The grocery store of Ernest C. Chappell now presents a very attractive appearance having been painted inside and out. It is now one of the brightest and cleanest grocery stores in the city. A new light outside of the door adds greatly to the appearance of the store. Customers can be assured of getting, at all times, fresh, clean, groceries at prices as low as possible for goods of a quality at that popular store corner Queen and Kent Sts. Time and money can be saved by reading his ad which appears in this issue.

There assembled at the home of John and Mrs. Waye, Hunter River, on Tuesday last, quite a number of young people with the Trustees of the Methodist Church to show their estimable regards to their daughter L. Blanche who was leaving on the following morning for Regina, Alta. After a very pleasant evening had been spent and supper served all were invited to the parlor and Miss Waye was presented with a well filled purse and the following address: "Having learned that you are about to leave us to go to the Great West, the brothers and sisters of this Church beg leave in a few words to express their loss at your departure and to present you with this purse in appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered as organist, choir leader and Sabbath School teacher. During the time you have been in the music profession you have proven yourself master of the art. And as teacher in the Sabbath School you have performed your part faithfully and we trust that wherever you go, you may be able to assist in the great work of teaching others the way of Salvation. And now we must bid adieu. The kindest wishes of those you leave go with you. May your journey be safe and pleasant may God's richest blessing rest upon you, and should we all not be spared to meet again may we meet in the Blessed Home above. Signed in behalf of Hunter River Methodist Church.

Two startling millinery bargains for Friday and Saturday

No 1. 25 handsome new spring designs in wide variety of shapes and colorings trimmed by the skilled artists of our own work-rooms, black hats, light hats, dark hats, large hats and not so large, worth to $6.50 for $3.00

No 2. About 30 very pretty hats, of newest design and prettiest shape. Tasteful, handsome, stylish, carefully trimmed with best materials, worth to $4.00 each for $2.50

Women of 34 and 36 inch bust measure can choose from Shirtwaists suits worth to 6.95 for $1.50

This is a special chance open to about 2 dozen small and medium sized ladies—although the lot does include one or two 38, various styles made up of fine corded percales ducks or pure linens. Some in plain colors, but the majority are white with blue or black spot. A few champagne and some blue. Not the very newest styles, but at the price they're ideal for house dresses and summer outings. $1.50

Lustre Shirtwaist Suits Worth to $7.85 Friday and Saturday $2.50

About a dozen offered in this lot, sizes 34, 36 and 38, good quality lustre, cream, navy and grey. Skirts are mostly pleated, waists are finished with narrow pleats and matched buttons. Regular 6.00 to 7.85 for $2.50

Ecru Net waists--worth 4.00--3.35

This is certainly one of the smartest styles we have ever offered you. It is made of fine net over, ecru wash silk. The square yoke is outlined by handsome guipure banding carried to the base of front. A waist of regular all the year round 4.00 value, Friday and Saturday only $3.35

Ginghams and cotton delaines Worth to 12c yd--Special at 7c

How pleasant feels a soft Straw Hat

Of the plain straw hat family the soft straws are the coolest, lightest in weight and most comfortable to the head.

They fit tightly enough not to blow off and yet do not bind

Their crevices are not filled with glue--the air gets a chance to circulate. We carry a most complete line--we believe the best in the city.

Prices 25c up.

Some men prefer the Panama

Here they find opportunity extraordinary $6.00, 7.00, 8.00, and $10.
