Council Closing To Be Observed

St. Dunstan's Basilica will observe the closing of the Vatican Council with a special Solemn High Mass of thanksgiving Wednesday night at 10 o'clock.

The Council has chosen this date, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, one of the holy days of obligation in the Roman Catholic Church. All churches in the diocese of Charlottetown are observing three special days of prayer, concluding on the feast day of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The public is invited to this special Mass Wednesday night at which the rector of the Basilica, Rt. Rev. William O. Simpson, will be celebrant. His deacon and sub-deacon respectively will be Rev. Clarence Roche and Rev. Faber MacDonald. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Gerald Steele, pastor at Alberton. Rev. E.J. Roche, St. Dunstan's University, will do the commentary during the radio broadcast over radio station OCFY.

The St. Dunstan's Basilica mixed choir will be in attendance.

Glaucoma Clinic Finds 16 Cases

SOURIS — The Souris Lions Club in line with their policy of prevention of blindness and help to the blind and as one of their projects, sponsored a Glaucoma Clinic at Souris Regional High School, Sunday. This was the first of its kind ever held in Souris.

At the clinic nearly 400 persons were tested and of these 16 people showed positive signs, another 27 were borderline cases. The people who have to have treatment will be notified by the Souris Lions Club within several days.

All the doctors, nurses and others who took part gave their services free. Doctors who took part were Dr. G. G. Houston who was the director, Dr. Frank Burke, Dr. Roy Grant, all of Charlottetown; Dr. George Inman, Montague and Dr. Edward Kassner, Souris.

Nurses who took part were, Mrs. David Townsend, Mrs. William Townsend, Mrs. Melvin MacPhee, Mrs. Camilla Paquet, Mrs. James R. MacDonald, Florence MacPhee, Mrs. Edward Kassner and Mrs. Melvin J. McQuaid.

Typists were: Helen Sheehan, Gertrude MacDonald and Betsy McCormack.

Women who assisted were: Mrs. Albert Mallard, Mrs. Wm. Rowan, Mrs. Emily Fudge, Mrs. June Larter, Mrs. J. Arthur Peters, Mrs. Eunice Smallwood, Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Mrs. Elmer Doucette, Mrs. Roy Coffin, Mrs. Daniel MacDonald and Mrs. Wolfgang Marold.

The central committee for Glaucoma of the Island Lions consists of Lions Joe Malloy, Al Gillis, Art McKinnon and Souris representative Wolfgang Marold.

The turn out was described by local Lions as being very good; however, with the staff they had more could have been tested.

Rotary Votes $1,000 Each To Bureaus

The Charlottetown Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon meeting yesterday voted $1,000 each to the Catholic Welfare Bureau and the Protestant Welfare Bureau.

Funds were voted also to provide a Christmas party for children in the Provincial Sanatorium and the Rehabilitation Centre.

Arrangements were made for the Rotary radio auction tonight, with committees being named. Among them was one to provide personnel at the YMCA where articles purchased can be picked up. Committee members will man the distribution centre daytime and evenings Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and on Saturday morning.

Two Rotarian members were speakers, Dr. Gerald D. Barrett, who discussed various aspects of the dental profession and Lloyd MacLeod, manager of Canada Packers, who gave interesting figures on the meat packing industry.

Two new Rotarians were welcomed to club membership, Capt. Raymond Nelson of the Salvation Army and Edgar Wright of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

HALEFAX (CP) — The weather office says a disturbance passing just south of the district was giving a mixture of light snow and intermittent rain to Nova Scotia late Monday. Over New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island it was cloudy.

This disturbance is expected to intensify into a storm as it moves away from the Maritimes and into Newfoundland this morning. As a result most regions are expected to be in a strong northwesterly flow of cold air today. Skies will be mostly cloudy and a few snowflurries are expected in all of the Maritimes.

Present indications show that Wednesday will be mostly cloudy and cold in all three provinces. Northern Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Eastern New Brunswick Counties, Lower St. John River Valley: Cloudy with a few snowflurries. Not much change in temperature. Winds northwesterly 20. Low-high at New Glasgow 30 and 35, Charlottetown 27 and 35, Moncton 25 and 33, Fredericton and Saint John 23 and 33. Outlook for Wednesday: Cloudy. Cold.

High tide today at Charlottetown 9.56 a.m. and 9.16 p.m. At Rustico at 4.27 p.m. Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown. Sun rises today at 7.21 a.m. and sets at 4.48 p.m.
