

The Legend of Saint Ogg.

In days of old—as legends tell—
When prayer and faith wrought miracle!

The night was dark—the winds were high,
They tossed the waves and gloomed the sky—
Down to the river's brink there came,

Fierce was the storm, and wild the scene,
His heart was brave, his stroke was keen!

And so to love's most tender word,
Her sweet voice through the stillness stirred:

The vision passed—the blessing stayed,
In shield of benediction laid!
