STUDENTS ENJOY RECITAL - Recently the students of Notre Dame enjoyed a very special evening entertainment when Mr. William Rogers favored them with a delightful piano recital in the Academy Auditorium. The young ladies, several of whom are music students of the Academy, listened with rapt attention, revelling in this fine music. Mr. Rogers played with ease and technical finesse, works by Debussy. In the Chopin numbers his elegance of expression was captivating and fine rhythmic intuition pervaded throughout the Polish. His own composition, a gem of originality, was also executed with the same clarity of expression. The students voiced their gratitude to Mr. Rogers for such a pleasurable evening with the hope of hearing him again in the near future.
