Rev.D.O'Sullivan To Replace Rev. Fr. Enright Here

Rev. W. J. Enright, C.SS.R., who has been stationed at the Redemptorist house in Charlottetown for the past six years, and who has recently been appointed Rector of a parish in Vancouver, leaves for British Columbia this morning. His place here is being taken by Rev. Daniel O'Sullivan, C.SS.R., who has been stationed in Quebec City for the past three years. Rev. Father O'Sullivan was born in Ireland and has been in Canada since he was a boy. He was ordained in New York in 1917.

Rev. Edward Walsh, Rector of Toronto, who was to have taken Rev. Father Enright's place in Charlottetown has been transferred to the Redemptorist Seminary at Woodstock, Ontario.

Rev. Father O'Sullivan is expected to arrive in Charlottetown some day this week.

Parishioners gathered in the Holy Redeemer Hall last night to say farewell to Rev. Father Enright and present him with a suitable gift.

FIRST PERIOD NEARING END

The big vote period in the Guardian Campaign ends Saturday night. This is both a challenge and an opportunity.

It is only fair to advise candidates and their friends who want them to win that they must get in every subscription they possibly can between now and Saturday night. Not to do so means that the golden chance to win a fine new automobile is being thrown away.

Prizes For All

Alomst every contestant will win a prize. Two of them will ride away in new automobiles just four weeks from now. Four other workers will receive big cash bonus checks in addition to their commission. The results accomplished between now and Saturday next will largely determine the value of the prize each receives. Now is the time for action! Those who work the hardest will be the winners!

The time for work courage and persistence is at hand. Every moment is precious this week and should be utilized in seeing as many people as possible, explaining the necessity for action to them and in hurrying every subscription, renewal and second payment possible to the campaign office. Also new subscriptions which count triple this and next week.

It is only the worker who keeps right on, detouring obstacles and overriding difficulties who will succeed. The fine new car you will win by constant effort now will be worth all the time and energy put forth. Your earnest efforts will receive the respect and support of your friends.

Close Race

The race is very close. There is only a difference of a few subscriptions in the vote accumulation. It is true that no one has an advantage as yet, and it is, at this time, anybody's race. One candidate has just as good a chance as another. It is purely a matter of how much time is allowed to the work.

Vote Standing

Vote standing will be published in Thursday's Guardian and each contestant should stand as high as possible.

THREE ARE

he left to go home he was. The three accused came in together by the back way while Vautour and Jeffrey were at the restaurant. The witness saw Jeffrey change money that night but did not know how much he had. At that time four sailors and herself and Vautour were present. The four sailors, Jeffrey and Vautour, Kelly, Clinton and Phillips were present at the time the witness told them it was time to go just about twelve o'clock. Kelly came back in by the back door. About that time Jeffrey came back for his overcoat and the witness told him he still owed her a dollar for the drinks. He didn't want to pay and Kelly said "pay the woman her dollar, she needs it." Jeffrey pulled off his coat and was going to hit Kelly, but the witness told Kelly to go out and not start a row in he house. Kelly then went out the back door and Jeffrey followed him. The witness went out the front door with Jeffrey's coat, which he had left. She saw the squabble on the street. Phillips caught Clinton and said "come with me." Jeffrey went over and struck Phillips on the face. Clinton then struck Jeffrey. They got into a "clinch" and the both of them fell. Vautour was standing down a long piece on the sidewalk. Jeffrey and Clinton were down a short time and when they got up Jeffrey started towards Queen St. Kelly did not interfere in any way.

Cross examined by Hon. Mr. Campbell the witness said the three accused "made a practice of coming in the back door." They came two or three times a week. Phillips lived across the street and Kelly was born in the same locality as the witness. She had also known Clinton for some time.

When the others went out Vautour remained in the hall talking to one of the girls. Jeffrey said for him to wait that he would be back for his coat. When he came back both went out the back way. Kelly came back and said he wanted to speak to the witness. When the witness asked for the dollar Jeffrey gave her 50 cents and Vautour did not pay his. Kelly said "pay the woman her dollar." Jeffrey went to hit Kelly, who went out the back door chased by Jeffrey.

Clinton and the sailor were talking loud when she heard them outside. She did not know what they were talking about. He and the sailors had no dispute in the house.

After the fight Mr. Gallant took Phillips by the arm and took him into the house. Clinton and Kelly came over to the witness and wanted to go in but she told them it was too late and they went down King Street towards Queen. Phillips was drinking, but neither Clinton nor Kelly had any drinks at her house that night, the witness said.

Hazel McGuigan, 17 year old daughter of Mrs. McGuigan, told of going to the restaurant with Vautour, Jeffrey and Annie Coyle about a quarter to eleven. Up to that time none of the three prisoners were in the house. Jeffrey paid for the meal which cost "something over two dollars."

Phillips, Clinton and Kelly were there when the witness and others got back from the restaurant. Jeffrey and Vautour bought drinks after thye came back from the restaurant.

After they went out Clinton and the Norwegian sailors were arguing. Phillips went over to take Clinton away and Jeffrey hit Phillips. Clinton then hit Jeffrey, and they both fell. Kelly was standing on the sidewalk. Neither Phillips or Vautour took any part in the fight. Vautour was standing on the sidewalk.

The witness saw Jeffrey take a bill in the restaurant from a roll he had in his pocket. Jeffrey was staggering when he left to go home. Vautour was also. After the "scuffle" on the street Mr. Gallant took Phillips into the house where he lives right across the street. Clinton lives "out Elm Avenue way" the witness said. The witness did not see Clinton or Kelly drinking that night.

The Crown did not cross examine.

Alfred Clinton, one of the accused, said he and Kelly met Phillips in front of where Phillips lives on King St. about 11 o'clock. He was with Kelly after 9 o'clock. The witness did not see Kelly drink that night nor did he himself have any drinks at Mrs. McGuigan's. When they went in to Mrs. McGuigan's the witness saw two small children and Mrs. McGuigan in the kitchen, and four sailors in the front room. Jeffrey, Vautour and two girls arrived late. The only evidence of drinking the witness saw was Phillips with a glass in his hand. That was in the sitting room. Vautour Jeffrey and the two girls were in a room across the hall. The witness was back and forth from the kitchen to the sitting room several times.

When the witness left he went by the back door. Kelly went with him. Kelly went back in and the witness went out on the street. The rest must have went by the front door because they were here when the witness reached the street. One of the Norwegian sailors said something to the witness about a bottle. He could not speak English very well and the witness could not understand him. The sailor became excited, they wrangled for a short time and then pushed the witness off the sidewalk. Phillips then came over and told the witness to come away. He looked at Phillips and saw Jeffrey hit him. Then the witness hit Jeffrey, who grabbed him pinning his arms to his side and bit him on the face. The witness put his foot behind Jeffrey who fell taking the witness with him. The witness fell on one knee and jumped right up. There was no more fighting. He did not take any money from Jeffrey's pocket. Phillips went into his home across the street and the witness spoke to Mrs. McGuigan, who said she was going to bed.

He and Kelly then left going towards home. The witness lives on Bishop St. and Kelly on a little street off Brighton Road. They stopped at the cafe on Euston St. and had sort of a lunch. The witness had potato chips and Kelly had a sandwich. The witness had ten cents and Kelly had twenty. They were arrested there by Officer Jay and Sergt. Doyle.

Jeffrey did not exhibit any money in the presence of the witness at Mrs. McGuigan's. Jeffrey was drunk when he left the last time. Vautour was not so drunk. The witness was cross examined by Hon. Mr. Campbell.

Cyrene Kelly, also one of the accused, was the next witness. He is 20 years of age he said. He met Clinton in the pool room on Sunnyside on the night of May 14. He told of going to Mrs. McGuigan's with Clinton and Phillips whom they met in front of his boarding house opposite Mrs. McGuigan's. The witness had nothing to drink that night. Just as they were leaving the witness had some trouble with Jeffrey, who got sore and took a swing at him because he was told to pay Mrs. McGuigan a dollar owing her. Mrs. McGuigan told the witness to leave which he did followed by Jeffrey.

He took no part at all in the fight on the street. He had nothing to do with taking any money from Jeffrey. He did not know Jeffrey had any money.

The witness was not cross examined.

Fred Phillips, third of the accused, nineteen years of age, said, he was staying at Gallants on King St, across from Mrs. McGuigan's on May 14. He told of meeting Clinton and Kelly in front of his place, about 11 o'clock and of going to Mrs. McGuigan's. Jeffrey, Vautour and the two girls came in after the witness arrived. The witness had two drinks which were bought by Jeffrey. He had two drinks before that, before he went to Mrs. McGuigan's. Jeffrey had two drinks also at McGuigans. He told of the fight on the street. The only part he took in it was to go over to take Clinton away. Jeffrey hit him on the mouth and nose and then Clinton hit Jeffrey, when the fight was over Mr. Gallant took him by the arm and said he had better come into the house. He did not take any money from Jeffrey nor did he know that he had any.

There was no cross examination.

That concluded the evidence.

The manslaughter case, The King vs. Russell Abbott will begin this morning when the Court meets at 10:30. Mr. D. Edgar Shaw, K.C., is appearing for the Crown and Mr. R. R. Bell for the accused.

Quarterly Meeting of Prince Edward Island Presbytery

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in regular quarterly session on Tuesday, June 23rd in the Presbyterian Church, Murray Harbour South, and was opened in due form by the Moderator, Rev. W. O. Rhoad, assisted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster and Rev. J. Keir Fraser, D.D. Members of the Court present were Rev. W. O. Rhoad, Moderator; Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Clerk; Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, Rev. D. L. Griffiths, Rev. J. H. Douglas, Rev. T. Owen Hughes, Rev. Edwin J. White, Rev. M. E. Genge, DD., and Messrs. Angus McLean, Alexander McKenzie, John R. Stavert, A. E. Morrison, A. A. McDonald, Wm. J. Montgomery, Stewart McKinnon, representative Elders. Those present not members of the Court were: Mr. V. E. Orsborn, Student Catechist, and Messrs. John A. Stewart, George Panting, Jonathan Morrison, D. M. McLeod, Jas. Jardine, Jas. H. Brooks, David Brooks and Charles McLean, Elders, and Messrs. John Anderson, D. J. Riley, Hugh McPherson, Angus Panting and E. W. Campbell, representative laymen.

The minutes of the last quarterly session were read and after several changes had been made in certain paragraphs they were adopted. The minutes of the special meeting held on May 25th were read and adopted as read.

The correspondence was then dealt with. The Clerk read a letter from Rev. J. W. McNamara, DD., Clerk of the General Assembly, stating that at its meeting in Hamilton June 3-10 the General Assembly had agreed that Mr. V. E. Orsborn, who had completed a two year's extra-mural course of studies be licensed and ordained as a Catechist now and that he be required to take another year extra murally and when this has been passed satisfactorily he be given full status as a minister of the church. It was then agreed by the Presbytery that the service for Mr. Orsborn's ordination be held in the Presbyterian Church, Clifton, New London, at 8 p. m. on Tuesday, July 7th. The arrangements for this service are as follows: The Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. W. O. Rhoad will preside and ordain. Rev. Walter McCleary will preach the sermon. Rev. J. Keir Fraser, D.D., will give the charge to Mr. Orsborn and Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., will address the people of the congregation.

A letter was read from Rev. D. M. Sinclair asking that the Presbytery appoint two representatives as members of the Boys' Work Board of the M. R. E. C. The letter was handed to the committee on Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies. The two men recommended by this committee were Rev. Edwin J. White and Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. ted by the Presbytery as the two These men were accordingly appointed by the Presbytery as the two said representatives.

Under the heading of reports on vacant congregations, Rev. T. Owen Tughes reported that the pastoral charge of Marshfield had heard three candidates, and that he hoped that in the near future this field would have a settled minister. Rev. G. Carlyle Webster made a similar report regarding the Brookfield congregation.

The people of Caledonia are appreciating very much the services of the student catechist, Mr. John Young. Mr. Webster also reported that since the passing away of Rev. Dr. Lowry he had been securing supply for the Canoe Cove and Clyde River pastoral charge. The report was adopted.

Rev. Edwin J. White, treasurer of the Presbytery Fund, reported on the condition of that Fund. A number of bills were dealt with. The financial year of the Presbytery extends from July 1st in one year to July 1st in the next year. The money for the incoming year is now due and Mr. White urged that all congregations not having sent in their dues would kindly do so in the near future. The report was adopted.

Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, the interim moderator of the Central Parish of the Church of Scotland, which was recently received into the Presbyterian Church in Canada, reported that a satisfactory settlement had been made with Rev. Ewen McDougall concerning the purchase of the People's Church, Charlottetown, and that the price agreed upon by the members of the Central Parish and sanctioned by the Presbytery had been paid by the Rev. Mr. McDougall to the Board of Trustees of the Central Parish.

Rev. J. H. Douglas, Rev. Edwin J. White, and Mr. A. A. McDonald, the three commissioners who had attended the meeting of the General Assembly held in Hamilton June 3-10, gave splendid reports of the meeting. Even in the face of the continued depression the church, during the past year has made quite marked progress. The financial standing was better than in any year since 1927.

The thanks of the Presbytery was extended to the three commissioners for their interesting and inspiring reports. Mr. V. E. Orsborn also thanked the commissioners for the support they had given to his case when it was being dealt with by the General Assembly.

The Home Mission report was submitted to the Court by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The work in the West Point, O'Leary and Coleman field is being well cared for by Mr. John Muchan. Mr. Webster expects to visit this field in the near future to look into the needs of the work there.

Rev. T. Owen Hughes, the convenor of the Budget Committee, presented the Budget report to the Court. The report was quite an encouraging one. The contributions for the past year were quite in excess of those of the previous year. The report was adopted.

At the meeting of Presbytery, held on May 25th, a committee of three, consisting of Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, the Clerk, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, and Rev. G. Carlyle Webster was appointed to draw up a resolution dealing with the life and work of the late Rev. J. W. S. Lowry Th.D., and have the same incorporated in the minutes of the Presbytery. The following is the minute prepared by the said committee and read by the Clerk: "The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island desires to place on record its deep sense of loss at the removal by death of the Rev. J. W. S. Lowry, Th.D., who passed to his reward in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on the 22nd day of May, 1936, after a long and trying illness. For about a year and a half Dr. Lowry had acted as supply for the Central Parish group of congregations in this Presbytery and gave himself faithfully and unselfishly to the ministry of the word in that field, winning the esteem and love of the people and of his co-Presbyters. For nearly half a century he served the Presbyterian Church, preaching a pure evangel and adorning the doctrine by a busy and consecrated life. From his ready pen came historical sketches of Presbyterianism contributed to the British and Canadian press. He was a man of wide reading and true culture and used his many gifts always in the interests of the kingdom of God and of the Church he so devotedly loved and served. Many precious memories of him will remain within the bounds of this Presbytery. He has well earned the Master's "Well done" and we can say of him, "He being dead yet speaketh."

This resolution was adopted unanimously as the finding of the Court and the Clerk was asked to have it embodied in the minutes of Presbytery.

The Presbytery then adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator and Clerk, of which public intimation was given and the meeting was closed with the benediction by the Moderator, Rev. W. O. Rhoad.
