Fashion Show

Dear Editor:

I would like to extend my appreciation to all of the models who participated in the fashion show at the UPEI Barn on October 16, 1985. The ladies included: Diane Bulger, Cathy Montgomery, Kim Smallman, Nancy Bell, Debbie McAloney, Sandra Skeffington, Mary Chamberlain, Julia Hammond, Jamie Simmons, and Jean Davis. The gentlemen were: John Bonnell, Mark Griffith, Scott Ferris, Robbie MacKenzie, Ron Hateley, Glen Grant, and Paul Ledwell. Their hard work and effort was greatly appreciated. The models did a fine job — Thank you.

I would also like to thank Pierrots, who loaned us the ladies fashions which were displayed in the show. Donna Cudmore, Gloria Norring, and Diane Keenan must be mentioned as they were the backbone behind the show. I would like to congratulate them on their fine job. Barry's Men's Wear also showed an impressive display of fashions. Ann Tanton from Just Hair donated her time and talent by styling the models' hair. Once again, I would like to thank all the people involved.

Others who contributed to the production of the fashion show include: Shoppers Drug Mart for helping with the make-up, Proude's Shoes for supplying footwear for the models, and finally All Occasion Florists for the beautiful flower arrangements on the stage. Also thanks must go to the UPEI Book Store for supplying door prizes.

Although only a small crowd attended the first Fashion Show at the UPEI Barn, I was pleased with the show and I hope everyone enjoyed it.

Question:

Should U.P.E.I. boycott South African products?

Ritchie Rolfe: "Yes, because it is somehow taking a stand against apartheid, and it creates an awareness among people. However, it won't necessarily create a big dent in their (South Africa's) economy."

Elizabeth Yeo: "Yes, because if there is a chance it could help, the university should do it."

Susan MacKenzie: "Yes, because of the issues going on down there - the white man is oppressing the blacks and in today's society this shouldn't be happening."

Doug MacDonald: "No, I don't, because it is a futile gesture that will have no impact."

Robert MacDonald: "Yes. It is not going to make any difference but it will make some of the students at UPEI happy, and that is important to them."

Barb O'Neill: "Yes, because it might stop all the problems in South Africa, and it seems to be a general consensus among the Commonwealth countries to boycott South African products."
