BUSTER BEAR THINKS TWICE

It often happens in a test a second thought is much the best.

Prickly Porcky the Porcupine is one of the most independent of all the Green Forest folk.

He shuffled over near Prickly Porcky and stood looking down at him.

This does not mean that they are never afraid. It does not mean that no one ever attacks them.

really was a bluff on the part of Prickly Porcky. He was pretending to attack Buster Bear.

GOOD BIDDING BUT BAD FOLLOW-UP

The North-South bidding in the following hand was excellent—far better than West's double of the grand-slam contract—but it was East-West who collected the points!

Bridge hand diagram showing cards and bidding sequence. South dealer, Both sides vulnerable.

Despite the fact that West's double of seven clubs, leading to the redouble, brought his side an extra 300 points, his action was most unwise—unless he knew South to be a weak card-player.

West led the heart queen. Declarer won and drew trumps, then cashed the ace of diamonds. The fall of the nine from East should have made South stop and think.
