NOTICE.

The Canada Temperance Act.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of "The Canada Temperance Act," that on THURSDAY, the Fourth day of August, 1887, there will be deposited in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, in the City of Charlottetown, in Queen's County, in Prince Edward Island, for public examination, in accordance with the provisions of the above mentioned Act, a notice, addressed to the Secretary of State for Canada, in which is embodied a petition, praying that the Order-in-Council of the Thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1886, bringing into force in the said City of Charlottetown, the second part of "The Canada Temperance Act" may be revoked.

And notice is also given that, appended to the said notice so to be deposited, are the genuine signatures of at least one-fourth in number of the electors of the City of Charlottetown, qualified and competent to vote at an election of a member of the House of Commons, in the said City, and that the said notice will remain in the Registrar's Office for the space of ten days, from the date of deposit, and after the expiration of that time the same will be laid before the Secretary of State for Canada.

Dated at the City of Charlottetown, in Queen's County, in Prince Edward Island, this 19th day of July, A. D. 1887.

The Pope's Letter.

A COMPREHENSIVE SURVEY OF EUROPEAN CATHOLICISM.

The Rome Moniteur publishes the text of a letter addressed by the Pope to Cardinal Rampolla on June 15, when the latter assumed the functions of pontifical secretary of state. In this letter the Pope explains fully the principles which he has followed in the government of the church. He declares that he took upon himself the mission to reconcile the people and the government of civilized states. Referring first to Italy the Pope develops the ideas expounded in the concistory allocution of May 23, when he laid down as a basis of pacification Italy's acknowledgment of the independence of the Holy See. He reiterates his claim to territorial sovereignty as indispensable condition of settlement. All other schemes, he says, are unworthy of consideration. Italy herself, says the Pope, would reap most splendid benefits at home and abroad from a settlement recognizing the Pope's temporal power.

Adverting next to Austria, the Pope says that the piety of the Emperor and the devotion of the imperial family to the Holy See have rendered mutual relations the best possible, and the wisest statesman enjoying the confidence of the Emperor have promoted religion in Austria-Hungary and the establishment of perfect concord.

France, the elder daughter of the church, was menaced by serious evils. The Pope trusted those evils would be dispelled through observance of the letter and spirit of the pacts solemnly concluded with the church.

Turning to Spain, the Pope says the first need in a union of Catholics is defence of their religion, in devotion to the Holy See and in reciprocal charity, so that Spain may not be misguided by personal views.
The relations between the Vatican and the State give assurance that the Pope's solicitude for the interests of Catholics will be effectively rewarded, both within Spain and in Spanish America, over whose people the Vatican exercises watchful care.

Regarding Prussia the Pontiff says it is necessary to continue the work of religious peace-making to its full achievement.
Great things have been done. The well disposed mind of the Emperor and the good intentions of his ministers permit His Holiness to cherish the hope that his efforts to ameliorate the condition of the church will not prove barren. The solicitude felt by the Vatican for Prussia extends equally to the other states of Germany, and those states are now happily seeking the friendliest relations with the Vatican. The Pope concludes with a reference to fostering missions, leading back to the church her separated people.

Note to Editors and Reporters.

The boy who would be a successful journalist must enter the profession with no vain ambition to hurry up and get his name in print, or to be called an "editor." He must make up his mind to work hard and conscientiously; and, after a number of years, take the position in the profession to which he seems to be adapted, resting content therewith. If he comes to his work with a collegiate education, it will be well; but it is by no means necessary.

Journalism, it must be borne in mind, is distinct from authorship, pure and simple.
The journalist deals with the questions of the day; his knowledge must be on the tip of his tongue, or rather, at the point of his pen,—ready for use at any moment. The author, on the other hand, can sit at home, write leisurely, revise frequently, and consult books of reference to verify his statements.

Some college-bred reporters are occasionally both pained and surprised at their first newspaper experiences. Such a young man may look in the morning paper for his first report, on which, you may be sure, he has taken the greatest possible pains; has given an elaborate description of the hall, the appearance of the audience, and of the lecturer he has been sent to report.

Yet he cannot find his account, although he is sure he wrote a column.
"May be it's crowded out," says a brother reporter, and then adds, "Why, no; here it is! It is cut down, and they've put a new 'head' on it."

Yes; there it is, away down in the corner of the third page, next to the market reports!

It makes a column—all but nine-tenths!
Our college bred young friend may be very angry; at such shabby treatment; but, if he is a sensible fellow, he soon gets used to it. In fact, he is compelled to get used to it.—[From "Ready for Business," by George J. Manson, in St. Nicholas, for August.]

Two Men Lost on the Banks.

Thomas DeCoste and William Drew, of Harbor au Bouche, who went fishing this spring in a Gloucester vessel, left the vessel together in a dory to tend their trawls on the 26th of June and did not return.
They are now supposed to have been lost in the fog and to have perished. Captain Boudrot, of the schooner Blondell, which arrived in Cow Bay on the 21st inst., reports having found a dory sixty miles east of Scatarie with a dead man in it. The dory was full of water and the body was in a state of decomposition. There was too much swell on to save the boat or examine the body. But by many the body is supposed to be that of one of the missing men.
Thomas DeCoste is the only son of a widow. The other man is a son of John Drew, Harbor au Bouche.—Echo.

At Parksburg, W. Va., a little Lee boy found an old liquor barrel, and amused himself by dropping lighted matches through the vent hole. Presently there was an explosion, and the boy and barrel were blown into the branches of a neighboring tree.
The boy was badly hurt and the barrel ruined.

Halifax Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

INTENDED VISIT OF THE PRINCIPAL AND SEVERAL PUPILS TO P. E. ISLAND.

The Directors of the Halifax Institution for the Deaf and Dumb beg to announce that Mr. J. Scott Hutton, M. A., Principal of the Institution, accompanied by several of the pupils, will give a lecture and exhibition illustrative of the method and results of deaf-mute instruction, at the following places, on the days named, as far as may be found practicable. The particular hour and place of meeting are left to be fixed by friends of the cause in the several localities, so as to suit general convenience.

PROPOSED ROUTE.

Charlottetown, Friday, August 5; New Glasgow, Saturday, August 6; Cavendish, Monday, August 8; New London (South), Tuesday, August 9; Princetown, Wednesday, August 10; Port Hill, Thursday, Aug.
11; Alberton, Friday, August 12; Kensington, Saturday, August 13; Summerside, Monday, August 15; Centreville, Tuesday, August 16; Tryon, Wednesday, August 17; Crapaud, Thursday, August 18; West River, Friday, August 19; Mount Stewart, Monday, August 22; St. Peter's, Tuesday, August 23; Souris, Wednesday, August 24; Georgetown, Thursday, August 25; Montague Bridge, Friday, August 26; Belfast, Saturday, August 27; Orwell, Monday, August 29; Pownal, Tuesday, August 30.

A collection or subscription will be taken up at each place in aid of the funds of the Institution.

As the Halifax Institution for the Deaf and Dumb has, for upwards of twenty-five years, been boarding and educating the deaf mutes of Prince Edward Island almost gratuitously, and with the exception of a small grant from the government, has made no appeal for aid from the Island for the last five years, it is hoped there will be a liberal response on this occasion.

The directors confidently bespeak for the deputation the same generous reception experienced in former years, the party being hospitably entertained, and generally conveyed from place to place free of charge, thus rendering the collections a valuable for the funds for the Institution.

Indignity to Americans.

A sensation has been created by the publication in several newspapers of reports that Hon. Patrick A. Collins, of Boston, Mass., and his entire party were arrested at Belfast, Ire., by the government on their arrival from Glasgow. The facts are that Collins and party were detained in the custom house with much formality, and their luggage subjected to a rigid examination.
Every parcel was unpacked and minutely examined; even the smallest hand-bag carried was open and upset. When the trunks were emptied the bottoms and sides were also sounded to ascertain whether they contained secret chambers for smuggling goods or dynamite. The act was made more exasperating to the travellers by the fact that the work was performed by detectives and not by the regular customs officers. Mr.
Collins was astounded and irritated.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

In a breach of promise suit in Ohio the girl showed up 745 letters for 120 days of love.

A man who had stolen twenty-four horses was recently sentenced at Waterloo, Ont., to twenty-four years in the penitentiary.

Two pleasure yachts, both well laden, were capsized in a squall off Yarmouth, Eng., on Thursday. Ten persons were drowned.

The oldest lawsuit in Illinois has been on the docket for 42 years. It began about a $2 hog, and has cost the principals about $7000.

On Wednesday a cyclone passed Anson, Texas, going in a southwest direction. The damage in the town as far as learned, foots up to $40,000.

It is claimed now that the telephone was invented in 1635. It did not come into general use, however, because the word "hello" was not invented until some years later.

Four girls were drowned while bathing in the river near Lowell, Mass., on Thursday. The current carried them beyond their depth. Their ages ranged from 12 to 14 years.

At Ridgewood, two miles from Reading, Pa., on Thursday an express train ran into a wagon containing a pleasure party, killing four and fatally injuring one. They were hurled down an embankment, where the bodies were picked up.

Old Ben Davies lived alone in a West Virginia wilderness, and some one passed by a few days ago and told him he had been left a fortune of $60,000 in England. Next day some one went to look for him and found him hanging to a tree. The idea of having to be rich and wear store clothes had upset him.
