You Can Pin Your Faith

To any representation we make. The Watches we sell are the best money can buy. And the plain truth is strong enough to sell them. In these days of sham and misrepresentation, take time to think before buying a watch. We have some exceptionally good movements in plain nickel and silver cases. They make good, sensible, everyday watches. If a single one proves less true-worth than we promise we'll take it back willingly.

HIS ILLNESS EXPLAINED—A young lad named Alward, who lives with relatives at Nauwigwaak, has been ailing all winter and the cause of his complaint was a mystery. Several doctors were called in but gave him no relief. Last week he vomited up the cause of his misery, a lizard three inches long, and is now in a fair way to recover.—Moncton Transcript.

A DOLEFUL TALE—Warren Lee, who left Malone, N. Y., in February, has returned home, thankful to be alive. Lee says he saw several men drop beside their sleds and die from sheer exhaustion. A companion of Mr. Lee was trudging along with his sled upon the frozen Stikeen river when suddenly he went down into the rushing current below, only the pack remaining beside the hole in the ice. Lee says dead dogs lie in rows beside the trail. Lee reached Telegraph Creek, where he met so many discouraged miners returning that he thought it was useless to go further.

OLD CHOCOLATE AGAIN—It is announced that George Godfrey, of Boston, formerly of Charlottetown, will re-enter the ring against any of the present heavyweight aspirants for the title. In a letter to the Police Gazette he recalls his memorable battles with Peter Jackson, and Jake Kilrain, sixty-one and for four rounds respectively, and says he is no farther from the present generation of fighters. Godfrey is over forty years old, but he has never disappointed, he always taken good physical care of himself, and believes he is yet capable of beating such men as Mahar, Cheynski, Sharkey and Jeffries.

Samantha at Saratoga, in a New Dress

One of the funniest of all the funny books is certainly "Samantha at Saratoga." Will Carleton pronounces it "delicious humor" and Bishop Newman says it is "bitterest satire, coated with the sweetest of exhilarating fun." Formerly published by subscription at the price of $2.50, and sold, it is said, by the hundred thousand, it has recently been issued in an exquisite little bound volume in the "Cambridge Classics" series by the celebrated cheap-book publishers, Harst & Co., of New York, as a means of widely advertising that series, and is sold at the fabulously low price of 25 cents. It would seem strange if they should not sell a million of them. They are sold by booksellers, or the publishers direct.

They Want Peace.

MADRID, July 2.—The Chamber of Agriculture of Barcelona, has again petitioned the government in favor of peace and the central committee of the Socialist party has issued a circular, pointing out the folly of continuing the war in view of the disproportion of the arms of the combatants and setting forth that the working people desire peace.

Sure, Safe Easy to Use.

Diamond Dyes are the popular dyes in every home of the civilized world. They are sure and reliable under all circumstances, giving the choicest, most brilliant and most lasting colors.

Diamond Dyes are the safest to use in the home; no poisonous ingredients to irritate the hands are ever used in the composition of these famed dyes. Common package dyes are largely composed of dangerous materials.

Diamond Dyes are so easy to use that a child can dye as successfully as a grown person. Beware of common and crude dyes sold for the sake of large profits. Insist upon having the Diamond Dyes and you will have happy results.

An English Dozen.

I was in a well known lampshop with a friend the other day. He was seeking some of those stubby candles of generous diameter which are used as night lights in sickrooms. The price was 50 cents a box. "A dozen in a box?" he asked. "No, 11." "But why not a dozen?" "Box isn't big enough," said the shopkeeper. "But why don't they make the box big enough?" asked my friend. "Because they're English." That was all.—Time and the Hour.

A Detective Agency.

Sweet Girl—Pa, the house next door was robbed last night.

Pa—Mercy! Next door!

Sweet Girl—Yes, and the burglars have been in two or three houses on this terrace within a week.

Pa—I know it. I know it. It's terrible. But what can we do?

Sweet Girl—I was thinking it might be a good plan for Mr. Nicefellow and me to sit up a few nights and watch for them.—Pearson's Weekly.

Many of the convicts in French prisons are paid for their labor and earn about 1s. 5d. a day. Half of this they are allowed to spend for extra food, postage, etc., and the rest is saved, to be given to them on their discharge.

Every day 200,000 cigars are smoked in London.

For a Cyclist's "Kit."

All cyclists who are up-to-date will carry a small sized bottle of Abbey's Effervescent Salt in their "kit" this season. A teaspoonful of Abbey's Effervescent Salt in a tumbler of water makes a delicious and invigorating drink after a run. Sold by all druggists everywhere.

See the man in our offer at 10c per yard. Also prints at 6c, 8c and 10c.—W. D. Mackay.
