

Queen Square Evens School Playoff Series

Goals In First And Third Periods Pave Way For 4-1 Victory

Slamming home two counters in the first period and scoring another brace in the final session after yielding the only goal of the middle frame to their opponents, Queen Square School hockeyists last night evened the City school playoffs at a game apiece when they defeated West Kent 4-1 in a fast, wide open struggle witnessed by some 400 fans.

With their backs to the wall as a result of West Kent's win in the opening game, the winners started right out on a five man offensive and in the space of 49 seconds had shot into a 1-0 lead as McKenzie hammered the disc into the net on a smart bit of passing with Hennessey and Burke.

Set back momentarily West Kent came hurtling back to test the Q.S.S. goalie but it was no go; penalties to City Square twice during the period gave the losers a man power advantage but again the Q.S.S. goalie held the fort. Time for the period was turning out when the winners shot goal number two, McDonald slapping the rubber home as Gillis passed right across the goalmouth to him.

Sparkling saves by the rival goalie featured the opening two minutes of the middle session as the teams went at it hammer and tongs; again it was a see-saw battle right up to the thirteen minute mark with both squads missing chances galore in the even battling but West Kent finally beat the Q.S.S. goalie as Bill Bevins skated into the clear and went right in to draw the netminder and deposit the rubber into the empty cage.

For over ten minutes of the final session both goalies came through with sensational saves as first one and then the other team would break right in on top of them. Burke in the winners nets had just robbed a West Kent player of a goal when Queen Square struck for their third counter Hennessey picking up Burke's pass inside the defending zone and blazing an angle drive from the left boards behind Howatt. Less than three minutes later the winners were back for the clincher as McCullum fed McDonald a pass at the edge of the crease with the latter deflecting the puck into the open corner of the cage.

Lineups:
Queen Square—Goal, Burke; defence, Ready, Martin, Bruce; forwards, McKenzie, Hennessey, Burke, McCullum, McDonald, Gillis, Leonard.
West Kent—Goal, Howatt; defence, H. Howatt, Hine, McNeill; forwards, Bevins, Glover, Brown, Carver, Dalziel, Jardine, McNeill, McInnis.
Referees: Drillon and Dowling.

S'ide Muskrats Win Exhibition

The Summerside C. N. R. Muskrats last night defeated the Lower Bedouque Minks 9-7 in an exhibition hockey game at Bedouque rink.

One unusual feature was a double father and son team on the Muskrats' lineup. Herb Schurman and Carl Delaney on the Summerside defence, had their sons, Layton Schurman and Mark Delaney on the forward lines.

John Myers was referee.

Saints And Legion Open City League Finals Here Tonight

First act in the play for the City Hockey League title and Dr. F.C. Dougan Trophy will be staged at the Forum tonight when Saint Dunstan's squad, fresh from a victory over the Navy clash with the regie winning Legion team. The series is to be decided on a best three out of five basis and a good majority of the fans are of the opinion that it will take five games before a winner is decided.

Likely to enter the game as night favorites, the Drilled-ice Legion squad, due to their conquest of the Saints in a League playoff and the form they displayed during the latter stages of the League schedule will be facing a team of pucksters who are right at the top of their form and who will take a lot of beating.

Both teams have speed galore in very combination they send out; the defences will hit and hit hard at every opportunity. While the Saints are capable of turning in constant performances when the season arrives. So that is the setup. The game may turn into a close-checking, low scoring affair, and this is the fans opinion, the games are likely to be played at a fast wide-open clip all the way.

The game will get underway at 8:30 sharp with Johnny Squarebriggs and Leith Jay likely performing the whistle-blowing duties.

Legion Lineup For Tonight's Encounter

Following is the lineup of the Legion team for tonight's game against Saint Dunstan's:
Goal, Oudmore.
Defence: McDonald, Pound, Carmichael.
Forwards: Carver, Shepherd, Dowling, Perry, Strain, Drillon, Richard.

Leafs Defeat Canadiens 5-4

TORONTO, March 19—(CP)—Led by veteran Syl Apps with two goals, Toronto Maple Leafs edged out a 5-4 victory over Montreal Canadiens tonight in a National Hockey League game played before 13,614 fans. The win narrowed the gap between the league leading Canadiens and the second-place Leafs to eight points.

Summary
1—Toronto, Apps (Ezinicki, Morrison) 8:36.
2—Montreal, Chamberlain (Peters, Mosdell) 8:40.
3—Toronto, Meeker (Kennedy, Barliko) 9:37.
Penalties—Thomson 2, Mosdell, Polle, Richard, Meeker.
4—Toronto, Kennedy (Polle, Barliko) 6:33.

IN THE CORNER
Keen rivals all season long and very evenly matched in strength, Saints and Legion open the City Hockey League best out of five finals at the Forum tonight and fans should witness a red-hot series and a series that is very likely to go the limit before the winners of the Dr. F. C. Dougan trophy are decided.

Fans are more than mildly hot-up over the series. Legion led by Gordie Drillon convinced all and sundry that they are of championship material when they defeated the Saints rather handily in the playoff for first place a couple of weeks back but since that time Saints have won the Maritime intercollegiate title and went on to eliminate Navy Tuesday night and gain a crack at another title for their trophy room.

And don't think for a moment that the Kane coached crew haven't got their sights trained on the Dougan Trophy. Winning of the Intercollegiate crown has only whetted their hockey appetites and in addition they are anxious to even up the score against the Legion for the defeat in the latter stage planned on them in ousting them from first place in the league standing.

Now that the Saints have made the grade into the finals—and that was by only the narrowest of margins—congratulations are due Walter Lawlor's squad for the stirring battle they put up before being forced to the sidelines.

More or less knocked off easily by the Saints and Legion during the regular season's schedule, Navy started to show their real worth when they eliminated the Welshmen and still displaying plenty of power they forced the Saints to the full limit Tuesday night before bowing out after over 70 minutes of hockey after previously battling the University team to a 6-all draw in the curtain raiser of the semi-finals.

In fact the Navy team was less than five minutes away from creating what would have amounted to a major upset when Saints struck for the tying goals and then punched home the winning tally in 13 seconds of the second overtime on the strength of mercury-footed Joe Mahar's dash through the Navy ranks.

Then and only then, after Navy had come back from an early three-goal deficit did S. D. U. fans draw an easy breath. The reason was apparent. The "Tars" led by Higson, Bradley and Jackson were not only staying in striking distance but at times were outplaying the favored S. D. U. color-bearers and had they cashed in on their chances around the Saints' net a different ending would have been written to the story of the semi-finals.

But once again as they have done so many times in the past Saints proved they are most dangerous when the "chips" were down. Followers of the team who still envisioned a victory after Navy had shot two quick goals in the first overtime were few and far between and they were certainly lifted right up by their

St. Mary's Defeated 7-5 As Canadiens Take Second Game

By DAVE MCINTOSH
HALIFAX, March 19—(CP)—A third-period rally cut to ribbons by three costly penalties, Halifax St. Mary's filtered before Montreal Junior Canadiens 7-5 tonight to lapse two games behind in their best-of-five Memorial Cup series. Montreal won the first game here Monday 5-4 in overtime and the third game will be played in Montreal Friday.

Outclashed by a sharper band of hockey players for two periods and behind 7-2 at the start of the third, St. Mary's cut loose with a sudden, vicious attack that netted three goals in 12 minutes. But the onslaught evaporated just as suddenly when Bob Reardon, Hal Conrad and Bingo Ernst drew successive banishments for elbowing and tripping Canadiens were again in full control by the end of the game, watched by 6,674 fans.

In the first two laps St. Mary's had to get by a couple of tough lines—Morenz-Trudel-Friday and Newton-Laplante-Denny—before they could get near the defence. That was bad enough but when they ran into Joe Lepine and Ernie Roche at the blue-line it was too much. Lepine, one of the best juniors ever to show on Halifax ice, rolled up

Four Hockey Games At S'side Last Night

Four closely contested games were played by bantam, Pee-Wee and paperweight teams at the Crystal Rink last night, three of the matches being won by a 1-0 count and the other by a score of 2 to 1.

The Bantam Bombers, coached by Neil MacLeod, took the decision 1-0 from their rivals, the Royals, coached by Alan Lecky. There was very little to choose between these teams, but Donald Darby, fleet forward of the victors, skated in from the blue line with a clear path to the cage and banged the wafer past Fitzgerald shortly after the start of the second period and final 10 minute period of play.

McLeod's Bombers will, by virtue of their victory, play off with the King Square Bantams of Charlottetown for the Island title.

In the Pee-Wee division Alan Stewart's Cookies were forced to win two games to cop the local title. In the first encounter they defeated the Maroons coached by Lovell Hues 3-0. Ronnie MacArthur, the team captain, got the only score on a break away from a scramble in the centre ice. In the second game the Cookies triumphed over Gordie MacKay's Maroons, by the score of 2-0, MacArthur bagging the first from a short forward pass by Kenneth Perry, and Leroy Clow, the smallest Pee-Wee of them all, scoring the second, taking a pass from MacArthur. The Maroon team kept up a sustained attack in the final session, hemming the Cookies in behind their blue line, but failed to dent the meshes behind Lefurgy, Lloyd Palmer was particularly aggressive for the losers during this siege.

Vince Harris, defenceman of D. R. Morrison's Flyers, winners in the paperweight division, shot the only goal of the ten year olds, carrying in from the blue line in the first period to save the draperies on a rising shot in the second session the Flyers swarmed all over Robert Murphy's Do-Dads but the work of Claude Gaudet in the Do-Dad's cage held them to their single tally.

All games were refereed by Kinsman Harry Dickie, and Kinsman Cleve Whalen was master of ceremonies.—S.

Kensington Ice Sports Prove Huge Success

On Friday, March 14 the annual Kensington High School sports went off with a bang in spite of the very inclement weather and considering the condition of the ice.

Approximately four hundred kiddies and parents attended the function thus making a very enjoyable and interesting evening.

The program started at seven o'clock sharp with a hockey match between Norman MacDonald's Summerside Bantams and the Kensington Bantams. The game was spectacular throughout and resulted in a 4-4 tie with everybody happy. Fred Sample refereed to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Following the game a pair of clowns appeared, one on ice skates and the other on roller skates, in the persons of Mr. Blair Heeschen and Mr. Elwood Dunning, suitably attired for the occasion.

They immediately began to unload their old bag of tricks to the unlimited levity of the school kiddies and spectators. They performed throughout most of the evening until they retired to their dressing room to reappear with a real treat for the spectators—a presentation of local ice follies.

With the rink completely blacked out they executed their fancy skating numbers with great dexterity to the accompaniment of the rink-a-phone.

They appeared in red skating suits and each member had eight flashlight bulbs powered by concealed batteries, wired about their person, which made a striking contrast on the red uniforms in the blacked-out rink. Each intricate number drew rounds of applause and the thanks of the ice sports committee is here extended to these gentlemen who gave freely of their time and talents in helping to make the evening a success.

The rink was donated to the school for the evening, free of heels when the winners blazed home the tying counters and then struck like lightning for the winner just as the fans were content to settle down to close-checking, sudden death play.

Making their last start of the season Prince of Wales Welshmen leave for Wolfville, N. S., today and tomorrow night tackle Fred Kelly's Acadia Axemen in an exhibition encounter that will also probably mark the Nova Scotia University team's last appearance this season.

There is a lot of keen rivalry between Acadia and Prince of Wales and interest among the local student body is at a high pitch over the outcome of the game, a game that Welshmen will try and enter on the credit side of their hockey ledger.

Penalties were costly for Canadiens, too. Halifax scored four of their five goals when Montreal was short-handed—three of them when Lepine was off. In fact, each time the big defenceman took a penalty—he had three—it was a signal for St. Mary's to score.

Navy Clinch First Place In Hoop League

The Navy basketball team swept into first place last night by overpowering their rivals from St. Dunstan's by a score of 33-24. The Tars played a slow breaking game and in the first half had the Saints at their mercy on good passing plays, winding up the half with a 30-11 lead. In the second half, the game lightened up a bit as Saint Dunstan's started a rally on fast breaks, but the Navy stemmed the tide and scoring in the half was even, 23-23.

Smith, with 20 points, led the Navy sharpshooters while Bradley, with 14, was tops for the losers.

Second Game
Prince of Wales came from behind in the last half of their game to down the last place Army squad 67-51. This game was by far Army's best showing of the year and with Clarke and MacLean shooting accurately had P.W.C. baffled with a 33-29 lead at half time. In the second count the Army attack became spasmodic and with MacLean running wild, P.W.C. overtook the lead, finishing by outscoring the Navy 38-18. MacLean was high man for the winning Obbligians, netting 33 points while MacLean, playing his best game ever, shot 19 points from all angles to lead the Army cause. Clarke, with 16 helped out the losers.

Referee for both games was Earl Goss.
