SHE RULED THE NURSERY.

One Place Where the Kaiser Was Subordinate.
An amusing little story is told in a contemporary which shows that the German Emperor is not all powerful in his own emporium. However anxious he may be in dealing with the German army or the German parliament, he is compelled to bend before the will of his wife in domestic matters. Mr. Bigelow, the gentleman who tells the story, knows the Emperor very well, and presents to him, a short time ago, a little amusing cause of American indignity. The Emperor was delighted with it, and made Mr. Bigelow sail it up and down in front of the palace gardens at Potsdam. "All my boys," said he, "shall be canoeists," a remark which greatly pleased Mr. Bigelow. The Emperor failed to appreciate the opinion of the Emperor's had yet to be learnt. She spoke to Mr. Bigelow about the canoe, and he expatiated upon the delights of shooting down a swift stream between threatening cliffs and through foaming rapids. The Emperor smiled and said, "That is too dangerous, I shall never allow my children in a canoe." "But," said Mr. Bigelow, "the Emperor has already replied his consent." "That may be," replied the Emperor, sending a smile in her husband's direction. "He may be the Emperor of Germany, but I am the Emperor of the nursery."

An Unfortunate Poetist.

A woman named Salinda Todd was one of the additions I made last summer to my list of acquaintances who have a distinct commercial value to me. I am indebted to Salinda for a great many incidents and bits of real life that have appeared or will appear in The Free Press.

She was an original and unique character who lived on a small farm next to the one on which my wife and I spent several weeks. She came over nearly every day to "set a spell" on the piazza of our farm house and to give us the benefit of her opinions and impressions regarding matters and things in general.

One day when she appeared I asked: "What is Mr. Todd doing to-day, saying?" "Oh, he's in bed," she replied, "he ought to be, but he ain't. He's in bed."

"Why is he sick?" "Wal, you see, he's sick exactly, but he's cannible more comfortable in bed than he'd be any place else with his duds on."

A sly chuckle gave proof of something funny as the cause of the active and vigorous Mr. Todd's being in bed and in bed.

"What is the matter with Mr. Todd?" "Wal, you see, he's sick exactly, but he's cannible more comfortable in bed than he'd be any place else with his duds on."

"Oh, yes," "Todd would be madder'n a hen on a hot griddle if he knowed I'd told."

"He'll never hear of it from us." "Wal, I'll tell of it from us."

"Wal, I'll tell of it from us." "Wal, I'll tell of it from us."

"Wal, I'll tell of it from us." "Wal, I'll tell of it from us."

"Wal, I'll tell of it from us." "Wal, I'll tell of it from us."

Wedding Rings

"WELL, SAM, since the engagement ring wears so well these long eight years you bought from G. G. JURY, I accept your proposal if you promise to buy the Wedding Ring from him also. My friend Nell was married a few days ago, and you should see the beautiful ring she has, and so, do, please. She says Mr. G. G. JURY has a few assortments from 14k to 18k, and he buys them from the largest establishment in Canada, and they will last a lifetime, and you know one wedding ring must do these hard times."

"Agreed, I will go and buy the ring from G. G. JURY, Watchmaker and Jeweler, Charlottetown."

Quality, Not Price

Is the true test of cheapness. Some custom made clothing is not cheap at any price.
A SUIT that don't fit is not cheap at $5.00, even if it cost $20.00

OUR MAKE is all first class. We have no way of making cheap clothing, and put as good work on $15.00 suits as on our $25.00. We keep no cheap workmen for cheap suits. No Apprentices in our workshop; only keep the best

ENGLISH GOODS, imported direct. See our overcoatings, see our suitings.

ALL OUR Canadian Tweeds are bought from the manufacturers. Not one yard in our store bought from a wholesale house.

OUR $16.00 Tweed Suit, made to order, beats anything on P. E. I. IF YOU DOUBT our ability to turn out the best suits and overcoats on P. E. I., just give us a trial; we won't ask you to take a garment from us if it is not as above stated.

You will find our prices right if you take quality into consideration.

Once a Year
ONLY JUST OUT
The Dodd's Kidney Pill Calendar for the Year 1897.

Supported the World
On His Heroic Shoulders—Atlas Must Have Healthy Kidneys.

As the first to be laid on our table for the year 1897, we welcome the reappearance of the Dodd's Kidney Pill calendar, published by The Dodd's Medicine Company, Limited, Toronto.

Representing, beyond anything of its class hitherto published in America, though its purpose is at once obvious it has been made exceedingly pleasing by the fortunate choice of a design for the cover, which has been charmingly worked out by the artist in red and blue lithograph, the classic subject being—Atlas supporting the world.

It seems that these clever and persistent advertisers, not content with decorating the grassy hillsides and rugged mountain sides with their mammoth letterings, seek also adroitly to seize upon the imagination and assist it to account for the superhuman strength of the heroic Atlas, suggesting the secret of his power by representing him as being himself supported and relieved upon a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

On the back of cover, in few plain words, those previously convinced of the true need of kidney treatment are warned against substitutes, imitations and counterfeits of the genuine DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS, and are invited to look into his quick action to relieve distress.

Gloom

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to a feeling of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read this letter:—"Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." Mrs. J. E. SMITH, Beloit, Iowa.
