Queen Street,

FITZSIMMONS LOSES TO JEFFRIES.

Jeffries is champion of the world. The referee waves his hands to Bob's seconds to carry him to his corner.

They hit him still unconscious, and he sits in his chair where he revives rapidly. Meanwhile a shouting crowd surrounds Jeffries in his corner congratulating him and kissing and half smothering the victor.

Time was one minute 32 and two-fifths seconds on the 11th round.

George Siler of Chicago refereed the fight.

The above telegram was received last night at the old Crescent club-rooms where a number of those interested in the event assembled to get the news as it was received round by round.

The marriage of Dr. William Johnston, of Dorchester, Mass., and Miss Nellie McAndrew, of Montreal, will be solemnized in St. Patrick's Church, Montreal, on Wednesday next. The groom will be supported by his brother, Mr. R. E. Johnston, barrister at law, Summerside. The marriage ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. F. Johnston, (brother of the groom) and Rev. Father O'Halloran, of Boston, a relative of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. John McAndrew, merchant, Montreal, and is well-known in social and musical circles.

North Wiltshire and, indeed, the whole Province has sustained a severe loss by the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. John H. Clarke. Mr. Clarke was one of the most advanced practical and successful farmers in P. E. Island, a breeder of the best stock, and was a frequent and able contributor to the agricultural press. The death of such a man, at the early age of twenty-nine years, is to be lamented. We heartily sympathize with his brothers, Messrs William and James Clarke, and as well as with other relatives.

Late English papers to hand contain extended notices of the life and character of the late Rev. H. B. Swabey, whose death was announced a week or two ago. The Bath Chronicle, after referring to the incidents of his last illness and funeral, says: "The deceased was a student of King's College, Windsor, N. S. He was ordained a deacon by the Bishop of Fredericton in 1850 and priest by the Bishop of Nova Scotia four years later. After acting for three years as missionary of Cherry Valley, Mr. Swabey in 1853 became Rector of Port Hill, Prince Edward Island, a position which he occupied until 1869, and coming to Europe in that year was appointed Chaplain at St. Pierre le Celais, where he remained until 1873. From 1874 to 1882, Mr. Swabey was curate of Farringdon, and in the latter year he removed to Bath as curate of Holy Trinity, under the late Rev. J. Murray Dixon, a position he filled till 1886, when he was appointed Chaplain at the Penitentiary, while a year later he was selected for a similar office at the Royal United Hospital. Until 1898 he faithfully, zealously, and devotedly performed the sacred duties, and many poor sufferers in that institution have had their dying moments brightened by his loving ministrations. Not only was Mr. Swabey Chaplain to the Penitentiary, but since the death of Mr. Goldie he had performed the duties of honorary secretary, and at the recent annual meeting submitted the report. He leaves a widow, several daughters and four sons: Surgeon-Major Louis Swabey, R A M C, now in Crete; the Rev Stephen Swabey, Lieutenant - Surgeon Maurice Swabey, R A M C, stationed in Madras, and Lieut Swabey, of the West India Regiment.

Local and Other Items.

STRAWBERRIES—Fresh Strawberries received this (Saturday) morning at Sanderson & Co's.

SONG SERVICE.—At the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block tomorrow afternoon at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

BAND CONCERT.—The Citizens Band gave a promenade concert in the gardens last evening. The music was excellent and the attendance large.

LOYAL CRUSADERS.—Roll call and election of officers on Monday evening at 6.30. As this will be the last meeting for the holidays a full attendance is requested.

P. E. ISLAND HOSPITAL.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs Goff Bros., offering premiums on their sales of certain days for the benefit of the P. E. Island Hospital. The idea is decidedly ingenious.

PICTON ROUTE.—The Stanley will take the place of the Princess on the Pictou route part of next week. On Monday morning the steamer will leave Conolly's wharf at 7 o'clock (local) and on Tuesday the Steam Navigation Co's wharf at same hour.

WELL WORTH SEEING.—Mr. Henry Gordon, purser of the steamer Princess, has about completed the model of a full-rigged ship, the Isabel. The work was all done with a knife, and it is complete in every respect. When the finishing touches are put on the ship it will probably be put on exhibition in one of our stores.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Edward Hennessey was arraigned on a charge of criminal assault preferred by Caroline Bourke. The offence is alleged to have been committed on Thursday evening, on one of the roads leading from the city. The parties to the case are about 16 years of age. The trial was adjourned until Monday.

THE NEW SUPPLY STEAMER.—The Government supply steamer was launched this morning in the dock near Poole's Wharf. She was christened by Mrs. Donald Farquharson the "Brent"—in cold water. The vessel slid thirty feet and then stuck. She was pulled off the ways by a tug and when she reached the water the damaged her stern by colliding with a schooner.

A NEW WINDMILL.—A windmill, 60 feet tower and 13 feet wheel, has been erected on the top of St. Dunstan's College by Mr. Thomas A. McLean. The wheel was in operation yesterday for the first time, pumping water, and was most satisfactory to all concerned. It is an excellent piece of work, and reflects credit upon the man who placed it in position as well as upon the institution which has had it erected.

THE SUTHERLAND MONUMENT.—The monument in memory of the late lamented pastor of Zion Church is about completed, and it will be placed in position in the People's Cemetery next week. Mr. E. F. Purdy is the contractor, and the cost of the work is understood to be about $200. The monument is of Scotch granite, and is in the round cottage style. It will stand eleven feet high, including the base, and is surmounted by an urn. The tracing and lettering has been well done. The inscription is as follows: "Erected by friends and admirers to the memory of the Rev. David Sutherland, pastor of Zion Church. Born in Bruan, Caithness, Scotland, died July 8th, 1893."

FEAST OF ST. ALOYSIUS.—The members of the League of the Cross Society will celebrate the Feast of St. Aloysius, their patron saint, on the 28th of June instead of the 21st. The Spiritual Director, Rev. J. F. Johnston left this morning for Montreal to officiate at the marriage of his brother, Dr. Wm Johnston, and as he will not be home before the 21st, the members of the society concluded that they would wait until his return. It is their intention to have a grand parade in the morning, and in all probability a Pontifical High Mass. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Father Clarke, and the Mass will be sung by the League of the Cross choir. This is the first time in Charlottetown that the Feast of St. Aloysius will be celebrated in this manner. It is hoped that the boys will turn out in large numbers and pay due respect to the patron of youth.
