Local and Other Items.

REMEMBER the public meeting in Market Hall this (Friday) evening.

SMALL quantities of black currants, green gooseberries and cherries were for sale in the market to-day.

"THE CRAZY MAN" has again appeared on the Market Square. He is selling an abundance of cheap jewelry, etc.

C. C. JONES, of pump and tubular well fame, is in this city providing for the wants of the thirsty. His office is opposite Dr. Jenkins'. Give him a call.

FINE NEW HOUSES.—Mr. James M. Butcher advertises for sale the very fine houses he has just erected on Weymouth Street—one of the most pleasant localities in the City.

IF you want a nice dish of White Mountain Ice Cream go to the BEEHIVE Temperance Saloon, (late R. Wright's Grocery Store), opposite St. Paul's Church, Prince Street.—6in eod daily pat.

WE learn that Mr. Stephen McDonald, of Souris, has been deprived of his license to sell liquor. The people of Souris could not endure the prostitution of a "public house" to the purposes of the Grit officials who "run" Dr. McIntyre.—COM.

THE Italians are not satisfied because they did not get Dalmatia or the Austrians Tyrol, and because England has occupied Cyprus. Italy hopes to be a great maritime power, and does not like being so completely overshadowed.

There has been much fighting between the United States troops and volunteers and the hostile Indians in the Western States. Of course, no matter what success the Indians obtain as first, they are ultimately vanquished, but at a fearful cost.

JOHN H. MURRAY'S CIRCUS exhibited to an immense audience last evening notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather. The performance, from beginning to end, was excellent, reflecting much credit on Mr. Murray as well as sustaining his present great reputation. The ascent on a single wire from the ground to the pole at the booth was witnessed by a great crowd this afternoon.

THE St. John papers say that cheap excursions to Halifax, Charlottetown, Grand Falls, etc., are the order of the day in that place. We have seldom the pleasure of a cheap excursion from this city. Could not the Railway Superintendent and Steamboat agents arrange one cheap excursion to St. John on the occasion of the great boat race between Hanlan and Ross, which takes place on the 25th?

THERE was a large attendance at the Market to-day. Vegetables were in access of demand in the upper department. Prices were similar to those of Friday, and were as follows:—Beef, small, from 5 to 15 cts; do qr., from 5 to 8 cts.; mutton from 5 to 10 cts.; lamb per qr., from 40 cts. to $1; potatoes per bush., from 25 to 30 cts.; do new per quart, from 5 to 6 cts.; peas per qrt., from 16 to 20 cts.; butter fresh, from 17 to 20 cts.; eggs from 10 to 12 cts.

Stipendiary Magistrate's Court.

July 18.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, Joseph Valley was fined $3 and costs, or 14 days, for being drunk and disorderly; Thomas Hogan, for the same offense, was fined $2 and costs, or 20 days; Robert White appeared on complaint of Mr. Benjamin Heartz, for trespass. As two others—John McKinnon and Geordе Thorne—who also committed a trespass at the same time, did not appear, the case was postponed until to-morrow, and warrants issued for the absentees. The action was, that the three boys above named, entered the garden of Mr. Heartz, and broke several fruit trees.

Jnly 19.

THERE were two actions for assault tried before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon. The first was between Captain John Hughes and George Welsh. It occurred on board the schooner "J. J. Marshall" yesterday, and was the result of a debate on an agreement for wages between the parties named. Walsh being the assaulter, was fined $10 or one months' imprisonment with hard labor. The second was a prosecution by Henry Vincent against John McKinnon for assaulting him at the corner of Queen and Grafton Street, on the 11th inst. McKinnon was fined $2 and costs or 8 days' imprisonment.

AUBURN, July 17.

The eight-oared race—three miles—between the Freshmen crews of Cornell and Harvard Universities was won by the former this afternoon, by three lengths. Time, 17 minutes 6½ seconds.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Special despatch to Examiner:

LONDON, July 18.

Lord Beaconsfield, on entering the old palace yard, on his way to the House of Lords, about 5 o'clock this afternoon, was heartily cheered by the great crowd which had assembled there to greet him. He experienced much difficulty in passing through the throng, though accompanied by a squad of police.

Public interest in the promised statement by Beaconsfield has attracted a large and distinguished assembly in the House of Lords, including the Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal Family. When Beaconsfield retired there was considerable cheering, and he looked well and betrayed no especial feeling at his brilliant reception.

About five minutes later Lord Salisbury entered, and then Lord Beaconsfield rose amid loud cheering. He said, in laying upon the table protocols of the treaty of Berlin that he should only be doing his duty to the House of Parliament and the country by making some remarks upon the policy supported by the British representatives in Congress. He could show that in the changes made in the treaty of San Stefano by the treaty of Berlin that menace to the independence of England had been removed, and the threatened injury to the British Empire terminated.

Lord Beaconsfield statement showed throughout, a strong bias in favor of the Turks, thus he almost apologized for the limitation of the Sultan's authority in Eastern Russia—his Lordship continuing said "most competent authorities had convinced him that it would have taken 50,000 of Turkey's best troops to secure any approach to order in Bosnia. Even then the attempt perhaps would have been unsuccessful, and such an effort must have secured Turkey's absolute ruin.

He disclaimed any desire to attribute Austrian occupation to a necessity of submitting to the wishes of the majority of Congress. Austria undertook the occupation at the suggestion of Lord Salisbury, who was earnestly supported by himself. The object in recommending the occupation was to protect the Turkish Government, who had consistently resisted the principle of the partition of Turkey because, exclusive of the consideration of morality, it believed an attempt at partition would inevitably lead to a long and sanguinary war. The advocates of partition had spoken out. The Government had been taken up into the mountain and shown all the kingdoms of the earth and told "all these shall be yours if you will only worship Partition."

This remark of the Premier seems to be an allusion to the proposal which Prince Bismarck is generally understood to have made, that England would occupy Egypt.

Continuing, he said: "It was remarkable that, after the great war and prolonged negotiations, all the Powers—Russia as strictly and completely as the others—should come to a unanimous conclusion that the best chance for the tranquility of the world was to retain the Sultan, as a part of the European system."

He said in conclusion, let Russia keep what she has obtained. England has now said thus far "and no further."

Asia is large enough for both Russia and England, there is no reason for constant War or fears of War between them.
