

Bilingual Civil Servants Suggested Starting In '67

OTTAWA (CP) — The Confederation of National Trade Unions proposed Tuesday that every civil servant hired by the federal government be bilingual starting in 1967.

The CNTU annual brief to the federal government asked that a law be passed now to this effect in order to prepare students for the new hiring qualification.

The labor organization also suggested that complete language courses be offered utilizing civil servants during working hours.

"This way," the brief stated,

ELMSDALE
