BARGES AND SCHOONERS SUNK AND STRANDED.

Telegraph and Telephone Poles Knocked Down—High Tides.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

HALIFAX, Nov. 23.—The storm yesterday did considerable damage on the shore—blowing down the telegraph and telephone posts, etc.

A number of steamers due at this port failed to arrive.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—A record-breaking November blizzard swept over the greater portion of New England, completely demolishing traffic of every description, and well nigh paralyzing telegraphic and telephone communication.

The north-east gale coming on a high course of tides drove the sea far beyond its usual limits and made a mark along shore only exceeded by the memorable hurricane of 1851.

During the gale, thirty barges and schooners, lying in Boston harbor, were wrecked and sunk and at least twelve lives were lost.

A Wilson liner, of Ohio, is ashore at Spectacle island.

Only the barest reports are received.

No More Paper Money.

VALPARAISO, Chili, Nov. 26.—In the chamber of deputies today the minister of finance declared, in the name of the president, that there would not be another dollar of paper money issued.

The Seal Fishery.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 26.—There is general uneasiness here at the prospect of the settlement of the Behring Sea question. The owners of schooners are pleased because the sale will bring them good profits, but seal hunters and sailors are protesting strongly.

Cuban Cabinet Resigns.

HAVANA, Nov. 26.—The members of the Colonial Cabinet have tendered their resignations to General Blanco, who accepted them, but requested the secretaries to continue the exercise of their functions until his successor should have taken possession.

ROYAL ROMANCE.

The Young Queen of Holland to Wed.

THE HAGUE, November 26.—The betrothal of the young Queen Wilhelmina who ascended the Dutch throne in September last to Prince William, of Wied, a lieutenant in the Prussian Imperial guards will shortly be announced. When Queen Wilhelmina was the Princess, she had for a companion the Princess Pauline, of Wartsburga, and the two used to plan to marry brothers. Princess Pauline married a brother of Prince William, of Wied, which resulted in Wilhelmina meeting Prince William and an attachment followed. Before the bans of this royal marriage are published, the Dutch government must decide whether Prince William, of Wied will become King of Holland or merely Prince Consort.

West Indian Relief.

OTTAWA, Nov 26.—When the government agreed to grant $25,000 for the relief of sufferers by the West Indian hurricane, it was proposed to hand the money over to a committee, headed by the Lord Mayor of London, for distribution, and no conditions were attached as to its division. The government, however, will not avail itself of the services of the London committee, but will pay the money directly to the governors of Barbados and the Windward Islands to expedite its distribution among the sufferers, whose needs are urgent. It has been decided that $10,000 shall go to Barbados and $15,000 to the Windward Islands.

Santiago Situation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Gen. Wood commanding the department of Santiago, has sent an official report to the war department, of which the following is an abstract.

"I have sent rations all along the coast and back trains into the interior, using every effort to scatter the rations about in such a manner as to enable the people desiring to return to their farms in the interior to do so with a reasonable assurance that they can obtain food while waiting the development of their first crop. Santiago today is as clean and healthy as any town of its size along the American sea coast south to Fortress Monroe. Excellent order prevails; there has not been a murder in the city since our occupation.

Kno-Towed To The Empress.

THE FRENCH SHORE QUESTION

Another Matter For England and France

THAT WILL PROBABLY CAUSE A LOT OF DISCUSSION.

The Present State of Affairs in Newfoundland Cannot Continue.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Henry Norman cabling to the Times from London says: I learn that the report of the Newfoundland commission, which is now due, will contain startling news of French breaches of the treaty of Utrecht in regard to the French shore there, and they imply, if they do not actually say that it is impossible for the present state of affairs to continue without provoking dangerous complications.

AN UNPUBLISHED STORY

Harold Frederic's Latest and Most Powerful Novel.

Some weeks before his death, Mr Harold Frederic finished the book on which he had been at work for months. This last novel of this brilliant writer far eclipses in power any of his earlier stories. Written when his genius had fully matured, he put the best of himself into "The Market Place," and it is destined to be the book of the year. For portrayal and analysis of character, for vigor of style, and for the brilliance and faithfulness of its pictures, it is a novel among novels.

The story has to do with the fortunes of a daring speculator, and incidentally, with corruption among the high directors of English companies. Though written before the Hooley disclosures, it seems almost a prophecy of this celebrated case. Mr. Frederic's pictures of English society and English country life are the most convincing that have yet been given by a novelist. "The Market Place" has been secured by the Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia, and will appear serially in that weekly, beginning an early issue.

Loving Cup Proprieties.

I have not seen any loving cup passed that is true to its name. The loving cup originated as a matter of precaution in olden times, when apparent friends had an unpleasant method of killing a friend who was a rival while he was drinking. So an immense heavy cup was made with a heavy cover. The method of using it can still be witnessed at banquets at the Mansion House in London.

The person receiving it stands and turns to his neighbor, who also rises and takes the cover with both hands. The first person then raises the heavy cup to his lips with both hands, and, having sipped of the contents, holds it while the friend at his side replaces the cover and takes the cup, repeating the same process in turn with his next neighbor. Thus, both hands being occupied, there is no possibility of one friend stabbing another.

In our time the custom has degenerated, and the cover, as a rule, disappeared. Nevertheless if both hands were occupied that would not prevent tongues from wagging later, and words are sometimes sharper than swords.—Philadelphia Times.

THE OPEN DOOR.

Mr. Dingley's Views About the Matter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Chairman Dingley, of the ways and means committee, in an interview with a Star reporter today explained the term "open door" policy as applied to the future commerce of the Philippines in case they should be acquired by the United States.

"The phrase 'open door' policy, which is now being talked about so much in the newspapers," said Mr. Dingley, "means simply equality of treatment and not free trade. As applied to the Philippines it would mean that imports from Great Britain and all other foreign countries are to be admitted at the same rates of duty as imports from the United States.

"Of course the policy could not be applied to the Philippines if they should be admitted into the union with a territorial form of government, unless there should be an amendment to the constitution permitting this. It is noticeable, however, that in the resolution providing for the annexation of Hawaii, passed at the last session of congress, it was provided that the Hawaiian tariffs should continue in force until congress should otherwise determine.

"It is to be borne in mind that the present talk about an open door policy for the Philippines is intended to apply entirely to those islands while under a military administration.

"Of course it would be competent for the Paris commissioners to incorporate in the treaty with Spain a provision granting to Spanish imports into the Philippines equality of treatment with imports from the United States for a term of years, and that provision in the treaty, when ratified by the senate and projected into law by congress, would be the law of the land.

"In the discussion of the open door policy I notice that many papers assume that it is uniform policy of Great Britain in her relations with her colonies. It should be borne in mind, however, that there is a conspicuous exception to this case in the case of Canada, her most important colony, which admits imports from Great Britain at 25 per cent less duty than they are admitted from the United States and other countries. It is understood that this policy was adopted by Canada, if not on the suggestion, at least with the approval of Mr Chamberlain, British secretary for the colonies, and that he is urging other colonies of Great Britain to give a similar preference to that country.

A Great Book Free!

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now giving away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at above address, 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medicine library, complete in one volume. Contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.

Our regular handkerchief sale takes place on Saturday, December 3rd. Watch for particulars.—Moore & McLeod.
