... actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

This was accomplished with a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue. Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H.

Among these case histories were a variety of hemorrhoidal conditions. Relief even occurred in cases of long standing, and most important of all, results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of months. In addition to actually shrinking hemorrhoids, Preparation H lubricates and makes elimination less painful. It helps prevent infection which is a principal cause of hemorrhoids.

All Canadian Adjudicators Are Selected For Festival

The adjudicators for this year's Prince Edward Island Music Festival competitions scheduled for the Confederation Auditorium, Summerside and the Montague High School, Montague from May 2 to 7 will arrive in Charlottetown this weekend. This year all four adjudicators chosen were from Canada — unlike recent years when they have included personages from outside of Canada.

Two of this year's judges are from Ontario, one from Manitoba and the other from Quebec. They will include Lloyd G. Queen, B.A., B.Ed., from Toronto, Ontario; Francis Wickberg, Winnipeg, Manitoba and Wayne K. Riddell, B.Mc., from Montreal, Quebec.

Mr. Queen, an adjudicator here in 1960 and 1961, attended the University of Western Ontario and the University of Toronto and is presently an inspector of schools with the Ontario Department of Education in charge of music and separate schools of that province. He was awarded the Military Cross during World War Two.

Mr. Wickberg, a past president of the Manitoba Music Educators Association and Manitoba Registered Music Teachers Association, is an executive member of the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers. She has been engaged as vocal and piano adjudicator at Canadian festivals for a number of years and has had experience in school and church music. She holds degrees in singing and piano from the Universities of Manitoba and Toronto.

Wayne K. Riddell, a staff member of Marianopolis College graduated from McGill University with a Bachelor of Music Degree and a High School Teaching Diploma. He lectures on the history of music and directs the college Glee Club at Marianopolis.

He has had extensive experience as a church organist and choir director.

Precipitation Stalls Threat

A light fall of snow in Prince Edward Island early Sunday morning stalled a mounting forest fire threat in the province.

The Charlottetown radio range last night reported 15 inches of precipitation between 3 a.m. Sunday and 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. This light quantity of precipitation is expected to eliminate the possibility of any serious outbreak for at least a day.

Approximately six minor outbreaks occurred in scrub land areas of the province over the weekend and were extinguished without loss to merchantable timber.

A similar situation is being experienced in Nova Scotia where light rain began Monday night and quelled a mounting forest fire threat.

Forestry department officials, who battled 33 separate outbreaks Sunday, do not expect any serious fires for two days.

DIRECTORS APPROVE

Square Dance Jamboree Discussed At Meeting

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
A proposition was placed before the Lobster Carnival Committee at its regular meeting here last night that a modern square dance jamboree be held here during Lobster Carnival Week.

The suggestion was brought up by Graeme Linkletter who is a member of the Summerside branch of the North American Modern Square dancers formed here in February.

The original idea of forming a branch here was thought up by Pete Howard, a member of the RCAF transferred here last fall. Mr. Howard who is the caller for the group has had considerable experience in this type of entertainment and prior to coming here had belonged to a branch overseas while stationed there.

There are a considerable number of branches across the Maritimes and both Mr. Linkletter and Mr. Howard felt that if other branches were extended invitations to participate in a jamboree here that a good number would accept and thus bring in more visitors for the town's annual week of festivities.

SUGGEST FLOAT
The two men also suggested that they place a float in the parade consisting of a group of dancers from the local branch dancing on the flat float with Mr. Howard doing the calling.

The carnival directors approved the idea and agreed to provide the hall for the jamboree which would take place on Saturday afternoon and evening, the last day of carnival week.

Only members of clubs would participate in the dancing, but spectators would be allowed in to the hall as spectators free of charge.

The meeting was told that Scottish day has been tentatively set for Tuesday, July 12th. There is a possibility however that the day may be set back to July 13th.

John Hopkirk, the chairman of the Scottish Day committee, stated it is hoped that arrangements can be made for a two hour Scottish concert that night which he feels will be a highlight of Carnival Week.

It appears as if there will be no pipe-smoking contest this year, an event which originated during centennial year. The National Tobacco Company which sponsored the contest two years it was held, apparently have withdrawn their sponsorship.

There is also a possibility that no adult dances will be held during the week. The dances only broke even last year and this has been attributed to the lack of ships in port during the week. Up until now, there is little possibility that any ships will visit the town for the second year in a row, although efforts are continuing to have vessels in port during the week-long festivities.

OPENING PARADE
The opening day parade this year will get under way at 1:30 p.m. on July 11th and the meeting was told that no bands will be brought in from outside the province for this event as it is too costly an undertaking. No date has been set for Acadia Day but the chairman of this committee, Windsor Corney, stated that he had approached the French Social Club here for assistance in locating entertainers for this day and that he is meeting shortly with members of the club to formulate plans for the event.

The carnival ball will be held on Monday night of the carnival at the Legion Home, but plans have not been finalized and a band has not yet been engaged.

An attraction for the teenagers will be the rock and roll bonanza and the coronation ball. Peter Schurman stated that three bands have agreed to participate in the bonanza and that three or four more are expected. This year there will be signs on the ferries advertising the
