Eunice Gallant Becomes Bride Of Joseph A. Gallant

St. James' Church, Egmont Bay, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Msgr. J. N. Poirier celebrated the Nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Marie Eunice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Gallant of Urbanville and Joseph, Adrian, son of Mrs. Philip Gallant and the late Mr. Gallant of Piusville.

The organist, Mr. Edward Poirier accompanied the group of young ladies from Abram's Village who rendered appropriate wedding hymns during the Nuptial Mass.

While the register was being signed, a solo "Adoro te" was rendered by the bride's father. The altar was beautifully decorated with varieties of summer flowers.

Ushering the guests to the pews marked with white satin bows was Mr. Roger Arsenault. The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her floor-length gown of white satin with lace and net over-skirt, pointed sleeves, high neckline with sequin and pearl trim. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a crown of simulated pearls and sequins. She carried a lace covered Missal topped with a corsage of red roses with streamers. Her only ornament was pearl earrings, gift of the groom.

Miss Hermine Gallant, sister of the bride, was maid of honour. She was dressed in a pink ballerina length dress of lace and tier on tier of ruffled net over tulle, strapless, with matching bolero and mitts. She pinned on a corsage of yellow 'mums.

Miss Gertrude Gallant, sister of the groom as bridesmaid, looked charming in a yellow ballerina length dress, of lace and net over taffeta, fitted bodice, round neckline, cap sleeves. The overskirt was embellished with yellow velvet bows. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of yellow 'mums.

Mrs. Gallant, mother of the bride, wore a blue flowered silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of white 'mums.

The groom's mother wore a black and white silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of white 'mums.

Mr. Adrian Blanchard was best man.

A reception was held at Mulberry Lodge, in Summerside, for fifty-five guests. The bride's table was centered with a two-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by lighted tapers. Summer flowers were used to decorate.

In the evening, a salad and turkey supper was served to approximately four hundred guests at the home of Mrs. Angeline Blanchard, Piusville. After supper, a dance was held at the community hall.

Prior to their departure to Toronto, where both are employed, the happy couple were tendered a shower and farewell party at the home of the bride's parents, where they were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

High Noon Ceremony Is Solemnized At Zion Church

Marriage vows were exchanged at a high noon ceremony recently at Zion Church Study by Shirley Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews, Brockfield and Alfred Murray, son of Mrs. Gordon Murray and the late Mr. Murray, Brackley Beach. Rev. Donald Campbell performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride looked lovely in a ballerina length gown of white tulle and chantilly lace over peau de soie with floating panels of blue lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a carilla cap of lace covered peau-de-sole and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white feathered carnations and deep pink sweetheart roses. Her only ornament, a single strand of pearls, was the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. George A. Cudmore who wore a sheath style dress of blue crystal charm with white cummerbund tied in a bow, and floating panels. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of blue and white feathered carnations and wore a matching floral headpiece.

The groom was attended by Mr. George Cudmore. Following the wedding a reception was held for approximately 75 guests at The Regor Hotel. The bride's mother received in a dress of royal blue crepe with satin trim and blue and white accessories and she wore a corsage of white feathered carnations. The groom's mother chose a dress of teal blue bengaline with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. The bride's grandmother attended in a black crepe dress including the "Anne of Green Gables" books. Red Cross capsules were on hand and all sold. The card secretary reported $18.81 profit for the year to date and Mrs. Borden Campbell volunteered to assume this task for next year.

The new school committee is Mrs. Jack Evans and Mrs. Archie Mann. Sick visitors are Mrs. Halsey Proffitt, Mrs. Clair Campbell and Mrs. Willard Brown.

A new case for the secretary's papers was shown and approved of. On motion all bills were ordered paid.

The outside of the hall has been painted at a cost of $207.21 including paint and labor. Collection and fines amounted to $2.55.

The members approved of assisting in the care of a war orphan for another year. Correspondence relative to radio and TV programmes and the contest now on radio was read, and a short discussion held on the merits of the present programmes, with some suggestions on how changes might be made to improve their value especially in the programmes featured during the early hours for children.

Mrs. D. Hickox offered to be hostess to the annual meeting on November 3. At the conclusion of the business meeting several games of bingo were enjoyed by all, followed by a dainty lunch by the four members of the committee in charge.

The treasurer reported $742.90 as the financial balance with $18.37 spent this month. Two kits of new Library books for the school came yesterday with more to follow for the higher grades.

with black and white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with dainty sweetheart roses centered the bride's table. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Campbell and responded to by the groom.

For travelling the bride chose a coral sheath dress with jacket and navy and white accessories, and with this she wore a corsage of white feathered carnations.

Prior to her marriage several social functions were held. Mrs. George Cudmore entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home also Miss Shirley Wood entertained in her honor. Mrs. Blythe H. Murray sister-in-law of the groom entertained at a tea and presented the bride-to-be with two Island scenes. A community shower was held at the bride's home, where she received many useful and lovely gifts.

The regular meeting of the St. George's parish council C.W.L. was held on September 27 with a good attendance. The Very Rev. Director opened the meeting with prayer. The president, Mrs. Joseph A. Morrison occupied the chair. The minutes of the last regular and executive meetings were approved as read. A total membership of 54 was reported by convener, Mrs. Gus MacDonald.

Correspondence consisted of card of thanks from the family of the late Alex D. Campbell, letters from provincial, Red Cross Commissioner and the provincial spiritual convener.

It was decided to observe special devotional in honor of our Lady Fatima on the first Saturday of October.

Card parties came under discussion and definite plans in this connection are to be made at next meeting.

Betty Jean MacDonald and Harriet Fay were appointed in charge of church goods.

The meeting closed with prayer.
