IBM was heavily traded, regaining 10 points at 350⅜.

OBITUARY

SIMON WILBERT SMITH

His many friends in Ten Mile House and surrounding districts were deeply shocked and saddened upon learning of the sudden death, the result of an accident in a lumber camp at Lee Lake, B.C., on May 29th, 1962, of Simon Wilbert, youngest member of the family of Mrs. and the late Patrick Smith of Ten Mile House, in his twenty-sixth year.

Of a sunny and jovial disposition, Wibby, as he was affectionately called, was a prime favourite among all his associates, and his everready smile assured him a warm welcome wherever he went.

He served for a short period first in the Canadian Navy, and later in the Canadian Army, receiving his honorable discharge, due to illness.

The news of his untimely death, coming with such shocking suddenness, filled the hearts of all who knew him with a feeling of the deepest sadness. Death is always sad, but when we see a young man, in the very prime of life, with the prospect of many happy and useful years ahead of him, so suddenly cut off, the sadness seems so much more acute. It makes us realize, as nothing else can, the uncertainty of this life

Besides his sorrowing mother, there are left to mourn his loss six brothers: Alfred, residing in East Royalty, Harold, RCAF Station, St. Hubert, Que., John at Charlottetown, Thomas at Tracadie Cross and Millard and Leo at Ten Mile House.

Also three sisters: Anna, Mrs. R. D. MacKinnon, at Ottawa, Theresa, Mrs. Ivan T. Dalton, at Toronto, and Anita, Mrs L. Myers in California. His father predeceased him thirteen years ago.

To all his family is extended the sincere sympathy of a very wide circle of friends.

The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on June 5th to St. Bonaventure Church, Tracadie Cross, where requiem high mass was celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. K. MacMillan, who also conducted the services at the grave.

The pallbearers were: Alfred Mullen, Joseph McQuaid, Lawrence Corrigan, Leonard Fitzpatrick, Lawrence Dalton and William Fisher.

May his soul rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Patrick Smith and family wish to thank their Pastor, Rev. K. MacMillan, also Rev. Father Steele, The Hennessey Funeral Home, and all those who sent flowers, mass cards, cards of sympathy and Purgatorian cards and friends who helped in any way during their sad bereavement.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP) — Stocks made a strong comeback on the Montreal and Canadian exchanges Tuesday afternoon after a morning of falling prices.

The pattern for many blue chips was a drop immediately after the opening, and then a gradual recovery to close at the day's high. Aluminum gained 1¼ to 21¼, Algoma Steel rose a point to 40½, Price rose a point to 39 and Dominion Foundries rose 1¼ to 53.

Bell Telephone rose sharply, gaining ⅞ to 49¼. The Bell rights rose six cents to 78 cents on a heavy volume of more than 150,000 shares.

The composite index of 94 stocks rose 0.5 to 95.4, industrials added 0.5 to 92.0, utilities were up 1.1 at 102.8, banks off 0.4 at 109.5 and papers off 0.5 at 90.1.

Some issues took heavy losses, however. Consolidated Paper fell 1¼ to 36½, Quebec Natural Gas lost 75 cents to $4.75, Quebec Natural Gas preferred fell two points to 56 and Canadian Husky fell ⅜ to 6⅞.
