FUR GOODS A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros

TORONTO HAS IT.—Toronto has a new paper called The Earth. Toronto has been wanting it for some time.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT THE PARK. — The Salvation Army's afternoon meetings at Victoria Park have been discontinued.

EVICTED TENANTS' FUND.—The total amount subscribed to the Irish Evicted Tenants' Fund is £13,000. To this the United States and Canada contributed £384.

LABOR DAY.—Monday next being Labor Day and a statutory holiday, will be duly observed by the banks, public offices, schools, and many of the stores and places of business.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.—The result of the vote taken in Summerside yesterday was unfavorable to lighting that town by electricity. The votes stood, for electricity 100; against, 152.

IN THE GARDENS. — The promenade concert in Queen Square Gardens last evening by the Citizens Band was attended by a large gathering. A splendid programme was well rendered.

STILL UNCONSCIOUS.—At two o'clock this afternoon Thomas Higgins, injured in Auld's egg establishment on Wednesday afternoon, was reported "still unconscious." He has never spoken since he fell.

FIRE.—The alarm this forenoon was for a slight fire among some coal stored in a shed on Lord's Wharf. The coal belonged to the Royal Electric company, and the shed to Capt John Hughes. The shed was partially damaged.

THEATRICAL. — The Hattie Bernard Chase Company have engaged the Masonic Temple Opera House for four performances, beginning on Wednesday, May 29, 1895. Their repertoire includes "1996," "The Hired Girl" and "The Little Coquette."

RESULT OF THE DROUGHT.—The continual drought has reduced the water in the Sandusky River at Tiffin, Ohio, to such a low stage that the fish are dying by the thousands and are rotting upon the rocks of the river bed right in the heart of that city.

A STRANGE FIND.—In digging for the foundation for a Masonic temple at Augusta, Me., recently, the workmen found, eight feet below the surface, a bed of chip about three feet thick. No ships have been built there for many year, and the shipyard in which the chips were made was abandoned forty years ago.

A FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—The Quebec Gazette says: It is said that while a newly married couple at Valcourt, P. Q., were receiving the congratulations of their friends lightning entered the house, struck the table at which they were sitting and tore the boots off the groom without doing him any other harm than dazing him for the time being.

NEW BRUNSWICK CROPS.—The St. John Telegraph says: The work of haying has been finished in the country districts. It has proved a good season for grass, and it was secured in fine condition. Harvesting has begun. Potatoes and oats will probably be poor crops. Buckwheat will be about the average.

SERVICE AT CRAPAUD.—The Methodist Church at Crapaud, having undergone extensive repairs this summer, will be reopened for worship on Sabbath, September 16th. Rev. J. K. King will occupy the pulpit morning and evening, and Rev. E. Slackford in the afternoon. A collection will be taken at each service.

SCOTT ACT.—Before H. James Palmer, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, today, Thomas Pursey, of Rustico, was convicted and fined $50 and costs for violating the Canada Temperance Act; and the summons against Mrs. Pippey, of Alexandria, Lot 49, was dismissed. A summons has been issued against Mrs. Pippy's husband.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—This forenoon the Chief Justice made an order admitting James McNeill to bail, himself in the sum of $1600 and three sureties in the sum of $800 each. McNeill has been sent up for trial in the Supreme Court on a charge of murder. The sureties must justify before H. James Palmer, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, and H. V. Palmer, J. P.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—The ideal magazine prints not only timely articles on events and places, but stories of the right length to read aloud by the evening lamp. The September Harper's contains "A New England Prophet," the story of an Adventist alarm, by Mary E. Wilkins; "The General's Bluff," founded on a frontier campaign of General Crook, by Owen Wister; "The Tug of War," a tale of English men and women in Greece; chapters of "The Golden House," Charles Dudley Warner's novel of New York society, and the first of a two-part story of Narragansett Pier, by Brander Matthews.

POLICE PENCILLINGS.—Frank Ellworth, gathered in for drunkenness last evening, stands over for trial on Monday.

During the month of August, ended today, there were twenty-one convictions at the Police Court, as follows: eight for violating the Canada Temperance Act; six for drunkenness; six for nuisance, and one for assault. The dismissals during the same period were twelve, as follows: seven for violating the Canada Temperance Act; four for drunkenness, and one for nuisance. The receipts of the Court during the month amounted to $162.35. During the month of August, 1893, the convictions for drunkenness numbered twenty.

SOURIS FISHING ITEMS.—In port Aug. 30: Schooners J. N. Pearce, Rowland, Tartar, Thomas F. Bayward, Josephine, John McKenzie, S. F. Maher.

Schooners report fishing very fair off East Point. The schooner John McKenzie got 25 barrels there yesterday.

The boats did well at Campbell's Cove and North Lake on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last, some boats getting one thousand fish.

The steamer St. Olaf brought 92 barrels of mackerel from the Magdalenes, which were bought by Livan & Son, of Philadelphia, and have gone forward.

We understand that some of the buyers there are paying ten dollars per barrel for mackerel to-day.

PERSONAL.

It is pleasing to hear that Conductor Ryan is improving in health.

C. C. Gardiner, Esq., of Charlottetown, is one of the judges at the Maine State Fair.

Mr. T. B. Lavers, of the North American Insurance Company, is visiting Charlottetown.

Mr. A. S. Johnson, of this city, left this morning for Fredericton on an interesting mission.

There were registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon: A J Hillbourn, Boston, G A Hall, Truro; A S Patterson and wife, St John.

The arrivals at the Queen Hotel this forenoon were: H E Jenkins, Toronto, and F J McDonald, Glenaladale. The arrivals last evening included: J B Canfield, W W Fraser, C B Greenslitt, E Paige and wife, Mrs Malcolm, A Currie and wife, Boston; Thomas Harrain, Quebec; H M Fairweather, Moncton; J Mentin, Regina; Miss C D Hall, Winthrop.

Mrs. C. B. DesJardines and Mr. and Mrs. Burdick, returned on Saturday from a week's visit to P. E. Island. This was Mr. and Mrs. Burdick's first visit to the home of Mrs. Burdick's parents at Pownal. They are much pleased with the reception accorded them by old and young. Their only complaint is they eat and drink much too often, and do not sleep enough.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

Lord Dufferin, in the memoir acompanying the lately published collection of his mother's poems, writes touchingly and nobly of that lady, the brilliant granddaughter of Sheridan. In speaking of Lady Dufferin's peaceful end, he says: Thus there went out of the world one of the sweetest, most beautiful, most accomplished, wittiest, most loving and lovable human being that ever walked upon the earth. There was no quality wanting to her perfection, and I say this, not prompted by the partiality of a son, but as one well acquainted with the world, and with both men and women. There have been many ladies who have been beautiful, charming, witty and good, but I doubt if there have been any who have combined with so high a spirit, and with so natural a gayety and bright an imagination as my mother's, such strong, unerring good sense, tact and womanly discretion; for these last characteristics, coupled with the intensity of her affections, to which I have already referred, were the real essence and deep foundation of my mother's nature."

AN IDEAL WOMAN'S MAGAZINE.

The literary passions of a literary man are always interesting, and they are peculiarly so when an author of such renown as William Howells tells of them. The tenth instalment of Mr. Howells' literary biography under the title of "My Literary Passions" appears in the September Ladies' Home Journal. Next in interest to Mr. Howells' contribution comes a page devoted to "The Daughter in the Home," by Mrs. Burton Kingsland, Mrs. Hamilton Mott and the editor of the Journal. A particularly helpful article in response to the question, "What are Building Societies?" is contributed by Mr. Addison B. Burk, so widely known as an authority upon the subject. Mrs. Van Koert Schuyler writes most earnestly on the subject of women "Living Beyond Their Strength." The fourth paper of Mrs. Burton Kingsland's series, "A Daughter at Sixteen," is given. A clever short story by "Octave Thanet," entitled "Miss Maria's Fiftieth," is charmingly illustrated by Alice Barber Stephens, and Mr. Frank R. Stockton brings to a conclusion "Pomona's." most recent travels. Harriet Ogden Morison gives a page of exquisite designs for "Artistic Piano Covers," and J. Harry Adams contributes some handsome designs for "The Mantel and Fireplace." Mrs Mallon's pages, with original designs for "The Bonnets of the Autumn" and "The Autumn's Velvet Coat," will delight all women, and mothers everywhere will be pleased with Miss Hooper's valuable suggestions on "A Schoolgirl's Outfit." Other articles in this issue are Miss Scovil's "Physical Culture of Children," and Helen Jay's "The Farmer's Wife and Her Boys." Altogether this September issue with its artistic cover by W. T. Smedley, is an ideal magazine which every woman will do well to have. Published by the Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia, for ten cents per number, and one dollar per year.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—Official reports received at the state department indicate quite a serious situation in Peru. It has been found necessary to suspend several articles of the constitution, including the writ of habeas corpus, and the president of the republic is practically clothed with dictatorial powers. The provision allowing persons to meet peacefully in public as in private is suspended; also that provision which prevents sending a person from the republic or his residenae without an executive sentence. The Peruvian Government has also increased the duty on all imports from 25 to 30 per cent.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 29.—The commission on the unemployed held a session this afternoon and another this evening. All the commissioners were present. The attendance of witnesses, operatives and citizens generally, was large. Among those who testified were Assistant City Marshal Cline, City Commissioner Carter, T. P. Cahill, H. W. Keatsman, the populist candidate for Congress and several others.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29. — Chief Health Officer Curtis was attacked by a mob of women while moving a small pox patient. Fifty policemen arrived, and after a pitched battle they dispersed the mob. Over 100 officers now patrol the riotous district.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 29.—Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Fanny Lemont, only daughter of William Lemont, senr., member of the firm of Lemont & Sons, to Mr Arthur Sterling Johnson, druggist, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. The wedding will take place at 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, 5th Sept. next, at the Lemont residence on Campbell Street, here, and will be quite a brilliant affair.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Since the passage of the Tariff Bill by the American Congress, London's business in Colonial grown wool with the United States has been very much more active. It estimated that 1,500 bales of Colonial wool have been purchased at private sale for the United States market since the last auction sale of wools and the volume would have been vastly greater but for the fact that wool importers are unwilling to do business except at public auctions, owing to the difficulties of getting what supplies they want in London, a fair quantity being drawn to that continent. There is activity on the Liverpool docks and ship owners are expecting the passage of the tariff bill will greatly revive trade.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Statistics have been compiled at Vienna of the quantity of beer drank in 1893 in the entire world. Germany leads with 1,202,132,074 gallons, an increase of 34,000,000 over 1892, the consumption being 33 gallons per head, ranging from 52 gallons in Bavaria to 12 gallons in Lohringen; Great Britain second, 1,165,757,000 gallons, or 30 gallons per head. America, including the whole of the western hemisphere, is third, with more or less than a billion gallions, or 16 gallons per head. The total for the world, not including Asia and Africa, is 4,500,000,000 gallons, requiring 7,270,000 tons of malt and 82,000 tons of hops.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 28.—While it is yet too early to say definitely the effect of the Tariff bill on the local markets a reporter who visited the produce district reports that many of the dealers "cuss" the new Tariff bill and said that it would let in Canadian truck and would ruin many farmers hereabout. They all agree that the cost of eggs, apples and potatoes will be less.

"The new tariff opens the way for the importation of eggs, apples and potatoes and other stuff from Canada," said Mr. C. L. Potter, of the firm of Potter & Williams. "As it is now, very little produce is brought over from Canada. We expect to see the market glutted with Canadian produce. Eggs, apples and potatoes will be cheaper, but the American farmers will be the sufferers. They can't compete with the Canadian farmer."
