Wedding

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gaudet whose marriage took place on Wednesday, April 22nd, at seven o'clock, in St. Simon's and St. Jude's Church, Tignish. Their pastor, Rev. J. A. MacDonald, performed the ceremony and also celebrated the nuptial mass.

The couple were attended by Miss Anita Doucette and Mr. Fred Gaudet. The bride is the former Miss Cecile Doucette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Doucette, DeBlois, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Gaudet, Tignish.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents where refreshments were served to over fifty relatives and friends who wish the happy young couple many years of wedded bliss. Prior to her wedding the bride was tended a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubin Martin, St. Roche, where she was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts.

LONDON, (CP)—Replying to a question in Parliament, under-secretary of state J. G. Foster said no arrangements are being made for any separate film record of Commonwealth or British troops participating in the Coronation procession June 2.

Too much needless surgery

Taking out normal appendixes, unnecessary Caesarean births, switching surgeons while the patient is under anaesthesia — these things do happen, says Dr. Paul R. Hawley, Director of the American College of Surgeons.

In May Reader's Digest, he tells what doctors themselves are doing to fight the unethical practices that still exist despite the high level of medical care in the U.S. today, and advises one best way you can guard against needless surgery.
