GRAHAM'S ROAD W. I.

Mrs. James M. Campbell was hostess to the members of Success W. I. for the January meeting on Tuesday evening the 9th. The meeting opened with a selection from the song sheet followed by creed in unison. Nineteen members answered roll call with a New Year's thought.

The visiting committee reported two calls made and treats given. Several "thank you" cards were received from sick and shut-ins who had received treats. Mrs. Francis Murray reported on the Film Board project. Correspondence was read and discussed.

Among the correspondence was a letter from Mrs. Malcolm MacLeod, the Provincial president who was a delegate to the A. C. W. W. conference held in Copenhagen in September. In part she said "That we are linked together by the work of our organization. When people plan together, share ups and downs of a common project, then it is that friendship and understanding grow, and we build this bridge of understanding by personal contacts, conferences, letters and exchange visits to other lands. These help us to see other countries not as foreigners or aliens but as human beings."

A request from S.G. Peppin, Senior Inspector of Plant Pathology that Institute members report any black streaks found when cooking potatoes stating where potatoes were grown and how they were cooked.

Mrs. MacKinnon, health and welfare convenor, reminded members of public health week. Through ignorance and indifference many were not availing themselves of the Mobile X-ray free clinics and parents should be more mindful of immunization thus helping to stamp out children's diseases.

A letter was also read regarding civil defence plans and two representatives were appointed to attend a meeting when called. $5.00 was voted for Save the Children Fund and $5.00 to the Canadian March of Dimes. The entertainment committee - Mrs. Francis Murray and Mrs. Angus Green provided fun and laughter with two contests. Collection taken $4.55. Meeting closed with the National Anthem. Next month the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Campbell - roll call a Valentine verse. Several articles of Red Cross sewing and knittings were passed in to the convenor. Mrs. Earle Murray assisted in serving lunch.

Veteran Of Two Wars Shows Korean Souvenirs To School Kids

Holding Korean mirror, reputed to be 400 years old, its reverse side is of polished metal, is Cpl. Everett Butler of Woodville, Ont., back from Korea just four months after joining Canada's special force. He is shown with Fraser McIntyre, six, and Sharon Mayers, six, at Woodville school, where goggle-eyed kids saw souvenirs and heard tales of fighting in Korea. Wounds in Italian campaign of World War II did not stop Butler from rejoining. He hopes to be sent to Germany next.
