

SALUTE LORD SELKIRK

A 17-gun salute was fired and a Guard of Honour was formed in honour of the visit of the Earl of Selkirk, First Lord of the Admiralty, to the Pacific Command of the Royal Canadian Navy on September 26. Here the First Lord is seen chatting with Petty Officer Donald Trim of Galt, Ontario and Victoria, B.C., a drummer in the band of HMCS Naden. During his three-day visit to the Victoria-Esquimaut area, the First Lord toured facilities of the Command and other naval establishments in the area.

FINE SPECIMEN

This picture was taken at Little Sands by Mrs. Alexander Blue. It is a mackerel net, found along the shore one morning. It was past tide mark, apparently unable to stand the ocean longer. While Mr. W. H. Spencer, Oberlin, Ohio, and his niece, Lila Blue, were taking an early walk along the shore they came across this beautiful specimen and brought it home where it lived for about four hours.
