

New Glasgow Jr. Farmers Name Committee Chairman

The New Glasgow and District Junior Farmers held their regular meeting in the hall on Wednesday, November 6. The president, Robert Rackham with a few brief remarks welcomed a number of guests from St. George's, and East Prince Junior Farmers.

The minutes of the last meeting, which was the annual meeting, were read and approved. It was reported that all the directors attended the directors meeting and a mimeographed list of committees and committee chairman was presented.

COMMITTEES

The committee chairman for the coming year are: Education, Elber Orr; Membership, Charles MacKay; Finance, Elber Orr; Social, Elber Orr; Dance, Melvin Larkin; Fire Department, William Andrew; Competition, Edith Rackham; Ways and Means, Sterling MacFarlane; Friendship, Elber Orr; Canteen, Robert Rackham; Supply Secretary, Yvonne Dorton.

S. Macfarlane read an article on the crowning of the Queen of Dairy Maids of Ontario. The Queen, Miss Jean Peterson Hornsby, Ontario, is well known to all Junior farmer members. She was one of the four who represented the Ontario Junior Farmers on the tour of our province last summer.

Tryon U. C. Men Aid AREC Training Centre

The regular meeting of the Tryon U.C. Men's Association was held in Crapaud hall on Oct. 16, owing to the pressing duties of the season, the attendance was somewhat lower than usual.

After enjoying a very delicious turkey dinner, prepared by the Crapaud W.M.S. ladies, the president, Mr. Allison Harper, took charge of the meeting. Among the items of business discussed was the question of assistance to the Atlantic Christian Training Centre. After considerable discussion and some very favourable comments on the actualities of the centre, it was unanimously decided that it be accepted as a project by the association.

Mr. William Waddell was in charge of devotions assisted by heavy singing featuring old time favourites, was led by Mr. George MacKay.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Ralph Calbert of Beauce. His subject was a very interesting account of his trip around the southern half of North America. Following this colored slides depicting many of the interesting scenes enroute, were shown.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Douglas Earle.

New Glasgow 4-H Calf Club

On Friday evening Oct. 11th the New Glasgow 4-H Calf Club held its regular meeting at the home of Jimmy McAleer. The meeting opened by singing "O Canada" followed by 4-H pledge.

The roll call was answered by twelve members and one visitor. Minutes of previous meeting were read approved with one correction and signed.

New Committees appointed were: Recreation, Carol Dickson and Orville Smith; Lunch, Melvin and Patsy Stevenson; Orville and Norman Smith.

In a debate to prove that "Beef Cattle are more profitable than Dairy Cattle", the Con side had Carol Dickson, Gloria Houston and Jimmy McAleer (they all have Dairy 4-H calves); and the Pro side had Edwin Wyand, Orville Smith and Roy Wyand (they have beef 4-H calves). The visitors decided that the Con side was the best. They won by one point.

The members listened to some points on the two days of the Rural Youth Fair by Governor Mac Donald and Wayne Macdonald.

New members will be accepted in the Club meeting at the home of Governor Macdonald on Nov. 28th as it is to be the Annual Meeting. Collection amounted to $1.50.

The members received their crests at the meeting. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess followed by "The Queen".

Testing were received from Department of Agriculture Summer. It was unanimously decided to accept soil testing as a project for this fall.

Roll call was answered by each person standing. Ivana Morrison, Secretary of St. George's after a few brief remarks called her roll.

Urban Laughlin made some complimentary remarks on the group and the business period was conducted. He felt that the number of reports submitted and the number of committees needed to conduct the various activities.

DISCUSSION

F. Rackham then led in some lively and entertaining games. A. Macfarlane led the group in discussion. Many thoughts were expressed along the line of some of the difficulties and advantages of turning on P.E.T. today; also some of the ways the Junior Farmers federation could be more helpful to the local groups. The ladies served a delicious lunch.

The discussion set the group in a story game.

The remainder of the evening was spent in square dancing. Music was provided by group leader in charge of M. Lauchlin in turn expressed their thanks for the enjoyable evening spent. The meeting closed with "The Queen".
