Saints Clobber Welshmen 97-61

Saint Dunstan's Junior Varsity cagers advanced to the City Basketball League finals Saturday night when they defeated PWC Welshmen 97-61 in the second game of a two-game total point semi-finals.

The Saints now meet Jack Ross's Pirates in the finals which get underway tonight at 7 o'clock at PWC gym. The semi series was awarded to the Pirates after their opponents, YMCA, failed to show up in the first game. This decision was made at a league executive meet Saturday.

Halftime score in Saturday's game was 40-15 in favor of the Saints. They continued to outscore the City students in the second half but the Welshmen put up a gallant try, especially when they found themselves with only 3 players in the dying minutes of the game.

Jim Hogan was the big gun for the Don Desroches-coached Saints. Hogan emerged with 26 points. Pat Smith and Mike Wong were runners-up with 19 points each while Phil Mullally racked up 17.

David Weale set the pace for the losers with 19 and Winston Smith followed right on his heels with 18.

Referees for the game were Scott Stewart and Donnie 'Funnel' MacLean.

Scores by the lineups:—

SDU:—P. Smith 19, M. Wong 19, J. Hogan 26, P. Mullally 17, J. Maddock 10, J. Chinery 6. Total—97.

PWC:—S. Ladner 8, Reynolds 10, Diamond, D. Weale 19, MacDougall 2, Gallant 4, Smith 18. Total—61.

Habs Set Scoring Mark In Downing Detroit 5-2

DETROIT (CP) — Montreal Canadiens honed their shooting eye for the Stanley Cup playoffs, Sunday night by routing fifth - place Detroit Red Wings, 5-2, and setting a National Hockey League scoring record in the process.

The five Canadien goals gave them 259 for the season which beat Montreal's old league record of 258 in 1958-59.

Billy Hicke led the assault with his 19th and 20th goals making him the seventh player on the talent-deep league champions to score 20 or more this season.

And the newest Canadien, Gordon (Red) Berenson, who wound up his college hockey at the University of Michigan less than two weeks ago, was the one to break the total goals record.

Berenson capped a snarp bit of digging at 6:47 of the final period by skating around from behind the net and then lacing a rising backhander past Detroit goalie Hank Bassen.

Berenson was playing his fourth game of an amateur tryout with Habs and had to decide by Tuesday whether he would turn professional for the Stanley Cup playoffs or finish out his school term to get his degree.

In addition to Hicke and Berenson, Claude Provost scored his 33rd goal and Bernie Geoffrion his 23rd for Canadiens who built a 3-0 lead in the second period before Detroit scored.

Norm Ullman registered his 26th late in the second period for Detroit and then Gordie Howe scored his 33rd after Montreal held a 5-1 edge in the final period.

Montreal, which won its fifth straight league title this season, finished up with 98 points, second best in the team's history and only 14 defeats, the least number of setbacks in 17 seasons.

SUMMARY

First period: No scoring. Penalties—Berenson 5:30, Kennedy 19:03.

PWC Wins Second Tilt; Lose Series

BATHURST, N.B. (CP) — Prince of Wales College of Charlottetown came within three goals of winning a berth into the Maritime Juvenile hockey finals Saturday night when they rocked Bathurst Papermakers 7-4, but drooped the two-game total-goal semi-final series 11-7. Bathurst won the opener 7-1 Friday.

The newly-crowned N.B.-P.E.I. champion Papermakers advanced to the Maritime finals. No date or length of the series have been announced.

The Island crew, paced by the fast-moving Hyndman-MacKay-Lawlor line, threw everything it had at the Papermakers. A sparkling 44-stop performance by acrobatic Cliff Sentner in the Charlottetown net held the Bathurst team at bay.

Only Pierre Venlot, who finished with three goals, and Wayne Love broke Sentner's defence.

John Hyndman scored four times for PWC. Dave Lawlor notched two goals and Gord MacKay a single.

Between the Bathurst pipes, Don Branch finished with 22 stops.

A paid crowd of 1,200 saw the contest.

Bruins Defeat Maple Leafs 5-4

BOSTON (AP)— Don McKenney, who had not scored in the previous 14 games, intercepted a pass and tallied 23 seconds from the finish Sunday night as Boston closed the National Hockey League season with a 5-4 victory over Toronto.

McKenney got the puck at centre ice, faked his way around Larry Hillman and fired into the far corner.

Until then, it appeared Toronto, though outplayed much of the way, would manage a 4-4 tie on Dick Duff's second goal of the night and the heroics of goalie Johnny Bower.

In the funeup for Leafs' opening Stanley Cup battle with New York, the aging Bower was superb against the best skating exhibition staged by the last-place Bruins all season. He made 50 saves, falling just short of Gump Worsley's 52 NHL mark.

After Boston scored three straight times to take a 4-3 lead in the middle period, Duff got the equalizer after Bruins goalie Bruce Gamble had gone down stopped Billy Harris at the opposite corner.

Duff's two goals gave him 17 for the season, eight of them at Boston expense.

Eddie Shack fed a pass to Duff who soloed in on Gamble to beat him at 5:17 of the first period. Two minutes later Tim Horton shot Leafs ahead 2-0 as he fired a 25-foot screened shot.

Bruins got that one back at 12:13 when Jerry Toppazzini deflected Pat Stapleton's 50-foot slapshot.

A penalty to Doug Mohns gave the Toronto power play a chance to increase the lead to 3-1 with Duff slamming in a rebound from Billy Harris.

With Harris off for holding Bruins narrowed the gap again at 6:07 of the second when Mohns shot in a pass from Johnny Bucyk. Bruins tied it up at 3-3 at 8:39 on a goal by Charlie Burns.

Bruins shot ahead 4-3 at 14:53 when Tom Williams grabbed a Bucyk rebound and beat Bower cleanly.

Leafs came right back to tie it at 4-4 at 17:43 when Nevin's 25-foot screened shot caromed in off Harris.

McKenney then sealed the victory for Bruins in the third period.

First period: 1. Toronto, Duff 16 (Shack) 5:17; 2. Toronto, Horton 10 (Stewart, Mahovlich) 7:49; 3. Boston, Toppazzini 19 (Stapleton, Green) 12:13; 4. Toronto, Duff 17 (Harris, Mahovlich) 17:34. Penalties—Hillman 13:42, Mohns 15:27, Hillman 18:03, Green 18:03, Arbour 18:23.

Second period: 5. Boston, Mohns 16 (Bucyk, Oliver) 6:07; 6. Boston, Burns 11 (Leach, Toppazzini) 8:39; 7. Boston, Williams 6 (Oliver, Toppazzini) 14:53; 8. Toronto, Harris 15 (Nevin) 17:43. Penalties—Boivin 2:58, Horton 3:00, Harris 4:53, Mahovlich 13:14, Mohns 19:53.

Third period: 9. Boston, McKenney 22, 19:37. Penalties—Horton 5:00, Arbour 16:25.

Hull Ties Goal Record; Andy Loses Out In Race

NEW YORK (AP)—Chicago's Bobby Hull scored his 50th goal of the season Sunday night and tied the National Hockey League's proudest record in the final game of the regular season, won by New York 1-1.

The 23-year old wing got his big goal before the game was five minutes old, and frantically sought the record breaker the rest of the way.

Hull also tied New York's Andy Bathgate for the league's scoring lead, each with 84 points. Bathgate got New York's first goal. Hull, however, will get the Art Ross Trophy because he has more goals.

Rangers used their number two and three lines as checking lines to frustrate the blond bomber's dashes.

Hull's 50 goals equals the season's scoring mark set by Montreal's legendary Maurice (Rocket) Richard in 50 games in 1944-45 and tied by Canadiens' Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion in 70 games last season. Hull also put together his 50 goals in 70 games.

CLIMAXES DRIVE

The goal climaxed a terrific stretch drive for the husky Black Hawk who scored 35 goals in his last 31 games.

He got the big one at the 4:58 mark of the first period. Red Fleming intercepted Al Langlois' pass in Ranger ice and shoved it over to Hull who was skating across the goal.

Bobby banged in a backhander from about 10 feet out while being ridden off by New York's Harry Howell. He beat Ranger goalie Gump Worsley on the short side.

Both Hull and Bathgate got extra ice time as they sought the individual scoring lead. The game meant nothing so far as the team standings are concerned since Chicago had secured third place and New York fourth.

Hull, skating with two lines and playing the point on the power play, had 33 minutes and 15 seconds of ice time. Bathgate, working in the same fashion, had 34:02. Hull got off a total of seven shots on goal, Bathgate four.

MISSES CHANCE

The 20 - year - old Bathgate, shooting for his first scoring title had a major opportunity in the last 4' seconds, when Hawks were at a two man disadvantage. He was held in check by Fleming.

Both Bathgate and Hull were mobbed by their teammates as the game ended. They broke out of the milling mobs of players and skated to centre ice where they shook hands.

Bathgate's 28th goal of the season came about five minutes after Hull's marker. He took a long pass from Earl Ingarfield and flipped in a 10-footer, catching the corner of the net.

That tied it at 1-1. The second period was scoreless. Goals by Ingarfield, Andy Hebenton and Ted Hampson in the third period secured it for New York. Dean Prentice assisted on the first three.

First period: 1. Chicago, Hull 50 (Fleming) 4:58; 2. New York, Bathgate 28 (Ingarfield, Prentice) 10:19. Penalties—Melnyk 10:50; Henry 14:37.

Second period: No scoring. Penalties—Vasko 4:13; Langlois 5:57; Nesterenko 15:46; Prentice 15:46.

Third period: 3. New York, Ingarfield 26 (Prentice, Harvey) 2:05; 4. New York, Hebenton 18 (Prentice, Harvey) 6:23; 5. New York, Hampson 4 (Hebenton) 13:44. Penalties — Mikita 5:01, Cahan 9:12; Balon 17:56; Hay 17:21; Pilote 18:29; Nesterenko 19:12.

Playoffs Resume At North River

Dunstaffnage and Milton are scheduled to play the fourth game of the best of five series in the North River "C" League at North River tonight at 8.45. Dunstaffnage leads the series 2-1 in games and a win tonight will give the Dunstaffnage team the Lloyd MacPhail trophy which will be presented, if it wins, following the game. In a school hockey game, preceding the "C" league finals, Winslow meets Wiltshire.

Hull Visualized 50th Goal Bathgate Is Disappointed

By BOB EXELL

NEW YORK (CP)—Did Bobby Hull think he could score No. 51 after getting his 50th goal of the season early in Sunday night's game against New York Rangers?

Hull wasn't sure. "I knew that they were going to check me closely after that because of (Andy) Bathgate," Hull said after the game. "If Bathgate hadn't been close to me (in the league scoring race; they wouldn't have checked me that hard."

The Chicago Black Hawks star said he went into the game with a sort of premonition that No. 50 would be his.

"I've had a lot of faith," he commented. "I said a little prayer before the game—as I always do.

"But I visualized it when I was having a little rest this afternoon."

STILL ANXIOUS

While his scoring streak is still strong—41 goals in his last 47 games—Hull is looking forward to going after Montreal Canadiens in the playoffs.

Despite his one goal, Rangers' Bathgate showed more than just a little disappointment at not being able to pick up the one elusive point that would have vaulted him into the league scoring title.

Bathgate took how the Hawks managed to interfere with him for most of the game.

"He (Reg Fleming) held my stick all the time," Bathgate said. "I guess I should have tried harder to break away."

"We're in anyway," he said, referring to the fact that Rangers are in the National Hockey League playoffs for the first time in four years. "That's what counts," Bathgate added.

Bathgate was more peeved at the holding tactics of Eric Nesterenko than those of Fleming. He said Nesterenko was poking the elbow into him at every chance.

"This Nester, he's like that all the time," said Bathgate. "Fleming wasn't dirty about it."

Fleming came to Bathgate on the ice after the game, apparently to apologize. Bathgate couldn't remember if he actually said anything.
