

Old Shoes.

How much a man is like old shoes: For instance, both a soul may lose; Both have been tanned, both are made tight by cobbler. Both get left and right. Both need a mate to be complete. And both are made to go on feet. They both need healing, oft are sold. And both in time turn all to mould. With shoes the last is first; with men The first shall be the last, and when The shoes wear out they're mended new; When men wear out they're mended, too. They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others nothing loath. Both have their ties, and both incline When polished in the world to shine. And both get out. And would you choose To be a man or be his shoes.

Feminine Brevities.

The Sultan of Turkey is happy in the possession of 494 wives. Handsome women without perfume are like flowers without perfume. Mrs. Cleveland's footman is conspicuous for liver-colored livery and a fur cape. Christine Nilsson is soon to be presented at the Spanish court by Count Miranda, her husband. Kate Field is one of the few pretty girls in this country who hasn't been kissed by General Sherman. Empress Elizabeth of Austria has rheumatism, and will try the hot baths of Mehadia, Hungary. Mrs. Polk, widow of President Polk, keeps her health and memory at the age of four score and more. Kisses, according to Sam Slick, are like creation, because they are made out of nothing and are very good. Maggie Mitchell often cooks dinner at her Long Branch house, and lets the servants stand by and look at her. Miss Mahone, the daughter of the Virginia Senator, is a musical enthusiast, and is going abroad to continue her studies. Miss Ala Leigh, who successfully founded a home for American girls in Paris, is soliciting to establish a similar one for young men. Mrs. John Morrissey once knocked a man down for accosting her on the street and a Miss Stone Blackwell argues from this that women should learn to box. Of the three daughters whom Longfellow immortalized in that beautiful poem "The Twilight Hour," Alice alone remains unmarried. She lives in the old "Craigie house" at Cambridge with her bachelor uncle, Rev Samuel Longfellow. In Finland, according to Bayard Taylor, the women resent an insult a salute upon the lips. A Finnish matron, hearing of our English custom of kissing, declared that did her husband attempt such a liberty she would treat him with such a box upon the ears that he should not readily forget.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

A strange disease, communicated by contact, has caused a great deal of havoc among horses in Dewitt County, Ill. Forty mares have died from it.

The great popular remedy of the day for coughs, colds, asthma and all lung difficulties, is Adamson's Botanic Balm. Inexpensive, reliable, pleasant to take, cures by magic, and gives universal satisfaction. A trial is the best testimonial. Price 35 cents. Trial size 10 cents.

A Papal rescript has been issued ordering that High Mass and a Te Deum shall be sung in all the Catholic churches of England in honor of Queen Victoria's Jubilee.

Make New Rich Blood! CHARLOTTETOWN BOOT AND SHOE FACTORY. SPRING, 1887 - SPRING. WE must thank our friends and the public generally for their ever increasing patronage since we have commenced business. Our Boot & Shoe Factory, in starting, had many difficulties to overcome, and we are glad that to-day those difficulties have been surmounted, and we are now well able to compete with the best Boot and Shoe Factories abroad. Some of the advantages purchasers have in buying from us, saving of freight, ordering goods when you want them (not six months before), getting them without delay—which saves carrying a large stock which deteriorates on the shelves. Our leathers are bought directly from the tanneries, thereby saving commissions which many factories have to pay. We are more determined than ever to give the BEST OF SATISFACTION and to merit the whole of the Island's patronage. We hope to see many new industries arise, thereby increasing the prosperity of the "Gem of the Sea." DORSEY, GOFF & CO. Ch'town, March 15, 1887—eod & wky
